ABOUT ASTROLOGY

Astrology is often defined as the study of the influences of the cosmos on life on earth.

The zodiac is the belt or band of constellations through which the Sun, Moon, and planets transit across the sky.

Astrology is a science related to the heavenly bodies. It is the study of the movements and positions of the sun, moon, planets and stars, and the skill of describing the expected effect that these are believed to have on the character and behavior of humans. Astrology is not at all a fortune telling. It is one of the successfully tested methods for man to learn about who he is, where he came from and where he is going. Astrology reveals CHARACTER and character makes your destiny.

The main uses of astrology are analysis of health and sickness, character psychoanalysis, professional guidance, analysis of children's horoscopes so as to give parents a better idea as to how best to raise their children, and analysis of the compatibilities between people.

Astrology does not show anything but tendencies. A man can dominate his stars by exerting his determination. If a man decides to flow with the wave of life, then the tendencies indicated in the birth chart could be observed in that man. Astrology forewarns and being put on alert, a man is thus in a better position to cope with the struggles of life.

There are three aspects which bring to us the mystic message of the stars - the houses, the signs and the planets. Each house represents a section of life; the signs are divisions of the heavens which by their placement relative to the houses indicate our basic temperament and attitude towards life and the relative motion of the planets through the houses are the messengers of the god which bring to us the opportunities.

About Sun signs

Your sun sign represents the sign of the zodiac that the Sun passed through at the time of your birth. The Sun rules your essential personality, your ego and your willpower. It represents the core of your potential and your distinctiveness as an individual; it is who you are and what you are about.

The beginning and end dates for each of the signs can vary from year to year. Cusp is the border line between two adjacent sun signs. If you were born on a cusp, you may have some qualities of one sign and some from the other sign.

ABOUT THIS BOOK

Destiny refers to a predetermined course of events.

In astrology, nothing can replace the personal touch of the astrologer because astrology is much more beyond the planets and requires intuition and understanding of the subject.

Life is a journey and the forecasts are given to help you. Use them as a guideline. These horoscopes shall give you an idea of your future in year 2008. A day may be good for one thing and bad for another. Please read the trend in horoscopes carefully as they might indicate opportunities and pitfalls ahead.

There are no absolute guarantees in life. It depends on how you interpret the things. This is a small book and does not contain each and every minute details of the subjects. We've tried to be specific on topic and be general in trends. If we say you'll be busy with your partner, he could be your spouse/colleague/business partner/friend and your pet. Please relate interpret these horoscopes to your way of living.

This book can not be a substitute to a professional astrologer, and you should be seeing one in case you need specific answers to your queries.

CANCER

KNOW YOURSELF

For Cancer individuals, the sexual act is attached to all things which mean security, loyalty and truth of the heart. Their needs are apt to fluctuate in accordance with their moods and emotional state. The same can be said for their intensity and level of desire.

Cancerians are considered to be quite unsophisticated from the inside and prone to move around in search of the right opportunity. It is also a widely accepted notion that they are sensitive and protective. They don't find it difficult to blend in the environment, and at the same time, are also quite attached to their family.

But there are quite many other facets to your personality. You have special love for the spotlight, and the desire to be admired and loved is very dominant in your character. You are very touchy, and get emotional a lot more often than others. You sense of purpose for everything you do, and you are ready to endure anything if you feel the end result is worth it.

You will move in all directions to reach you destination, and this makes things possible for you that no other person around you can manage to pull off. This also increases your money making opportunities, and you might well make your way into large money-making firms. You have an innate feeling of insecurity and timidity, and this prevents you from taking risks and thereby inhibits your growth.

You have strong likes and dislikes and preconceived notions. Talking about your sex drive, you clearly exhibit your intrinsic craving for proximity. You need intimacy from your mate, failing which you develop a wall between you and your mate. To top it all, you have a fascination for money and all the luxuries that it can bring to your feet.

Qualities that make you lucky are understanding, imaginative, desire to success, and trustworthiness. Qualities that hinder your success are moodiness, pride, pessimism, and tendency to get hurt easily.

Pamela Anderson, Tom Cruise, Tom Hanks, Princess Diana, Sylvester Stallone; We know them as famous Cancerians.

2008 FOR CANCER

As a friend, you are worth your weight in gold where loyalty and attachments to people are concerned.

You are naturally ready to give, but you are naturally disappointed when this is not always reciprocated.

Do not expect too much out of friendship.

This year will put you on the map, wherever you are, whatever you do. Somehow, time and fortune will throw the spotlight at you, and your activities. And the best part of it is that you deserve every ounce of it. It is high time that you are given credit for your efforts and other recognize you and look up to you. Needless to say, your personal relations will get a boost. Relationships, contacts and communications will take up a lot of your time, journeys will be imminent and people will be eager to have a piece of you.

This spell of reaching out to people will continue even as legal issues, matters of sale and purchase and efforts to expand will keep you busy. You will be full of conviction and zest, and your efforts will surely pay off, if you just give them sufficient time. You are determined, but tolerant and understand nonetheless. This ability of yours to take opinions other than your own will help you connect with your work group – and all you need for making good progress is a good well-oiled group.

But sufferings and letdowns are bound to come, and you will need to learn to take things positively and not to leave matters unfinished, and what's more – you will! You will need to be in the thick of things at your workplace. Towards the end, this trend will just get too hot to handle, but you know how to do the balancing act.

On the personal front, you will do great, what with the great outlook you have gained. A marriage or the birth of a child is on the cards and as for in-laws and other elders of the family, things will sort themselves out. This new charisma you have, will work you wonders.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

As a father, you have the qualities of an excellent parent but are at your best when you don't become over-caring and intolerant.

JANUARY

Theme of January will be bonds, ties, partnerships, relationships and links, and perhaps, off and on. the entire year. Good friends and/ or partners give you strength and support. You also see very clearly how to organize your funds. I mean by this both assets and earned income from your work. Travel and a search are also foretold — there are fascinating truths and revelations about yourself, and the world around you. too. So relationships and partnerships could take on long distance if not global dimensions.

FEBRUARY

Please do look back at the last few lines of last month's forecast Once again, you're on the move, or at least have the strong desire to do so. The movement is more likely to be emotional and spiritual, even though a house/office move or shift is also possible.

Let's look at emotions first. Love stings you, hurts you,. even turns passionate/physical rather than tender. A movement that may also not be entirely to your liking. Under our so-called hard exteriors, we Cancerians are notoriously soft, exposed to hurt and suffering that reawakens the higher self. Thoughts about Karma. death, rebirth, the eternal mysteries of what constitutes good and bad. eternal truths of faith, true spirituality occupy your mind. What you'd like to be doing seems to be held back, restricted in mysterious ways beyond your control.

It is time to make haste slowly, as they say. to dig in and strengthen what you have and then look at new options or. plan something different/daring/ innovative for yourself.

MARCH

The spiritual gains/advancement you have been pursuing so sincerely now give you marvelous spin-offs, in terms of the insight to make the right moves, choices, and decisions. The decisions taken now will help you shape your plans to your satisfaction. What powers you on is the ideas and ideals, the spiritual strengths you sought, and gained last month.

In fact, you ponder serious, deep questions even while enjoying affection, fun. coziness, friends, subtler feelings now

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

As a mother, you are the supreme maternal ruler of hearth and home, and a picture of dedicated motherhood. You are warm and loving, and have a tendency to indulge in much heart-searching and worry about your children.

than earlier in the year in love and romance. Your ego gets a mighty boost, too, and now and then its a great feeling. Of course, if carried too far. it leads to trouble, but then so do so many things. I hope this flair and ebullience gets channelized into true creativity, artistic output and business modules. I mean constructive gains rather than just playing to the gallery.

You're not just traveling, but really going places this month. A fine phase for you. if you're in publicity, media, the arts, writing and astrology (like me), theater, and very specially, the celluloid worlds of television and cinema as I've already said. It's not the usual sitcom you'll be handling but zooming to great heights of achievement and glory. I did mention true creative impulses, didn't ? Right now, that's what you need to do justice to right now.

APRIL

A fine month — people rally around, in fact, flock to you. Love, family ties, friends all acquire a touch of glitter, dazzle, glamor. You acquire wisdom, spirituality; true knowledge, skills, travel to broaden the vistas of your mind. That's great — what's even greater are the lessons in humanity, loving and caring that you learn automatically. There's no room for pride, hard-nosed decisions, rigidity of attitude.

The gains are easy and natural, lack of communication is a thing of the past. You relate to people (need to repeat this?), to places, to shared ideals and ideas (I need to repeat this; its important). Your energies flow into home changes for the better, solving problems, dispersing goodwill, tea, sympathy, solutions. It is all positive, constructive, totally well-intentioned, and taken in the same spirit. That is a great gain indeed.

If you were going places last month, this month you've certainly arrived. Praise, prestige, recognition, achievement, fulfillment and gains of a splendor so fine as to warm the cockles of the heart. It's truly wonderful. Even more wonderful is the marvelous impact it has on you and yours.

Marriage, both sides of the parent-child equation, interactions with siblings and family — all acquire depth, warmth, true bonding. It's what most people strive for, all their lives.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

Ideal Careers for you are chemist, stay-at-home-parent, teacher, politician, journalist, writer, chef, house keeper, historian, fashion designer, visionary, estate broker, entertainer, gardener, lawyer, ecologist, soldier, or manager.

MAY

The marvelous gains of last month will be sustained now. too, but much of this rests with you. On the one hand, parents, older people, even in-laws and superiors, must be made to understand your motivations, standpoint, and work ethos. On the other, family, friends, even acquaintances and neighbors, and above them all. your special love, will all be caring and warm. Can you reciprocate in full measure, or will you give in to pride and self-importance??

Further good times, lots of socializing, lots of pleasurable activities, a lot more money. Can we resist this bait, fellow Cancerian. He gives you much glory in achievements, and along with external recognition, you realize your true potential, have a feeling of real self-worth. The external recognition is easy to identify — perks, promotions, prestige, power! But that's not even half the story. The denouement is wonderful, mysterious, and challenging. Love, romance, good times, good companions — all that make life wonderful — come now!

JUNE

All through, April and May were people-centric months. Now you see this trend in an almost cosmic manifestation. Are you wondering how? I must point out two things here. The first is that all people matter to you right now. The second and far more important point to be made is that you are people, too, after all, so you reach within your yourself, searching for and hoping to reach the real inner self and see if you get on within him/her — whatever you choose. I must also say that I'm not kidding about this. Your inner consciousness has to be in perfect harmony with the world.

To achieve this, you are drawn/pulled in different directions, not always easy to reconcile. Yet, progress is definite, though it will be a little hassle-prone. It could be because you yourself are full of indecision and contradictions, which don't make the going easy, both literally and figuratively. You can't be blamed entirely though, because decisions taken now will definitely impact on, if not determine, the rest of your life. You also seek out places of solitude, mystery, even "spooky" atmosphere like cells, caves, asylums, deserted ruins, temples long forgotten, as well as tantra. mantra, occult mysteries. This time, universe has sent a month that's full of all kinds of possibilities, both material and spiritual. Good times, good friends, good marital ties, sum it up. A rare time of bliss in love/marriage, for reaching out as never before to people who matter to you comes to you, in all its splendor. Do you understand now what I meant about cosmic manifestations?

JULY

From the gains and joy of last month comes perhaps the greatest gain of all — individual personal growth in terms of self-realization, you make even greater gains and to some extent, you like what you see of yourself. Perhaps this strengthens the desire to reach out even more warmly, especially to loved ones, spouse, lover, friends, parents. Even dependents, older people in general, your pets, your servants/employees bring out the latent tenderness in you.

The inner qualities you now exhibit give material benefits too — better performance and interactions at work leading to success and recognition. Most of the activities of June, which I tried to describe in some detail, will continue this month too. The major part of which is still your birth month, and therefore, heightened activities, involvements and commitments are a foregone conclusion.

Secret activities, i.e. those that you don't want to share with anyone at all can even include philanthropy, so also meeting hermits, monks, or sages who teach you your relationship with the world. You have to live in this world though, even while seeking higher truths, and gainful activities are necessary for sheer survival. Work and finances are therefore, very necessary, very important.

AUGUST

Finances will be the prime focus, as that's what you've been trying to get organized on, all through the past weeks. This month, the money is more than good, perhaps even more than it's ever been before. So also is the rare camaraderie and ease in relationships with friends, your love, your family. In fact, these form your major gains. The real reason is that you are easy with yourself, having met lately! And that's not entirely a joke!

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

You Dislike aggravating situations, bad advice, unexpected changes, insincerity, being ignored, dishonesty, deceit, being uncomfortable and people who are scared of others.

I also warn you that you may quite easily be tempted not just to overdo your spending, but actually waste money on entertaining, the wrong people. Don't be gulled by confidence tricksters, in your own mood of almost too much confidence. This last especially in matters pertaining to rentals, investment, cash, property. Go back to old and trusted friends, and even family, who will give you sound advice, but be tactful, even deferential, if that is what it takes. After all, nobody could have your interests more at heart than them.

All those insights you've been seeking may now inspire you to truly brilliant financial tunes. At any rate, you have an easy flow of funds and that makes life — and your relationships — go smoothly.

SEPTEMBER

With your personal life and your finances in a more than satisfactory state, you realize that you must also square up to your professional and work responsibilities. Give before you expect always works — even more so professionally. Don't look at new career options that may turn out to be a mirage.

Bosses, superiors, older relatives, parents, in-laws and other authority figures (though I seem to have covered them all!) will have to be handled with the respect that is their due. You have to be humble and diplomatic rather than forceful and aggressive, the best example of filial duty and also of benevolence; so this applies even if you are yourself in a position of authority. A softer approach will get you the results you want, either way.

It's still people-time, but the new, stimulating companions that you spend time with are comrades in arms. The attack is on money, finances, funds — and the victory will be yours in terms of solid gains — even gold, jewelery, shares, cash and of course, assets. Once again, exercise both care and caution even while making bold moves. This boldness must be based on a detailed knowledge of your own financial resources, and the risks involved. That's good old-fashioned common sense, which works any time, but especially now. Tax-benefits, inheritance, joint-funds are favored too, though it may not be so easy to handle this line.

There may be ugly scenes, confrontations and accusations

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

You are most compatible with Scorpio, Pisces, Taurus and Virgo.

flying back and forth. But you will prevail, and build up finances to the mutual satisfaction of the parties concerned. This may be either with family or business associates, at different levels. You just have to keep cool and be firm yet pleasant. Determination comes to you with the conviction that you are doing the right thing.

OCTOBER

A time when great things start to happen. You get intellectual brilliance, leading to great achievements, in your profession and in your human interactions. You draw closer to relatives, old friends, siblings in particular. Shared childhood forges strong bonds, but so does shared love with your partner/spouse/lover/mate.

Harmony is there in great measure, and it's the result of your giving, your adjustments. And the wonderful caring you display in your attitude, behavior, and values, gets you truly spectacular reciprocal benefits, joys, warmth and tenderness from your loved ones, too. Contacts, contracts, communications serve a higher purpose — they lead the links, associations, ties, bonds that are all-important this month, and right through to the end of this year. Actually, the trend started in August itself and has gained force and momentum in a snowball effect!

Contentment and mutual care come to you as you're being mellow, gentle. The reason is that you follow the dictates of your mind and intellect rather than your heart. Emotions are much more likely to lead one astray, be it love, anger, greed, envy, hatred — you name it! Right now, though, it's not likely since, as I said above, both socially and emotionally you're so beautifully on track that you can scarcely put a foot wrong. Enjoy it — and make it last!

NOVEMBER

You zero in on your immediate environment and surroundings now in the same attitude of caring and nurturing. Even possible aspect of home and family life is your total preoccupation this month. You realize it is the source of strength, sustenance and love for you. And this is not just a sweeping generalization of mine. The depths of home life, family matters are dredged and they yield a treasure of true values. This is therapeutic, and leads to new

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

That's not gain, however, even though it's the most pleasing one. Your own attitude will be so relaxed and serene that it makes everything seem easy. Travel, change, household upsets. upheavals. even partnership will be dealt with in a patient, calm manner. This is so unlike your usual crabby behavior that it leaves every beholder stunned, awe-struck and love-struck. The time gives you the finances and the energy to renovate, rebuild not just home/property and finances, but far more valuable assets. I'm talking of moral values, lasting ideals and relationships, and to top it all. great and glorious love — in all its manifestations. "Greater glory than this". I personally cannot visualize.

DECEMBER

You end the year on a note of contentment almost bordering on complacency (though not quite). Your life, your home and your family are a source of joy that you mean to strengthen. Some of it is already within your hold, since much of it is getting into place as this year ends.

In 2009, most certainly, you will see the culmination, high point of home and property matters. You will be much more productive, but much more objective, too. especially about yourself. Better emotional control is yours, though not better health, probably. There could be some posers and problems there. You will gain more from meditation, yoga, a change of lifestyle, rather than by dosing yourself on medicines. You have learnt to be much more accepting — even of illness. Your own mindset and approach will yield the best results — and make you feel good.

You will have the energy, usefulness, ingenuity and powers of innovation to help you start new projects, even as you wind up ongoing/ pending projects, ventures, assignments/relationships. These last mentioned will not only be vitally important. but will no longer be painful, turbulent or hurtful. SO — peace and plenty — to sum up. and look ahead to. That's what all mankind strives and works for, anyway.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JANUARY

You are semi-compatible with Cancer,
and Capricorn.

January 1, 2008 to January 6, 2008

You certainly start the year with a flourish, Cancerians. There will be important trends of caring, sharing and memory with older people — particularly parents and in-laws. Equally significant will be the direction of improving, decorating and refurbishing of home, land, property. Development of assets will be an immensely important and fulfilling trend as well as buying and selling. And all this will add up to a very busy, yet rewarding, 2008!

January 7, 2008 to January 13, 2008

You'll need to focus on issues of money and finances right from the start of the year. Funds will flow in, but you have to a) merge family commitments and finances and b) keep a somewhat low profile in the former, i.e. the family. You might otherwise be loaded with financial commitments that may prove to be too much of a burden to cope with. And you're determined to cope — the only issue is to do it with grace, and not jeopardize your own family and personal life. Not such a tough task, you think, as you do try your very best.

January 14, 2008 to January 20, 2008

Effort is always rewarded, in some form or other. So too with you in this phase. You start the year well, less rigid and crabby (remember your sign), with a fresh attitude more attuned to, and in harmony with, those around you. If we continue with the crab metaphor, it is the soft portions of the crustacean who is the symbol of your sign that will be visible to those you care for. Both family and loved ones and your spouse/partner enjoy the care you lavish on them — and give back, in equal measure. At work, too, greater open-mindedness and willingness to listen have you getting on well with colleagues/subordinates, not to mention the boss. A sense of harmony therefore prevails in your life.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JANUARY

You are incompatible with Leo, Libra, Sagittarius, Aquarius, Aries and Gemini.

January 21, 2008 to January 27, 2008

This week brings restraint, and yet exciting opportunities to prove your worth. It also has you striking a balance or at least attempting to. Ultimately, that is what really matters. This will reflect most strongly in those aspects of life where equality of partners is desirable — both love/marriage and business. Also, in striving to balance income and expenditure, you could still be exercising your mind greatly in new ventures/deals. You enjoy the challenges at work too, and are extremely realistic in the stance you take if/when problems arise. Not bad going at all and the rewards will come.

January 28, 2008 to February 3, 2008

You're determined to make a mark, and be visible in your success this quarter. The material and physical aspects of what makes a better lifestyle are of primary importance therefore. Luxuries and comforts, good food, good wine (if it's your indulgence) and, of course, good times. Entertaining, wining and dining (as already- said), outings and pleasure trips are all there for you. You have a certain zest and gusto in your approach to all of these. Energy levels are high. Therefore, you still have the time and inclination to think of projects for future gains. The chance is that you could just hit the jackpot. The astro-timing for it is there.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

FEBRUARY

Cancerians are freedom loving, courageous and pioneering.

Loves adventure, is self assertive and has as abundance of energy. Can be enterprising and will work from sun up to sun down, the Cancerian will run not walk. He is generally forceful by nature and very direct.

February 4, 2008 to February 10, 2008

You realize that here will be two main thrusts to your activities now. The focus of the trend for this month is strongly and squarely on family and money matters, though not necessarily in that order. In fact, I would go so far as to say they're equally vital and important. You need to earn for family welfare and progress. At the same time, your presence and interaction are equally necessary for their welfare and progress, too. Personal finance is important inasmuch as it affects family life and your home. Larger financial issues like funds/loans/taxes/stock options are handled, perhaps for the office/business. You need to continue to be realistic and also gentle in your handling of all this. Perhaps some careful budgeting if not economizing will be not just necessary but essential.

February 11, 2008 to February 17, 2008

Both your love for your family, and your spiritual predilections inspire you now. You also derive strength and support as well as inspiration from close friends, family, your spouse/ partner. It is no longer difficult to communicate, as compared to the early part of the year. Persuasive actions and charm make you win over someone you're keen on — either romantically or professionally. It's a good feeling! What also makes you feel equally good is financial security — money in the bank. This is what you target. Once again, the preoccupations with extra income — you think of extra work, moonlighting, even a job switch if it will help matters. BUT there is no selfish spurt in your creativity and inventiveness—it's all family oriented.

February 18, 2008 to February 24, 2008

A hectically busy, demanding week that may even bring some frantic moments. Heightened activity in all spheres, even the physical, leaves you little time for anything else. Spiritual pursuits get pushed to the back of your mind, as do the hope of study and learning for its own sake and the sheer joy of it. Whatever skills or expertise you acquire will be related to your career/profession/job/business. Your performance at the work place will almost define you now. Also a time when you can balance and reconcile work and home, play sexual and passionate games. You have an image of yourself as an achiever and this is one aspect of it. Once again, this quarter finds you involved in buying/ selling, speculation, trade, spin-offs — a very wide spectrum of money-related activities. It happens to be dealt with both intuitively and smartly by you in this phase.

February 25, 2008 to March 2, 2008

Work and money were all-important last week, this quarter it will be people. You are generous, magnanimous, vibrant, and even joyful. Financial gains, too, are possible, in addition to gains in popularity and image. Even your professional qualities and activities will be more people-oriented. You'll need to hone and develop your PR skills. The best way is to convince others of your sincerity and genuine concern. It will make interactions at work meaningful and creative, but there's a catch here. You could tend to try and dominate others rather than listen to them, even as you tell them that it's their best interests that are motivating you. That may well be true, but riding roughshod over others is not the best way to convince them of this!

March 3, 2008 to March 9, 2008

Suddenly, all your plans may go into top gear. A marvelous boost in your creativity and inventiveness will be experienced. You also derive strength and support as well as inspiration from close friends, family and your spouse/partner. They share your ideas and aspirations both. You are also very serious in your approach to financial advancement — schemes that may turn out to be real money. This, in turn, reflects on your family life and intimate relationships. It is no longer difficult to communicate, as compared to the early part of the year. You will win over someone that you have been eager about, either professionally or romantically, with your charm or your persuasive actions. And it could well be a mutually rewarding bond/tie.

March 10, 2008 to March 16, 2008

It will be the week of a) fun and family and b) finances. Help comes from a close friend/partner in organizing your priorities — and two strong concerns — achievements at work, and pleasurable times with family emerge as equally balanced activities. Funds and finances are low-key, but are approaching a point of either clearer investment or shared use. In personal relationships, restrained affection will be better than passion and desire, which could cause some strain on the relationship itself. Being too demanding doesn't always work. Learn to give in, too.

MARCH

Your Lucky Numbers are 2 and 8.

Your Lucky Day is Monday.

Your Lucky Flower is Larkspur, a popular common name for the delphinium.

March 17, 2008 to March 23, 2008

You will have to do two things to attain the balance that Libra symbolizes — and this is necessary for your own survival — (a) rest/ meditate/relax by conscious effort, (b) do not neglect either your family or your own health. To sum up, don't subjugate your personal life to the demands of the world. There are a lot of professional demands to cope with. Some health problems could slow you down, even as you don't just work but slog, burning the midnight oil to meet targets, deadlines, financial demands. You will have to take a balanced, sensible approach or you won't be able to sustain the pace.

March 24, 2008 to March 30, 2008

You feel the aura of success surrounding you. You're realizing hopes and dreams that you have cherished for some time. Your enthusiasm and energy take over from the strain and weariness that you were experiencing earlier. They inspire you to both new ideas and concerted effort. It is not only the need to handle money matters, but to create/ explore new avenues of earning that keeps you thinking of ways and means. You think of setting up something new, but could be in two minds on that because of some setbacks in the past that have made you wary of sticking your neck out. You plan, weigh up the pros and cons carefully and sensibly.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

APRIL

Your hobbies can range from reading books, listening and composing music/songs, watching and creating movies.

You have a hobby that appeals creativity and the end result is worth something.

March 31, 2008 to April 6, 2008

It's people-time for sure and relationships of all kinds will, therefore, be important. A new, very personal one could develop, too. Love may catch you off-guard — the astro-indications are there. Meeting people is a strong theme alongside — they may even be important personages or famous personalities. Health safeguards may also prove necessary, though both philosophical and personal issues will concern you, and the latter will have to be resolved — maybe concerning family, relatives or a specially loved person. This phase also definitely sees you searching within, re-examining options, desiring change and generally a better quality of life.

April 7, 2008 to April 13, 2008

After all that kept you busy, a time of peace and relaxation. However, I would say that the monthly trend is family/family matters. It's source of support/rest/pleasure it is meant to be. This is partly because of your own sympathetic handling of matters that pertain to not just interactions within both immediate and extended family but also to the way you deal with property, house and home, ancestral property/wealth/assets shared with other members/relatives/kin. Those who are answerable to you need to be dealt with tactfully rather than scolded/reprimanded and so antagonized.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

APRIL

The diseases with which the Cancerians may be afflicted are delicate stomachs and many digestive problems. They may also be prone to ulcers, gall bladder upsets, nausea and gastritis. In addition, Cancer people need to guard against jaundice, liver torpidity and mammary affections, as well as lymphatic stasis.

April 14, 2008 to April 20, 2008

Relationships and your emotions will dominate. There is an intensity and depth in both the love and hate you feel. So communicating with people is thrilling, eruptive, disruptive, or at least exasperating. Money matters will be the main focus here. More than even before, your finances and capacity to earn will be concerning you. You still worry/plan about added income-generation. This is motivated by family concern and commitments rather than any personal good. It is a time when you don't commit yourself easily; prepare to be cautious and to weigh up options. You can be generous, but you want to decide the pattern of spending. This will be true in domestic funds as well as office finances, or business ones.

April 21, 2008 to April 27, 2008

Commitments and engagements pertaining to work and recreation are both equally hectic and demanding, but desired by you. You are in a mood to work hard and perhaps play even harder. It could be vice versa, according to your personal horoscope, but that's the way I see it going — in the fast lane. There is intensity in your approach to everything you do. Your days are full, your life too is. In fact, I would say full to the point of overflowing. Activities galore — and all equally demanding could leave you breathless. I should have remembered to include romance and love; not that they are less important, just a slip rectified in time by this old astrologer. To put it succinctly, love is powerful, thrilling, stimulating, surprising—in a word, breathless once again.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

MAY

Cancerians have a retentive memory, particularly for emotionally laden events which they can recall in detail for years afterwards.

They are strongly governed by childhood memories.

April 28, 2008 to May 4, 2008

The pace doesn't slow up — on the contrary, it's even more hectic now. What spurs you on to even greater effort is the successful completion of a project which is more than possible right now. Again in prestige and appreciation is a natural progression from there, may be even more concrete rewards (greenbacks?). You are forced to push your own personal (read also, romantic) matters into the back spaces of your mind. There are family/community/societal concerns and larger issues that you seek to find ways, means and solutions for; your perspective is far wider now and you follow your instincts. They tell you that sincere effort and sheer hard work make an unbeatable twosome. You are not just working but slogging — work is too mild a word to describe your activities this week.

May 5, 2008 to May 11, 2008

You can see clearly in this phase (monthly trend) that you're headed towards fulfillment of hopes/dreams/ambitions. In other words, the right way. At this juncture, you would be justified in congratulating yourself on where you've reached. In the context of fulfillment, I would like to add the creative arts/ procreation, i.e., begetting children/making a safe haven/ home for yourself and making a mark professionally, are all included. There is a quiet confidence within you, no bluster and show, as you set about making all this come to pass.

May 12, 2008 to May 18, 2008

A slower pace. It's not that you are slowing down, but outside might be doing it. Having said what I did last week, let me insert a word of caution. There can be delays, projects could be held up by matters you don't/can't control. There might even be opposition. You need to stay both calm and focused. Travel and trips are a foregone conclusion, or at least e-travel to coin a phrase, if it doesn't exist already, but this is in the quest for the fulfillment that you have been seeking. Focus and determination will help you get there — travel-wise, too.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

MAY

Among the faults, which are typically Cancerian, are untidy, sulky, devious, moody, inclined to self-pity because of an inferiority complex, brood on insults (very often imagined), yet are easily flattered.

May 19, 2008 to May 25, 2008

Most of what you see now you've already seen before — in the similar full moon phase of April 20. But time — and you — have moved on, after all. Let me point out that this phase, equally hectic, equally exciting, has certain differences. It will initiate a round of heightened activity which affects, or stems from, several spheres of life. There's a greater depth in all relationships. Even if you don't get on with someone, you will be intense about it. So also with those you love/ care for/are affectionate with, there is greater intensity. Equal keenness, too in handling both your professional commitments and your capacity to earn. You're bright in terms of new ideas, innovative techniques. Your immediate environment too is lively. Children, friends, even distant relatives are all part of the social scene. You entertain them, amuse and even indulge them, talk to them, communicate in all possible ways from hugs to e-mail.

May 26, 2008 to June 1, 2008

Where you put family/home first, now it is finances you focus on. There's a shift in focus, but this may be brought on by circumstances rather than your own inclinations/desires. Whatever the reason, money matters have to be attended to on a primary level, so that other matters have to yield place to them. Something may crop up requiring added finances and this may be both professional and/or personal. You need to deal with mutual funds/loans and collateral/ office budgets/stock options/shares. Perhaps you need to have something urgently for the home, or pay someone's shopping bills. It could be anything, but right now the name of the game is definitely Money.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JUNE

Cancerian Strengths are shrewdness and intuition, resourceful and imaginative and know when to reach out to others.

June 2, 2008 to June 8, 2008

A larger canvas for you this week. You reach out in even way you can — from meetings and rendezvous to fax, e-mail, voice-mail, the works, in short. Not just to people, please remember, but places. The environment, eco-concerns, wider issues also keep you busy. And how! A huge level of awareness and commitment is to be seen in you this week. You and the world, A tremendous desire to relax, and to slow down is felt. Although work is almost an obsession, or at least, a compulsion drawing you on, you realize that you need to take time off. Outings and recreation with the family give pleasure; social contacts are renewed/maintained/developed. These are not people who are the "right contacts" to help you climb socially or professionally. It's the ones that give you pleasing moments and happy times together, who talk the same language. Where money was your prime focus last week, this week it's very definitely people. You are irresistibly drawn to people in general, and may be just one person in particular. Love is wildly mysterious, exciting and perhaps even a little painful. What a trend!. Not in confrontation but in fine accord. One of my favorite phrases — people and places in both the literal and the larger sense. That sums up the trend for the month.

June 9, 2008 to June 15, 2008

Your gains are now apparent to you in several ways. I left out one important thing, but there was a reason for it. I needed to mention the new trends for the month first. What may have started with the new moon phase may come to pass even now or later in the lunar month. I must also add in my defense — and as a reminder, dear reader — life is a continuous affair, and so also astrological forecasts. To come back to the main point, rewards are coming your way, despite your continued slogging this week. These could be: money, warmth in relationships and love, classy entertainment, an escalated social standing and social life. You perform brilliantly at several different levels — even the strictly personal areas of love, marriage, physical and emotional bonding. Once again, I must say — what a trend!

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JUNE/JULY

Cancerian Weaknesses are moody, inferiority complex, vacillating, unforgiving, pessimism and are easily hurt.

June 16, 2008 to June 22, 2008

You once again realize that life is a continuum in this week. Most of last weeks forecast apply here too. So I'll keep this one short. Its love that I need to mention specially now, as the addition this week. Not that you haven't experienced it before, not that you're tumbling headlong into it, but that it becomes the focal point of your thoughts, emotions and activities. However, it does not lead to the expulsion of other concerns. It's just what is most important for you in the overall scheme of things — and the others gain different priorities.

June 23, 2008 to June 29, 2008

There will be a huge somersault once again, in terms of priorities. Issues with someone you care for or even your mate/spouse/ lover will have to be talked over and worked out. But that's on the personal front. You need to be very up front there. At work too, some matters may need to be ironed out. Professionally, there could be legal and other documents, even cash and share certificates, wills and codicils — valuable papers of a varying nature. At the same time, social life is more than healthy; you extend and receive hospitality with flair and class. You enjoy people, and it shows in your interactions. A whole new technique might need to be developed, as you have to deal with matters that require considerable skill at communication and persuasion.

June 30, 2008 to July 6, 2008

You're still fairly busy, but this is a week when the month's trend is an intensely personal, emotional one. You shop, keep house, you work, but most importantly, you love. This is the driving force behind almost all your activities which will, if anything, be heightened to an almost mind-blowing peak, a crescendo of beautiful music in your approaching birth month. But for now its love, romance, a life-long partnership like marriage or the present day alternative — living together in harmony — that's strongly emphasized. I'm not making suggestions or judgments —just telling it like it is. I am forced to tell you to restrain. You're spending a bit too. Maybe its just gifts to woo/win a loved one over, but that (over-spending) is an equally strong indication — and some caution is needed. Sometimes I speak out of turn, and sometimes I speak too soon. I only hinted last week at shopping/buying but now it becomes almost a full time occupation.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JULY

Each sign has a part of the anatomy attached to it, making this the area of the body that is most sensitive to stimulation. The anatomical areas for Cancer are the breasts, stomach, digestive organs and liver.

July 7, 2008 to July 13, 2008

A time of true bonding comes in this phase. There is an intimacy and closeness, and secrets are shared. Love, career and family are intertwined in mysterious ways. Once again, I just have to tell it as I see it. Where there were personal partnerships, romantic or marital alliances, the scope of this theme now extends to include even a professional one. Your work/career/ business could well gain and expand as a result. The partnerships grow and strengthen as a result of your willingness to go that extra mile. The reason is that you feel strength and confidence surging from hidden depths as you connect with good friends, lovers or partners (the last two in the singular, please!) This will again apply both personally and professionally.

July 14, 2008 to July 20, 2008

There is a stroke of luck, success in ventures, joy in both marital and domestic life. The other reason for all this is your own co-operative, caring avatar: the soft side is delicious — all lovers of good food say that about crabs. And that's your sign, Cancerians. Personal individual gain and advancement are the indications now. Perhaps you want a better lifestyle, and so embark seriously on shifting to a better house/locality or improving/ extending/modernizing personal property on the material front, rather than just getting more money at your disposal.

July 21, 2008 to July 27, 2008

You have hit a lucks streak indeed in your birth month and see its fallouts now, even though that phase is over. You have material gains coming to you. These could even be belated birthday presents or perhaps shopping and gifts for your own wedding if you're single and about to enter matrimony. By any reckoning, marriage and marital ties are emphasized, so this applies in different ways if you're married or single. Gadgets, jewels, clothes, fancy objects d' art could all come to you — the reason is that a strong union with someone you care for is happening, and you seek to cement it this way.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

AUGUST

The best gift for a Cancerian is something sentimental.

Cancer loves gifts that have a personal meaning. Handmade items always delight.

You also have a special affinity for silver and liquids of all kinds

July 28, 2008 to August 3, 2008

Both work and play continue to be vibrant, demanding and yet fulfilling. In most respects, the full moon completes or strengthens or develops further the trends of the last week. It is necessary to remind you that you will achieve much more by stressing teamwork and building up understanding with others — both at work and at play. Failure to co-operate (on your part) can lead to disappointing your mate or partner. It is not good to be inconsiderate of people in your own pursuit of achievement. Cancerians are, as a rule, strongly into achieving and this is the best way to go about it right now!

August 4, 2008 to August 10, 2008

I could sum up the theme now in just two words — People time. The details need to be spelt out for you. After all, it's the trend for the coming lunar month, and so can't be dismissed so briefly. Let's look at finance. This is where the associates come into the picture for you'll be concentrating on joint and mutual funds, joint stock, joint accounts, even loans, insurance and/or credit facilities. Love is full of both romance and thrills. It could be exalted, deeply moving, revealing in all its glory. Calm yourself a bit, despite all thrills; there is a further ramification to this theme. Once again, it's people who are of paramount importance but not in general. There are two almost definitely separated spheres — your associates and your lover/partner/mate/spouse — there could be a plural somewhere there, but not in the case of spouse, unless you have an ex-spouse or two. Just kidding, but I hope you get my drift.

August 11, 2008 to August 17, 2008

A busy time lies ahead, with many matters competing for your time and attention. Luckily, you have the energy, enthusiasm, confidence to handle both work and play with equal gusto. Add to this the affairs (not love, but other concerns) of your children so there's more than a lot to do. But, for Cancerians there's still more this week. Inheritance, property, legacies and wills are strongly emphasized and have to be managed with insight, care, foresight, maybe even a little detective work or behind-the-scene activities that you don't disclose to all and sundry. But it's not all work and no play. You will also be able to relax, have a good time. All the matters I have mentioned — legal matters, love, laughter, social life, good times and parties carry right on. You're really whirling around a waltz around the world you live in.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER

You mentally have a mixture of toughness and softness, often emotional and romantic to the point of sentimentality in your fantasies; but in real life and in marriage, your loving is not so sentimental but tenaciously loyal.

August 18, 2008 to August 24, 2008

Once again, a people-centric week for you. The larger circle will be important. Older friends are good for you, and help you make plans and sort out priorities. Differences of taste and opinion have to be reconciled, so that you can see the larger picture and that's where friends, advisors and such come in. Efficiency will come from working in a group, consulting others both for professional/office and family-matters. Don't rely entirely on your own judgment and don't hesitate to ask for advice, too. This is not a time to rely on yourself and your own capabilities and insights, no matter how good they are. The wise counsel of friends, colleagues, even legal advisors will benefit you. Even socially it is not the time to be a loner. The company of like-minded people will both benefit and relax you.

August 25, 2008 to August 31, 2008

Travel, though difficult, leads to stimulating ideas. Moving/changing living conditions stirs deep chords of feelings. Communication, too, is deeply felt and sincere. Life's deeper aspects and transitions come forward. I would therefore say that more important to you now are the spiritual journeys. You are searching for fulfillment in new settings. I just have to add one more thing. In your desire for better prospects, you are drawn to the higher sphere of prayer and worship, tantra, mantra and spirituality. You're really looking ahead — even into the life hereafter.

September 1, 2008 to September 7, 2008

The theme of the month takes on a wider and much deeper significance. Movement and growth once again. This is the theme for September. You will grow/develop/emerge like a butterfly from a chrysalis in different ways. These could range from travel plans, actual travel (almost definite), or growing bonds and collaborations; going further still, trips/tours specific to higher study, research, refresher courses, job-related skills, not to mention religion, spirituality, faith. I know this is a very long sentence but I had so much to say — and all at that level of importance. I realized the need to elaborate on what movement and growth will imply now.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

SEPTEMBER

The Cancer male is a romantic soul possessed of much sex appeal, but one who is not always confident of his own attractiveness.

September 8, 2008 to September 14, 2008

A far longer range of vision, contacts and activities is necessary now. Visitors from overseas, far flung places, trips/connections with foreign collaborators, export deals, even just a quick weekend trip away with the family (especially children, if you have them) to some place quiet and different from your usual habitat. Even organizing trips/travel could be important this quarter. Therefore, a good and busy time for those in the travel trade, in the hospitality line, and in media-related work. It could yield both monetary gains and recognition. Distance and distant connections could sum up this week/phase/quarter. (They're all the same, just divisions of time!)

September 15, 2008 to September 21, 2008

Last week's theme of long-distance connections and travel now take on a different flavor — growth and movement once again. I don't mean that you will keep growing and moving — I'm not that silly/senile/foolish. Journeys, of course, for pleasure/business but more important than these are the inner journeys of faith, knowledge, and pursuit of wisdom. Perhaps even a religious pilgrimage or visiting a shrine. It could even be moving house or things connected with it: certainly there are changes being made in your living conditions. You could even be confused about where and when to go; both physically and spiritually/emotionally. You seek the advice of family, friends, loved ones and benefit from it, too.

September 22, 2008 to September 28, 2008

A week full of surprises, in terms of your new or rather, changed attitude to work. I have to remind you of a comparatively lesser-known fact. Cancerians can also be meticulous. It is this side of you that comes to the fore now. The reason or motivation is your desire not only to get things done and done well, but security for those around you, your dependents, older people, even the very young. In your own growth, you seek to earn them with you. You get down to the nitty-gritty details of work, the little jobs, the fine tuning that makes things run smoothly. You're aiming for efficiency and even the smallest chore, the tiniest detail, the lowest of jobs is not beneath your notice. It's all in such a good cause.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

OCTOBER

Physically you are average to below average in height, with a fleshy body and short legs in comparison with the rest of the zodiac natives.

September 29, 2008 to October 5, 2008

Your popularity, credit, the care/love/affection you receive are soaring sky high. So are you; you're feeling marvelous and good with yourself. And that's what life is all about, didn't we say? A time of solid progress, accomplishment, achievement, even fame and public recognition (if you're in that line of work!). He says it's all richly deserved! And who can dispute that? After what's gone before, what you get this whole month is not only a welcome respite, but all the appreciation and recognition that one could possibly want and hope for.

October 6, 2008 to October 12, 2008

Your self-image as well as the image in the eyes of others will be of major significance to you. With ail that's been happening inwardly and outwardly, there has been a purpose and direction. There always is. Let me share a secret with you — for all of us it's the same. The necessity to feel good about yourself is really the highest common factor in the arithmetic of life. For you, it's a physical makeover that you're contemplating and putting into action. Better health, better physique, a better look, even a better wardrobe and accessories, as a reflection of a totally better lifestyle.

October 13, 2008 to October 19, 2008

A better lifestyle must also be apparent — to others and to yourself, both. After casting yourself in a new image, you undertake a similar exercise for your living conditions/situation. First you turn your attention to house and home; renovating/adding/ decorating/even re-modeling the space you have. Next you turn to those who are dependent on you for care and support — children, parents, even servants/employees/ dependents and pets. You sincerely want the best that you can do for them. In fact, you extend this care and concern much further. Older people, the sick and the infirm, bring out your innate softness, tenderness and caring — and benefit from it too.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

OCTOBER

Both the Cancerian man and woman love unreservedly, giving much and asking little in return - in fact, one of the most important lessons they have to learn is how to receive gracefully. They are too easily influenced by those they love and admire, and swayed by the emotion of the moment.

October 20, 2008 to October 26, 2008

A visionary, farsighted approach to life is your major gain this week. You have truly grown. You are soft and gentle, conciliatory but fair. In fact, the summing up of it all as far as you are concerned, could be — finding ways to make things fairer for everyone. You are, however, not as sure of yourself as you'd like to be — only of the sincerity of your motives. A strange week, you may feel, and I wouldn't blame you. Pending matters, unresolved issues, even conflicts and problems come to a conclusion/ resolution. Your own family scene could witness some turmoil/turbulence. There could be uncertainty, if not major upheavals. People could be touched or agitated; perhaps about further choices. You, however, realize how important it is to "pull together" (in every sense of the 2 words). Pulling implies conscious effort and togetherness needs no explanations!

October 27, 2008 to November 2, 2008

You make a conscious effort to slow down the pace. You are willing to laze a little, stretch your limbs like the lion after he's finished hunting. Repose — rest for mind and body — is necessary for embarking on the quiet life of meditation, reflection, pursuit of knowledge, all to attain peace of mind. All schools of meditation tell us that this is the first step. You're prepared to take it, in fact are fully-aware of the necessity for it. "Easeful repose" — Poets put things across so well that the words never quite leave your mind. And this also sums up the trend for this week and month. This quarter, you reduce the pace at which you've been attacking work, leisure and even social activities. Hence the phrase I quoted. You try very consciously to take life easy, at least easier than before, and to gain from it, too.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

NOVEMBER

In any kind of service from welfare and nursing to catering - their own love of comfort and good living makes the Cancerian an excellent chef or housekeeper.

November 3, 2008 to November 9, 2008

In your slowdown, you have turned almost wholeheartedly to the home and family scene. There's joy with family, children, assets/funds for your home, future benefits, and no money problems. In your mood of joyousness, you are gracious and generous, rather than gloating. You will definitely turn to prayer/religion/worship, also to charity and giving: certainly to care and concern for others. You realize that this is your major gain — the new shift in attitude. It makes this phase another marvelous week, in terms of the way you feel. As they used to say "Everything in the garden is lovely." You are content, even to the point of thankfulness.

November 10, 2008 to November 16, 2008

The personal angle comes into play now in the theme of care/concern/giving. I certainly don't mean that you are lavishing all of these on yourself: but I do mean to say that your personal equations with people are directly relevant, where your senses of duty, obligation, and responsibility are concerned. Primarily, of course, it will be the home and family, as your stronghold, your territory almost, as opposed to your larger concerns of earlier weeks. You here to hold on to your sense of proportion or you'll undo much of the good work you've been doing. You want to build up true closeness, intimacy and sharing, and in this you are motivated by both strong emotions and equally strong intuitions in all your activities. Work, too, is viewed in terms of its impact on you, your family, and your home. You tend to personalize even adverse reactions from other people. However, you don't take them to heart. Rather, you use much imagination and some foresight in handling them. The reason is that you judge how they will affect you personally. It's truly putting yourself in their shoes.

November 17, 2008 to November 23, 2008

You've relaxed and loved. Now: you turn back to work. Interviews and meetings will go off well, with you impressively clear in your talk; one-to-one dialogues with people at work find you showing poise, confidence, expertise but not being overbearing. You are good with people this quarter. Naturally, you may find that as a result things go smoothly on the work front, particularly finances. Funding and allocation, capital raising and profits are all favored and you could be making some clever moves, wise and profitable investments. From brilliance in family and personal space you shift to brilliance in the arena of finances, but they're for family gain!

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER

Being a Water sign, Cancer individuals have a tendency to overindulge in wine and alcohol...beverages which are not tolerated well by these natives. Drinking will usually aggravate any stomach problems, increase weight and cause fluid retention in the body tissues.

November 24, 2008 to November 30, 2008

You have done what was needed, and now move back to the calm, quiet ease of thought and action. However, it's not exactly like that earlier phase though you are calm, disciplined but not in a mood to relax, laze, and be a lotus-eater as you were then. You share the joys and activities of your children, if you're a parent or good filial interaction if it's the other way around. You also look ahead at the future in concrete, realistic terms vis-à-vis the planning of projects and ventures that will, hopefully, do well. You're at ease with yourself, and also those around you. And that makes for happy times together.

December 1, 2008 to December 7, 2008

You are not attracted towards making a statement to the world and are happy with what you're doing. The world is not prepared to let you go. In fact, you're pulled back, down to earth rather abruptly. You have to cope with all or most of: (a) settlements and negotiations; (b) perhaps even arranging/negotiating a wedding; (c) collaborations and deals; (d) frequent travel; (e) managing human resources (i.e., people), and (f) driving good bargains, without animosity. All this will naturally lead to great expense and finances will continue to be a major concern till the year-end, practically. What sustains you through all this is most definitely the warmth, the cordiality, the affection and the solidarity, not only from loved ones, but even friends who touch the intimate family circle.

December 8, 2008 to December 14, 2008

The world continues to yank at you insistently. You realize that there's no getting away from it. It is in this spirit that you cope with the hassles and demands that arise where travel and expenses are concerned. In fact, this might be a troublesome (not necessarily bad; there is a difference) week for you. You will have to delay pursuing the spiritual in the new moon phase. In fact, they will remain nascent, with the promise of later on waxing greater. Also delays in work projects or due to the health problems of someone close, or your own. But interviews/meetings/conferences/public dealings all go off without a hitch so that while you are stressed and overworked, there is no cause for major worry/anxiety.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

DECEMBER

Children born of this Sign are likely to cry out as if in pain when taken into the arms of a person they sense to be antagonistic toward them. They should never be left in the care or custody of anyone they find repulsive.

December 15, 2008 to December 21, 2008

You feel a huge influx of energy, zeal, enthusiasm. Overwork and tension have been known to drive a good person round the bend. Not us hard-shelled crustacean Cancerians. We withdraw, rally and regroup and charge again at life, meeting it head-on. Challenges are exciting; your own creativity and talents are kick-started and are almost going into over-drive. In any case, creating a happy home situation and love are the earthly factors that stimulate and energize you to both greater and better effort, more so at work, but also at home.

December 22, 2008 to December 31, 2008

You end the year on a huge and positive note. You are happy just to be alive and ready to take on whatever life has to offer. Love scintillates and could be heading towards a more permanent bond life marriage. You are willing to work at relationships at all levels; the realization of this necessity has been the softening agent in the fabric of life for you, and you're truly not going to let it go.
