ABOUT ASTROLOGY

Astrology is often defined as the study of the influences of the cosmos on life on earth.

The zodiac is the belt or band of constellations through which the Sun, Moon, and planets transit across the sky.

Astrology is a science related to the heavenly bodies. It is the study of the movements and positions of the sun, moon, planets and stars, and the skill of describing the expected effect that these are believed to have on the character and behavior of humans. Astrology is not at all a fortune telling. It is one of the successfully tested methods for man to learn about who he is, where he came from and where he is going. Astrology reveals CHARACTER and character makes your destiny.

The main uses of astrology are analysis of health and sickness, character psychoanalysis, professional guidance, analysis of children's horoscopes so as to give parents a better idea as to how best to raise their children, and analysis of the compatibilities between people.

Astrology does not show anything but tendencies. A man can dominate his stars by exerting his determination. If a man decides to flow with the wave of life, then the tendencies indicated in the birth chart could be observed in that man. Astrology forewarns and being put on alert, a man is thus in a better position to cope with the struggles of life.

There are three aspects which bring to us the mystic message of the stars - the houses, the signs and the planets. Each house represents a section of life; the signs are divisions of the heavens which by their placement relative to the houses indicate our basic temperament and attitude towards life and the relative motion of the planets through the houses are the messengers of the god which bring to us the opportunities.

About Sun signs

Your sun sign represents the sign of the zodiac that the Sun passed through at the time of your birth. The Sun rules your essential personality, your ego and your willpower. It represents the core of your potential and your distinctiveness as an individual; it is who you are and what you are about.

The beginning and end dates for each of the signs can vary from year to year. Cusp is the border line between two adjacent sun signs. If you were born on a cusp, you may have some qualities of one sign and some from the other sign.

ABOUT THIS BOOK

Destiny refers to a predetermined course of events.

Fate is a power or agency that predetermines and orders the course of events.

Free Will is the ability to select a course of action as a means of fulfilling some desire.

Congratulations on buying a copy of your 2008 horoscopes. These horoscopes are based on sun signs. Your sun sign is determined on the basis of your date of birth.

In astrology, nothing can replace the personal touch of the astrologer because astrology is much more beyond the planets and requires intuition and understanding of the subject.

Life is a journey and the forecasts are given to help you. Use them as a guideline. These horoscopes shall give you an idea of your future in year 2008. A day may be good for one thing and bad for another. Please read the trend in horoscopes carefully as they might indicate opportunities and pitfalls ahead.

There are no absolute guarantees in life. It depends on how you interpret the things. This is a small book and does not contain each and every minute details of the subjects. We've tried to be specific on topic and be general in trends. If we say you'll be busy with your partner, he could be your spouse/colleague/business partner/friend and your pet. Please relate interpret these horoscopes to your way of living.

This book can not be a substitute to a professional astrologer, and you should be seeing one in case you need specific answers to your queries.

All the best in 2008!!

GEMINI

KNOW YOURSELF

Marriage implies security, home, children, steadiness of income and lifestyle not just fun and games.

You may not approve, but will need to rethink regards your attitudes to attain marital happiness.

Gemini signifies the dual edged nature that you possess. You have a great mind that does a lot more than calculate and judge. You are inquisitive and new and unique ideas come to you quite naturally, and these do not lack any of the style and elegance.

Your twin edge makes you are quite determined and stationary but capricious from time to time, you are sincere in your relationship with your sweetheart but at the same time have a tendency to flirt with other women. So, you are quite swift and take command over the situation in no time, but its difficult for you to stay on top, or maintain the lead. You also have a tendency to reach out to people; this is why you cannot live without communicating.

You are quite astute and opportunistic and don't miss a chance to make fast money. Corresponding to this, you also spend with quite ease. You are quite smart and funny and this attracts people to you all the more, but you need to be more objective and focused towards your goal. You seem to be quite susceptible to changes in your mood, and this will only lead to greater loss of the sense of purpose. Try to gain control of yourself.

Qualities that make you lucky are wittiness, brilliancy, cheery, and gay. Qualities that hinder your success are messy, happy-go-lucky, cruelty, and incompatible.

Johnny Depp, Steffi Graf, Elizabeth Hurley, Anna Kournikova, Prince William; We know them as famous people with sun in Gemini.

2008 FOR GEMINI

As a friend, Gemini reciprocates love and blossoms with a little appreciation. A good friend and an amusing one, for the most part; though sometimes you feel hard done by, and that others don't care as much. You are always young at heart and the life and soul of many a gathering.

So this year is for you to do what you do best – think out of the box – that's what will differentiate you from the rest and bring the returns. Finance, purchase and sale, investment and even speculation might have a role to play in deciding how this year turns out for you. Partnerships are good for you this year, in both the professional and personal sphere. However, the most important thing is that you might just have that overwhelming, life-changing experience that you were waiting for for so long.

Matters relating to the household will need your attention. You will be able to carry out your responsibilities and maintain the same closeness with your parents, sibling and in-laws, even though this will need a few adjustments on your part causing a little anxiety. Health problems of loved ones or your own might add to your worries. Other than this, on your personal front, you will be more active in your friend circle, and they will just be there for you when the going gets tough.

Communications and negotiations will click for you and bring in new opportunities. It is not a bad time to start a new venture, but you have to be careful before putting your foot down, and try not to bite more than you can chew. You seem to be a little open to new ways of doing things and advances in technology. This will serve you well as money will fly into your kitty.

As a last word of advice, you are quite a confident person as such. But with the kind of unorthodox ideas you have, you might want to muster a little more conviction in your plans. You have the making of a true leader - you just have to work on it. Other than that, the trick is in always looking ahead, and making as many mistakes as it takes you to learn.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

As a father, your outlook on life could be well ahead of your children's. I don't see you having much trouble with the generation gap.

However, there is a tendency to be over-critical and overbearing. You may also seem interfering, so watch out for these tendencies.

JANUARY

The essential duality of your sign (Gemini: the celestial twins, remember) often makes you a bit lacking in focus and/or direction. You have several points of focus. not just any one. It will be finances, family, spiritual pursuits, as well as personal funds, ties of friendship and affection.

You will reach out for love and security, with both hands. This reaching out may well be the outcome of some unexpected and radical changes that you could experience in the family circle/situation. Even a house-move, a job-shift (this last, not necessary your own) could have generated a distance or gap you're aching to fill. Equally strongly do you seek to fill up the gaps in your own personality, and embark on a way of life that's better geared to comfort and support from family, friends and loved ones. On the whole, love and marital interactions will both gain greatly.

You'll also start the year with a mighty spurt of activity on the very material front of finances, yet you will equally concern yourself with both earthly love and spiritual growth. Let's look at finances first. As I've said, it's joint and family funds, legacies, lucky wins, loans and capital rather than earned income that will be dealt with. Debts, too, from the past would need to be dealt with, if you haven't already paid them off; these could be emotional as well as monetary ones. A sense of sorrow could also be part of this, making you feel somewhat insecure or depressed, perhaps even both. You will try valiantly to cope with all this. You need to be more self-reliant. No brooding.

FEBRUARY

A month of inspirational and intuitive moves and manoeuvres. Don't misconstrue this to refer to the field of religion/spirituality which you delved into last month. I meant that you make the right, even inspired moves to sweeten relationships, communicate by fair means or foul, but get close to the people you seek. This could apply equally to professional and very private relationships. Your approach is more or less the same! At any rate, you get the desired results in greater family warmth, stronger ties with parents and older people. Love is more excitingly cerebral, inspired, elevated. You will find that you experience a oneness that goes far beyond the realm of physicality. That's truly great. It may apply equally to interactions with like-minded friends.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

As a mother, you are one of the few women who can cope with the demands of a job, small children and home. She needs intellectual stimulation, not being content merely to be a mother, though she is an excellent one.

Certainly. I can stake my reputation that those in publicity, media-related foreign trade, export-import, do render performances that are at least excellent, if not totally brilliant. Good going in the end. It certainly makes for a) better finances and b) even better social and emotional interactions. Issues and matters that you had managed to push to the back of your mind will now thrust themselves forward. Spiritual leanings and even a deep and sincere interest in the psychic and occult world will rivet you. You will be drawn as well as committed to the world of prayer, spiritual pursuits, formal religion.

MARCH

Even greater focus and direction come to you now. You know which way you wish to be headed. Therefore, right now, you know that success in your profession — in your own eyes. It goes far beyond being good, or even outstanding in your job. You set yourself very high standards and then set out to achieve them. You may even set up your own firm, establishment, ad agency, whatever. You certainly have the flair and ideas - and now finely-honed ambition. Now, you will work to please yourself, in a whole new meaning of the phrase! The time gives you the rewards and recognition you so richly deserve.

On second thoughts, I must add that perhaps it may NOT be such a good idea to start your own venture right now. Personal loss in terms of belonging, cash, even credit cards could happen - and stretch to include larger ones. It's a risk that is best avoided, since there is this danger, and the additional danger - far greater - of losing your heart to a love that may/may not be returned or requited. And therefore, in matters of money and honey, as I truly enjoy calling them, play it safe, play it cool. There's always tomorrow - or the next month next year. Wait for the right time that is what astrology is all about — timing!

APRIL

Your time to make the right moves, the good choices are here. The greater awareness that now becomes an integral part of your outlook also gives you cause for joy. Heightened perceptions can be wonderful, if they lead to greater care of others and of your larger and immediate environment. By ignoring this, you can be a loser rather than the winner you'd like to be. This certainly engenders positive qualities, leadership and innovative skills. It all leads you into a rare old time of events, meets, parties, group activities. There is a certain devil-may-care attitude that is often seen in Geminis. It is good to some extent as it relieves or prevents stress, but it can also lead you into dangerous situations.

MAY

Smooth sailing on almost all fronts for you this month. You may turn careless of the little details that make for smooth running in the home. Equally, you may ignore, or ride roughshod over other people or veto their suggestions, if you're convinced that the way you want to do things is the best. You need to be pleasant, even conciliatory to others - both at work and at home. Soothe hurt feelings, smoothen ruffled feathers. It'll be a great benefit giving you both joy in relationships and family interactions as well as gains professionally and materially.

Your spiritual intellectual and intuitive psychic side gets hugely energized. You withdraw from the daily grind of mundane, material life into the innermost parts of your mind and soul. Your interest in the hidden mysteries of the universe, in spiritual and occult phenomena, is truly great. So great, indeed, that it inspires in you the desire to work for charitable, welfare, humanitarian and social causes. That's the scale of operation on which you're thinking — and acting. You feel that you can change the world, make a huge difference to humanity to the global scenario. Even if not, you're more than willing to make the attempt.

JUNE

Energized and enthused with the happenings of last month you now decide to embark on a major self-improvement campaign - physically, monetarily, socially; the works in fact! Financially, in the money angle, there are bound to be new beginnings that you need to plan for when budgeting. Health care is vital, and neglect and stress are out. You will be brilliant at meeting and interacting with stimulating new people, and you make a conscious effort to improve your looks, personality, turnout, in order to be truly impressive. That applies to social activities, meeting friends and spending time with them in an honest, sincere exchange of ideas. You'll wow them, Geminis, if you get your act together; get less careless and more caring.

Carelessness in both contacts and contracts must be avoided, even if the last mentioned are contracts of marriage. Distant connections, travel — bodily and otherwise (I don't mean astral) — wonderful success at all kinds of relationships — all come together to bring both joy and contentment. To revert to marital ties, your own efforts and changed outlook/approach make all the difference.

You will need to look at yourself very honestly and impartially. There is tremendous activity to come in this, your birth month, and you should be fit for it - physically, mentally, even emotionally, and above, all in today's world, monetarily, in order to give it your best shot.

JULY

Sometimes it seems that you Geminis can want to willfully self-destruct. This could well be the scenario, now, if you're not careful. There are strong changes, conflicts, fights, even in a court of law. May be with relatives. Even perhaps your spouse. This can't be ruled out.

Career and personal gain could also be threatened by the enemy within — your pride, vanity, ego. Shun it, make time for parents, bosses, the powers that be. Your popularity and credit really peak by the end of the month. And it's truly more power to you if you make the right choices. And the rewards - in terms of bonding, caring, happiness are almost instant. In a spillover from the successes of last month comes the juicy reward, in terms of lots of money, no matter how it comes. I'm pretty sure this will happen and it could carry on for some time longer - at least till early September. Cash, property, soaring stock values, land and ancestral inheritance - all of these yield profit, and easily too.

AUGUST

Monetary rewards are tangible but they don't always satisfy. You realize the value of people in your life. You have to draw close, invigorate and freshen relationships all the time. In your career, you no longer want the publicity that goes with the hot seat. You're content with quiet, solid work. You should be likewise in taking care of older relatives, parents, in-laws who need your care, attention, time. Care and precautionary measures are necessary in handling finances, though I've said they'll be there, last month itself. Remember

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

You dislike feeling tied down, losing, being wrong, being in a bad situation, mental inaction, and being alone.

I've also mentioned conflicts that need to be resolved. It's your people-skills, warmth, empathy that will yield the best results now.

Once again, relationships will be not just important but vital. I mentioned in passing in last month's forecast that there could even be differences and conflicts with your spouse. While these could be financial in origin, they are more likely to be clashes of ego, ideas: neither party will be in a mood to give quarter. What you need to do is decide just how much you value the relationship. I am sure your ego will deflate itself and true love will expand and grow to replace it. This may apply to other ties of family too. Neglect of links like correspondence, phone calls, even chats on the Net, will be not just damaging but almost suicidal. You have to reach out, probably as never before.

SEPTEMBER

A major make-over is what you're looking at this month. And it's more than 3-dimensional. It is an overhaul of your total ethos, and raison d'etre. You want to live out your life in style, so does everyone, but you take it seriously. Both home and office somehow load you back to your origins, your roots. You retrace the past, wallow in nostalgia and sentiment, and simply love it. There is a solid reason for this enjoyment, though. It makes you content, secure in your present status and state. Moral values and spiritual ones as well as your feelings and emotions are very carefully thought over. It's another matter that you're polishing, honing, improving all that you have, in fact, your entire life.

A very busy phase right through. The twin themes to match your sun sign will be home and career or business or profession. Please understand I don't merely mean your job. Both will require inputs in terms of revamping, updating, upgradation. Financial plans for the future, too. in terms of providing for your old age. You display a fair amount of skill, analytical qualities that could help you make wise decisions AND good investment — property/ real estate, mutual funds, whatever.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

You are most compatible with Aquarius, Gemini, and Libra.

OCTOBER

Once again, you display that strange tendency to swing the other way and could be rash, hasty or both in your planning and your actions. The universe warns you to avoid rashness in both money and honey (love). I mean this sincerely, dear readers. Don't gamble foolishly with either. You'll live to regret it. Concentrate equally, if not instead, on the numerous interests, hobbies and leisure activities that you enjoy. Also on your children, the quality of family life, as you did in August and September. Don't throw it away.

From there will come true support, true power, true prestige. And they last much more than worldly success, yielding greater satisfaction and joy. You've been serious, contemplative, business-like, hard working, occasionally even difficult, over the past months of 2008. In its last quarter, what's left but to be happy and enjoy some fun and frolic? You feel that your state of mind has you floating on cloud nine in terms of love, creativity and pleasure.

NOVEMBER

The desire for a make-over that first came to you two months back now takes on a definite shape and plan, (a) You may change your job, or even your entire career/ profession, searching for new pastures; (b) You will embark not on Mission Impossible, but the very possible mission of self-improvement. This will include, with your attention to minutest details, even diet, grooming, health care, wardrobe — everything; (c) You see scope for improvement in all your relationships, from professional colleagues to loved ones and dependents.

In all, you are willing to put in the extra effort. But here too I detect a tendency to go overboard in the other direction. You can get too involved, too concerned with other people's problems and hang-ups. It may lead to stress on yourself, if not conflict with others. It's the best way — the Middle Path (as they say in Buddhism). Don't overdo things, either way. One word sums up the various activities you engage yourself in. You seek CHANGE — for the better, of course. Even fools don't want things to get worse. But you'll elevate to a fine art, in terms of the detailed attention and time you devote to it. In conclusion — it is a time when less is more, so don't think of sweeping or drastic changes.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

t DECEMBER

You revert now to what you feel you do best, and enjoy/ most, at any rate, as the year ends. You realize your strengths are: People, places, relationships. It's not twins, it's triplets for you! All three are equally important. Relationships of all kinds from those with mere acquaintances to professional or intimate ones are all strengthened and invigorated by you. You catch up with people you've lost touch with, not just in a spirit of New Year bonhomie, but sincerely. Also with places you love. In both, you're not only planning for the future, but turning it into the very pleasing, loving present. People are central to most people's happiness whether we realize it or not. The great thing is that at this juncture, you do realize it — and get on to it.

We all indulge in a kind of retrospective glance back at the year that's gone. And so do you — but in more ways than one. You also cast an assessing look at your failures. You want to analyze which were the wrong moves on your part, and perhaps, also see where your competitors/enemies/rivals made the right ones. You'll want to be careful for the years to come, not just for the immediate future or, for 2009. It's the foundation for the best days of my life — right here, right now.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JANUARY

You are semi-compatible with Leo, Aries, and Sagittarius.

January 1, 2008 to January 6, 2008

You continue to concentrate on your interactions with people as the year ends. In order to do this, you realize the urgency of winning over a desire for solitude, a preference for quiet and lonely places, or even the feeling of being 'lonely in a crowd' that comes to all of us from time to time. Travel to new locations will please you, too, along with concern for social and global welfare, aiding the sick and suffering. Relationships are, therefore, on a much larger scale now, but you still have to work at the closer ones, because that's where your true joys and strengths lie.

January 7, 2008 to January 13, 2008

The strong note of the theme for the month will definitely be money — or how best to earn it. Easy cash, comfortable investments, even wins, windfalls, sudden gains. However, don't be tempted to take unnecessary risks in a mood of over-confidence. Steady planned moves and decisions will need to be made or you could be facing losses later in the year. All your planning will be linked to the tie-up of finances and family requirements and the direction to give to plans/trends for the future.

January 14, 2008 to January 20, 2008

Travel, trade, ties — come all together now. All kinds of transactions, buying and selling, be it property, goods or software, will be what you're most busy with in the early days of the year. Competing almost equally for your attention will be domestic concerns, even home loans/funds. You may even relocate in a new place for work/study/higher studies. Travel of some kind is a foregone conclusion. It could vary from a weekend trip to business travel, or even a long tour for work/training/conferences. In all, interaction is the key. For those in fields related to publicity and the advertising media, it's a time of intense activity. You need to win new-campaigns, plan new launches, create new story boards — and the rewards will match.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JANUARY

You are incompatibl
e with Virgo,
Capricorn,
Pisces,
Scorpio,
Taurus,
and Cancer.

January 21, 2008 to January 27, 2008

A time of intense mental and physical activity comes to you now. You're trying to gain a perspective on yourself, your life, and your goals. You realize that it's not only financial stability that matters. Ties, relationships, interaction with others are equally important. It just might be wise to delay making some vital decisions. You should try to buy time. Travel and ties (Read here communication) and people and places (Also read here communication. What I mean is that these are the four different levels/ways which you will use to communicate with people and equally with your own self.) You reach out — and within — with equal sincerity.

January 28, 2008 to February 3, 2008

A time for rest, relaxation, enjoyment, entertainment, just plain good fun. What you will almost certainly do is pursue hobbies, the arts, music — all the creative forms of expression of self. You will also romance, dally with the opposite sex in terms of good vibes rather than serious pursuit. Happy times together, romance, dinners, moonlight, champagne — you name it! But it's not all love and roses you're dealing with. Equally important will be your work and your profession. There is a difference. You will feel charged, in fact, supercharged, with an energy which makes you feel you can take on the whole world and or carry it like Atlas. It will help you perform super-fast and efficiently and also put new projects on the anvil.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

FEBRUARY

You are often driven by the desire to make a fast buck and can sometimes be quite shrewd and cunning. Yet at the same time you are, or can be, very witty and outgoing with a pleasing gregariousness.

February 4, 2008 to February 10, 2008

You realize you need to put your skills and expertise to better use. You realize the need to strike a good deal, explore a lucrative offer/collaboration. Travel could happen. Perhaps you could be taking a short refresher course, a study tour which could entail travel to distant places. Communications to far-off places is what I'm taking about. And I don't mean just international phone-calls/e-mails and such. It is more for what you can do with these, for a better future for you and yours. Your earning capacity, as well as your performance are what you will try to enhance. The trend will definitely be family affairs and finances. You are not averse to handling both, and try your utmost to do your best; giving a good account of yourself will matter to you.

February 11, 2008 to February 17, 2008

Once again, your earnings, and money-making capacity will be spotlighted — with a view to improvement, naturally. You think about wise speculation, investing in safe bonds (rather than a killing in the stock market), putting away for future needs, for yourself, and for your children. Old-age benefits and pension schemes, too, are attractive. You will value the advantages of strategies, planning over hasty decisions in money matters. If you curb your rashness, it's a dream time for Geminis in money/finances/high finance in this quarter. The temptation to "shop till you drop" could be almost unbearably strong, but you have learnt, perhaps even the hard way, to be a bit more careful. Wisdom is your motto now, and you plan carefully.

February 18, 2008 to February 24, 2008

You've got your affairs sorted out well and may well feel some relaxation is definitely necessary. You're not seeking excitement for its own sake, but that little something extra (in both love and money) to make life happier for you and your family. It is a time-honored truth that love and money are the strongest motivators, but here they're motivated by something special. Exciting, perhaps even thrilling possibilities of striking it rich (money and honey, both) will suggest themselves to you. Gone is the cautious, planned approach of the past couple of weeks. You are suddenly cutting loose — or seem to be. Your love has an element of thrill and danger. Finances are handled with calculated risks. But there is a streak of care in the dangers you are handling, because they're geared to a different purpose. You'll test the waters before jumping then, so the caution is still there.

February 25, 2008 to March 2, 2008

Insights into life and living it well come to you. Understanding glorifies your actions. You experience affection deeply, reflectively, and draw sustenance from quiet moments. This quieter time gives you fresh insights, as I said, but also ideas for new and fresh inputs — in terms of investing your money and your feelings. You've had your little fling and now you're once again calm, content, pleased with the outcomes of your efforts. Acting sincerely for the welfare of those close to you is rewarding. It also reveals the strength in your character — the realization that mutual desires lead to shared duties. You no longer shirk/resent them, but undertake them joyfully.

March 3, 2008 to March 9, 2008

Your sense of duty to family now moves, by natural progression, for larger and societal concerns. A new trend of concern and involvement with your surroundings will manifest itself now, and prevail right through the lunar month. By surroundings, I'm encompassing everything from the home to the neighborhood to the city/town/village to the environment. Ties at all levels, from the strictly personal to a wider circle, will be important to you and you will spare no effort to either create them or strengthen existing ones. Some long overdue matters will get attention; perhaps pending business matters will be successfully completed. Your relationships thus really contain a lot (literally, I mean). Some travel could also be undertaken, with the same purpose, or there could simply be some happy family time together.

March 10, 2008 to March 16, 2008

Gemini is a spiritual sign, quite frequently, and it draws out the latent good that is in all human beings. In this quarter, you have the urge to draw close, protect, comfort, safeguard yourself and your loved ones, your home and your own little world. A tremendous sense of responsibility will make you spare no effort to do your best for them all. The build up was there — now it blossoms into a determined, full-fledged enterprise. In your own sun sign, there is a special power, insight, even electricity, not to mention a touch of spirituality in all your dealings, emotions, actions. It gives your love life too greater intensity.

Inspiration and ideas will seem to flood your brain now. And this will apply almost equally to both work and family life or personal interactions. A week of stimulation and attraction for sure. There is pleasure but also a diligent searching for ideas, solutions and shared projects. The operative word will be sharing — time, space, ideas, love, even joint funds, more work, more money. That sums it up well and truly. Exciting prospects also open up at a distance. Money deals are strongly interesting and exciting. Don't go overboard on the excitement and you may really be on to a good thing. Just take your loved ones into confidence, too, so that the theme of sharing yields mutual profit and success.

March 24, 2008 to March 30, 2008

Your steadiness has grown greatly and it continues this week, too. You shoulder heavy responsibilities willingly and gladly. Family love intensifies, alongside. You are feeling good regarding money matters and handle them with dynamism — as a means to a better/desired end. That's all that money is, after all. Isn't it? You will direct things, hold the reins in your hands but with charm, persuasion, and most important, professionalism. Your efforts are rewarded with success particularly at work. While you're popular, cared for and loved, you're giving out love and care in almost a barter system.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

APRIL

Gemini tends to have hobbies that expand their mind as well as develop friendships. Creative pursuits, such as writing, satisfy them intellectually, but they don't like to be alone for too long. Interactive hobbies that allow them to communicate with others, such as learning new languages, have a strong appeal.

March 31, 2008 to April 6, 2008

A week in which you work harder than usual. You may have to cross some obstacles and suffer some disappointments. But actually, this is the time for you to show your patience and dexterity. Property matters and issues relating to land construction will demand effort. You get papers moved and things done with great effort and this does satisfy you. The only thing you need to do is refrain from giving up. Family is definitely of great importance in this phase.

April 7, 2008 to April 13, 2008

Now you fix your sights on progress and plans for the future. Career-advancement, hard work and matching rewards, providing comforts and luxuries for now and security for the future — all these motivate you to sheer, slogging hard work. There is not a whisper of doubt and discontent in you — you're doing it for yourself, and therefore enjoy it. Incidentally, yourself here obviously includes loved ones, immediate and extended friends. You think of what will best benefit you — in the short term as well as the more distant future.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

APRIL

Anxiety and nervousness can literally make a Gemini individual physically ill. Relaxation is all-important to this Sign...virtually essential for the general well-being.

April 14, 2008 to April 20, 2008

Focus, determination, orientation — all these are sustained. Since you've been watching out for yourself with such zeal and determination. Universe gives you power and position (This could also mean promotion); added money, both professional and personal — is foretold. It will make you feel purposeful as well as popular.

April 21, 2008 to April 27, 2008

Home, family, the neighborhood, even society, will not only concern you but inspire you to work willingly for them. Most of this quarter is a continuation, a completion of the circle, if it wasn't so before. You'll be doing more and more, but will display patience and sympathy even while you expect others to keep pace. This will be seen at work, too. It's a time when you're truly busy, even hectically active at both home and office. The two come together in total harmony.

April 28, 2008 to May 4, 2008

A propitious time has gradually been setting in. New projects and ventures can be discussed and planned. The time is more favorable now. And this could be on both fronts — business or domestic. Great insights will help you visualize at least the foreseeable future, even your life-span. You can identify the efforts needed to make them all happen. The punishing demands that work makes on you will be there this quarter, too, but they don't get you down. On the contrary you find time to relax with close family, your spouse/partner, and even friends and relatives are drawn into outings, even though they're not strictly family.

May 5, 2008 to May 11, 2008

In the extended family, in society in general as well as in your sphere of work, you are ready to stand up and be counted. There is a certain oneness with your spouse/mate/lover in all these spheres. Most definitely it's there in your handling of children and/ or their problems, if you're a parent. Parent-child interactions are strongly localized and will color many decisions — either way. Responsibilities and very hard work come with the rewards you've got. Rapid changes in the work scene stimulate you. Thinking intensively about work situations helps you find the solutions. A sense of accountability at work, at home and in the extended and immediate family will be felt. You're part of a group that is cohesive and sincere in its commitment to the whole.

May 12, 2008 to May 18, 2008

Your personality holds the key to your activities and influence. It's a time when the family is paramount again. Not just in terms of the time/effort/money or all of the above. It is your own standing in the family circle, not to mention your popularity that shows a marked rise. Not just family, but friends rally round with support, advice, shared responsibility and any help you require, and need it you will as you have to cope with the care as well as extra demands of pets, dependents, the elderly people of the family, children, parents, relatives. I did say, the entire family circle, didn't I? I meant a circle that encompasses, surrounds a space and is complete. That's what it is for you this week.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

MAY

Gemini personality's greatest faults are inconsistency and superficiality. Other people never quite know what to expect; indeed Gemini cannot be relied upon to do thing. All that chasing about and mind-changing leave little time for them to go within and assess things on a deeper to mental overload.

May 19, 2008 to May 25, 2008

From family, you suddenly focus on excitements, risks, thrills, adventure of all kinds. You are fascinated by the spills and thrills of living dangerously. It could be gambling for high stakes, risky investments in the bourses, perhaps betting on cricket matches even. This wild streak could even have you desperately involved, or in love, with someone who is patently wrong for you but enthralls you nevertheless.

May 26, 2008 to June 1, 2008

A pleasurable though not placid week. Some problems that have you worried for a long time will get solved. This frees you to do two things, (a) Plan seriously for new ventures/schemes/proposals. I don't mean marriage, here, please! These schemes could concern the family or your work, or be connected, (b) You also find yourself relaxing, de-stressing, maybe actually enjoying yourself. A bit of social interaction, some fun/recreation, perhaps a sport/game undertaken, never hurt anyone yet. Even being a couch potato, or TV buff is great, if it gives you pleasure and makes you feel good. That is the ambition of every human being, when all is said and done.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JUNE

Gemini strengths are wit and pleasant, versatility, brilliance, enthusiasm, cheering and tactful.

June 2, 2008 to June 8, 2008

With relaxation and lack of stress, calm settles into your mind and heart, and reflects in your interactions. There is a new restraint which keeps your temper in check, a new mellowness. In your dealings with people close to you — there's warmth, empathy, tenderness. It makes for contentment and peace within you, and in the family, too. Happy times together are like a buffer against the demands that the world continues to make on you at work and beyond. Travel will be a little fraught with problems. Delays, uncertain schedules, perhaps missed trams/planes/car breakdowns can cause plans to go awry. But you are in such a state of mind that you are not hassled — just inconvenienced. You'll try to make the best of the situation, and cope with as much composure as you can, so that your personal space is calm.

June 9, 2008 to June 15, 2008

You might well feel in this phase that your good spell is over, in several ways. Maybe you've undergone some physical strain in the travel you've undertaken. There could be health problems to reckon with and, to make matters worse. That's expensive. Money may be tight, but there is understanding with people close to you. Not only does it tide you over, but it inspires you to help others, do some charitable/philanthropic work, and look at deeper values. You are determined to take care of those who look to you for support and sustenance, and even those who don't.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JUNE/JULY

Gemini weaknesses are untidiness, self-centered, careless, indecisiveness, indifferent and cruel, and lack staying power.

June 16, 2008 to June 22, 2008

You turn back to personal spiritual gains as your target, even while you function in the world around you. Family and loved ones will continue to be a source of joy and fulfillment. But you're like the knights in search of the Holy Grail — in your case, pleasures of the spirit, religion, philosophy, knowledge and higher learning appeal to you as a path leading to nirvana, rather than pride or ego. It makes you a little detached but NOT uncaring. There is a difference, as you know. And detachment ends sorrow. All the scriptures of the world say so, and they can't all be wrong! In any case, you're not out to prove them wrong!

June 23, 2008 to June 29, 2008

Let me tell you straight off that very fortunately for you, accord and harmony relating to family and loved ones and spouse/mate. That's no small blessing at the best of times, but this week it is not only your saving grace but total life-saver. And I'm not kidding here. One word sums up this week's forecast — COMPLICATIONS. The whole gamut could be in store for you from family squabbles and children's quarrels to legal wrangles, property disputes, even 'international incidents' and confrontations at work with bosses/authority figures. Obviously, not ALL of these will happen to every Gemini, but one or more are a distinct possibility. You may even be the innocent bystander who is drawn in. But you'll have to think on your feet to get things straightened. Very definitely, you'd have to stay calm, look for rationality and conciliation in your attitude. Not too difficult for you!

June 30, 2008 to July 6, 2008

Personal advancement, but of a higher kind, is the theme this month. In this will be included higher study, perhaps travel for a study-tour/conference/spiritual pursuits, religion, and even communication techniques both with people around you and prayer and communion with the Supreme Being. It is this fulfillment that you will be seeking from within; but there will also be the fulfillment or contentment that comes from family warmth and caring, affection and time together.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JULY

Each sign has a part of the anatomy attached to it, making this the area of the body that is most sensitive to stimulation. The anatomical areas for Gemini are the shoulders, upper arms, lungs and nerves.

July 7, 2008 to July 13, 2008

This week is an almost total spillover from last week, in terms of pursuits and focus. In fact, most of it could apply equally well to this week as well. What is extra this week is that you find the method that helps you best to achieve a balance in your life between family responsibilities, your personal space and your work. There could be inspired ideas about making money too, but they'll need to be thought over carefully and weighed up for risks/dangers/ pitfalls, too. In fact, balance is the key word — family, work, personal commitments and a sense of duty. You will have to look over your financial balance sheet and look for ways to raise additional funds. These methods may well be unorthodox but they won't be risky. You may just get the right idea, the right break to suit your talents and your needs.

July 14, 2008 to July 20, 2008

You'll need to count to ten, control your impulses, definitely now. I'm not denying that there may be provocation. BUT there are two marked sides to your character and temperament, though not necessarily good or bad in a Jekyll and Hyde kind of way. What surfaces in this quarter is a certain impatience and hastiness which could lay waste all that you've done. It is NOT the time to display any rashness, carelessness or immaturity, in financial matters (most particularly) and family altercations, if they arise. And they do arise, even in the most closely knit and well-adjusted families. Patience, obviously, is necessary, but also wariness/caution — even in strictly personal/emotional matters, where too you'll need to think before you speak.

July 21, 2008 to July 27, 2008

You turn your focus/attention back to work and profession. There will be fresh orientation in terms of ambition. Career advancement will be a secondary consideration to personal spiritual advancement, because the nitty-gritty details of life cannot be ignored for too long. Career, work, and finances will be important, in that you will have to focus on them to a large extent. But the good thing is that it does not detract in any way whatsoever from the inner harmony and balance you have tried to achieve. All three (career, work, money) will be viewed in the perspective of family. You don't want to rival Bill Gates in wealth. You only want what you consider is sufficient to keep you and your family content and cared for, in the manner you'd like to see.

July 28, 2008 to August 3, 2008

Your softer attitude and gentleness will yield further dividends. Legal wrangles will be smoothly sorted out even as you heave a sigh of relief. Correspondence, documents, vital data all need to be handled carefully, and so also any deals and transactions that you make around this time. Careful thought is necessary in all that you say and do. In addition, the week ushers in the extended family in a big way. Parents, in-laws, distant relatives and close ones will hold your attention. Disputes and heated discussions are best avoided, or there may be a spectacular display of fireworks that will leave you hurt and angry.

August 4, 2008 to August 10, 2008

You find that your energy levels and spirits are raised tremendously. What also zooms is money — lucky wins, investments that shoot up and even a bonus could be seen. While on the one hand, closeness in a love-relationship will be felt, there could also be hurt or disappointment. You could just decide to travel for fun/take short holiday/a get-away-from-it-all weekend. You can afford to do it now, both in terms of career demands and the money to pay for it all. Physically, you have been feeling very low and worn out. Maybe you were stressed out without knowing it. But now, with the reconciliation of family, career and spiritual learning into a single harmonious picture, you are ready to take on the world!

August 11, 2008 to August 17, 2008

The world you take on is a new, challenging one indeed. I don't mean that you will be other-worldly or "spaced out" as they say these days. You know that absence of worry is necessary for peace of mind and meditation practices. So you set about handling commitments, funds for family and security, and your own capacity to handle income-generating activities. What the last week helps you do is strike a balance between them all.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER

It is important for Gemini individuals to be in touch with those who understand them. If not, then there is a tendency to wilt and undergo an intellectual suffering. Gemini's reach for the perfect relationship will probably mean that such an individual is constantly disappointed until he or she realizes that there truly is no such thing as a "perfect relationship".

August 18, 2008 to August 24, 2008

In order to be successful in this world, you realize how important it is to reach out to it and how carefully it has to be done. You will have to be tactful, restrained to the point of wariness in contacts, correspondence, communication. Let me explain. Contact with the wrong person (even a romantic inclination) could be problematic. What you put in writing could (not will) lead to legal problems. Communicating wrongly/harshly could generate ill-will and problems, both in personal and professional life. AND, not communicating will prove to be even more problematic. It's not at all complicated. Think before you speak/act/write. No rash or hasty words/actions/deeds.

August 25, 2008 to August 31, 2008

You've chased the world and success in it — and found them, too. All the tumults and glory will finally quiet down in this phase — peace and contentment prevail, and some much needed rest and relaxation, too. You've finally come into a phase when all is well with your little world. A spirit of harmony, of identifying with your environment, envelops you and, by extension, those closest to you. I'll leave you to work out the details for yourself — you've got the time. I'll just give you a hint, though. Your mate/ spouse, children/parents, friends and society form part of the environment, don't they.

September 1, 2008 to September 7, 2008

A strong desire to perform, to win over, perhaps even to conquer is the monthly trend setting in now. With your family, children, loved ones, too, there is an excitement in personal interaction. If you are single and also fancy-free, you might find yourself falling in love, or being irresistibly drawn to someone you find exciting. It's this same desire for exhilaration and thrills that may send you off traveling to new or unknown places in a spirit of adventure. You're determined to squeeze every drop of intoxication from the act of living itself. That will be the best conquest of all, in your life. New leisure activities/projects draw you now. Looking at new options, a new world to influence and live in to your own satisfaction, will be an exciting challenge you're keen to take up.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

SEPTEMBER

They have to learn during their lifetime to progress rather than destroy. To them life is a game which must always be full of fresh moves and continuous entertainment, free of work and routine.

September 8, 2008 to September 14, 2008

Your mood and spirits will continue to soar, influencing your home and professional life, both. You've been experiencing an up-swing in all aspects of life — health, love, career, money, spirituality. You might be justified in thinking, or rather, fearing that the law of gravity will come into action i.e., what goes up must come down. I dare say it will, but not right now. Don't worry, you haven't reached the top of the up-swing yet. There is more good news in store — awards, rewards, recognition, personal popularity. It's a truly wonderful feeling.

September 15, 2008 to September 21, 2008

You had apprehensions about how long you'd remain at the pinnacle, basking in all the adulation and success coming your way. It hasn't stopped yet. In fact, it is rounded off, like the full moon, in a burst of glory. Praise, promotion, perks, personal benefits/parents, prestige — in some form or the other will be there, in a season of splendor. I'm not exaggerating. It's all there and what's more. Your boss/superior/the powers that be, are also pleased with you. It adds to the sense of satisfaction you feel, and manifests itself in money terms, too. You feel that's contributed to your strengths in no small measure. It's best to delay major decisions that you feel you need to take, till the time is more favorable, however.

September 22, 2008 to September 28, 2008

You're still on a roll, in terms of success and achievements. Despite that, there could be some demanding situations and conflicts to deal with. Be prepared for hassles, problems, delays while traveling. But importantly, they're not going to hold you up. You earn your personal inner space with you — and it's calm and pleasant! Looking within yourself you find much that you'd like to do. You also find you want to be with people, have the world draw close and interact with it in anyway you can, even if it's just e-mailing distant friends, long-lost relatives, childhood sweethearts. Just to find out how life is treating them, or vice versa. It's called touching base and is value-addition to life.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

OCTOBER

Variety is the spice of life - is your very own motto, and Gemini lives every second with that motto in mind. Restless and impatient, Geminis could harm themselves and others by taking unnecessary risks.

September 29, 2008 to October 5, 2008

A time when you could well decide in haste and repent at leisure, to fracture a proverb. There could just be a touch of complacency or over-confidence creeping into your attitude. Continued peace and harmony don't just happen; they have to be worked at. And that's just what you need to do. This is not a time to conduct yourself with typical Gemini rashness and haste in both the spheres of money and honey. Self-reliance and self-confidence are one thing, and being egoistic is another. One may well develop from the other. Don't be too critical of others, impatient of those who fumble or can't get things done just the way you want them at work and at home.

October 6, 2008 to October 12, 2008

Secret activities, and also spiritual ones, now come to keep you both busy and heavily involved. You will seek to involve yourself in family issues and in social ones; also to strengthening relationships, especially with older people. Property, assets, some buying and selling, too — here's where you need to be discreet to the point of being almost secretive.

October 13, 2008 to October 19, 2008

You reconcile many of the pulls on your mind and thoughts, achieving harmony at home and efficiency at the workplace, too. No mean feat, I must say. You've spent a long time finding yourself in several ways. This inner growth has been going on for some weeks now — and it has led somewhere. You now realize that both your career and your family are an integral part of you and your inner space. You want to do your best for them, especially in terms of fulfilling obligations and responsibilities. What is more important is that all these are now very clearly defined in your mind, and come into very sharp focus, indeed. I'm talking of duties/ responsibilities that are undertaken lovingly.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

OCTOBER

Life with a Gemini is full of constant activity, endless movement and even more fun. And you can bet they won't scatter their affections if they can find someone who'll be willing to at least try to keep up.

October 20, 2008 to October 26, 2008

The rash, uncaring side of you has been held very firmly in check, for various reasons, by you yourself. Your health could once again be suspect, but there are definitely no other grey areas in your view of life. Your own potential has been realized inwardly and self-doubt has melted away. You are definitely (a) self-reliant yourself, and (b) reliable for others to lean on. This has you doing the right things career-wise, money-wise and family-wise. The pun on the word 'wise' is intended. You will derive your various strengths from the spirituality you have developed, and the wisdom that comes from true knowledge. You have attained true inner growth. It manifests itself in the right moves.

October 27, 2008 to November 2, 2008

A time of quiet contentment, relaxation and happiness comes now. You've earned a break from constant work. The break could be in terms of parties, entertaining, visits to shows, the theater, art exhibitions, dinner, even a short trip or vacation. Lots of socializing, meeting people who interest and stimulate you, happens. The affection and genuine, sincere caring and sharing that you have lavished on others makes for a time of pleasure, affection, wonderful interaction. You relax let your hair down and look for fun. There is a different kind of growing happiness now.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

NOVEMBER

Those born under this sign love to experience many different types of food, if only for their intellectual curiosity. Plus, it's yet another new experience to tell the folks back home about.

November 3, 2008 to November 9, 2008

After your relaxed break, you turn back to address the things you feel you need to do. The importance of being discreet, careful, even conservative will be realized. This applies particularly to the sphere of finances. While it is a good time to survey, explore and study new avenues of earning, you really need to do your spadework and homework before embarking on a new enterprise. Your strength and restraint will come from religion, meditation, tantra and mantra even spirituality. It is definitely a time to listen quietly to your inner voice. Even some cut-backs, economies that are necessary, will be a family exercise, along with your financial plans and/or investments.

November 10, 2008 to November 16, 2008

You turn your searchlight both inwards and upwards, definitely away from worldly concern. Your sign of Gemini (the twins) is one that is often prone to wild swings of mood, to want first one thing and then something almost diametrically different. That's the way it is with you now. You have a terrible longing for solitude, for lonely places where no man comes, no birds sing and you are entirely alone. It's a kind of longing that can only be fulfilled in moderation, for otherwise you'll be acting irresponsibly. All your good work would be undone. Probably, your wish to be alone is for a time when you re-assess your responsibilities as well as ties and your own ability to handle them well.

November 17, 2008 to November 23, 2008

The world's demands on you will continue. Poor health or neglect could be a troublesome, nagging problem once again, but this could be generated by just plain overdoing it, in terms of work. Your friends and family both rally round in support with care and cosseting to make you feel better, even taking over some of your chores and tasks as well. Even at work, you see a genuine desire to help on the part of your co-workers/colleagues/ subordinates. In fact, a growing circle or network of friends or acquaintances makes things easier for you all round. And this is the result of your own efforts to be genuinely helpful when it was your turn. They help in terms of new ideas, a fresh approach to work-related issues, and to future plans too.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER

Gemini is the sign of communication. So during those rare times when these talkative Twins are actually alone and not chatting on the phone, IMing with a friend or answering their voluminous email, they're probably on the phone or the Internet, or poking away at their Blackberries with a vengeance.

November 24, 2008 to November 30, 2008

You are grateful to be part of a loving circle of care and wish very sincerely to widen and extend it. You're in the frame of mind that makes you ready to go all out, as in the previous monthly trend. You will, of course, continue to focus on friends/ family/loved ones but now you expand that focus even more. Larger issues, charity, philanthropy, social causes become more and more important. You have developed, over the past year, deeper insights into both yourself and the world you live in. This, truly, is the capital that you can forward into your balance sheet for the next year. All this will apply also to career and income.

December 1, 2008 to December 7, 2008

Having focused on both finance and personal relationships last week, you draw home definite conclusions. A better future is the desire of every man from prehistoric days till now, so why not you, looking into next year and beyond. You will try for both steadiness and steadfastness (Realize that there s a difference, there, in the two words.) in personal relationships. You realize — and deal with — the need to invest yourself, not just your efforts, in both spheres. Family and social interaction will become a serious pursuit. What will be equally serious is a desire to initiate changes in terms of both work, and planning financially for it. Budgets for family expenditure, too, are thought about seriously and realistically. You take loved ones into your confidence, discuss things transparently, and work out both future plans and spending patterns.

December 8, 2008 to December 14, 2008

Both work commitments and the justified demands of family will be handled systematically. A fine balance is struck between work and pleasure. All that you're doing is a run-on, a corollary of the previous week. The two forecasts are actually one continuing from the other. Home affairs, the demands and requirements of work are handled with a steady determination. YET you're determined to derive some enjoyment out of them. Enjoying yourself in terms of recreation, good times with friends and/or family, even socializing for business. It's all there for you. to make it easier to a) look ahead at the future with hope and b) have fun right now.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

DECEMBER

Gemini children are usually bright and may show a talent for logic and language skills.

Allowing them to progress at their own speed, emphasizing the joy of learning, is the best method to employ with these children.

December 15, 2008 to December 21, 2008

The theme remains the same, by and large, but only intensifies. What's been happening in the last two weeks now becomes a truly hectic phase of your life. Actually; it's more of the same — work, partying/entertaining/dealing and interacting with family, are all happening more or less simultaneously. Financially, you're planning strategies and means; you want to provide for a better life now and also save for the future. Juggling so many activities has, obviously, certain built-in dangers — strain, health problems getting aggravated, even a collapse. There's lots to do. The practical side of life has to be dealt with, as family matters demand attention. So also, property in terms of buying/selling/improving/leasing/renovating/expanding. You will also find yourself dealing with office documents, papers, files, in a major way. Sorting, rearranging, even creating a new filing index/computer software and similar activities related to publicity exercises will get a boost. Ad-campaigns could be initiated, discussed or even executed. All in all, you've got a busy time ahead.

December 22, 2008 to December 31, 2008

As you enter 2009, you find yourself busy in several ways, but mainly mentally, socially and financially. It's not the usual party-circuit for you, but much, much more. It could be that the plans I spoke of last quarter now¹ become the main theme. You're looking at long-term investments on the financial front, with a view to future security and a comfortable living for you and yours. You may even take on some extra work to make a little extra money but you will prefer investing it to spending it. Some issues regarding family/spouse may need to be addressed jointly, not in a parent-child confrontation. You could be on either side of the equation, parent OR child, but don't lose your perspective or the inner harmony that you have been at pains to achieve for the last few weeks. In fact, you will continue to strive for spiritual growth and inner calm that sustains us all in moments of crisis. Not that you anticipate them. It's just that you wish to sustain your advancement in every possible way.
