ABOUT ASTROLOGY

Astrology is often defined as the study of the influences of the cosmos on life on earth.

The zodiac is the belt or band of constellations through which the Sun, Moon, and planets transit across the sky.

Astrology is a science related to the heavenly bodies. It is the study of the movements and positions of the sun, moon, planets and stars, and the skill of describing the expected effect that these are believed to have on the character and behavior of humans. Astrology is not at all a fortune telling. It is one of the successfully tested methods for man to learn about who he is, where he came from and where he is going. Astrology reveals CHARACTER and character makes your destiny.

The main uses of astrology are analysis of health and sickness, character psychoanalysis, professional guidance, analysis of children's horoscopes so as to give parents a better idea as to how best to raise their children, and analysis of the compatibilities between people.

Astrology does not show anything but tendencies. A man can dominate his stars by exerting his determination. If a man decides to flow with the wave of life, then the tendencies indicated in the birth chart could be observed in that man. Astrology forewarns and being put on alert, a man is thus in a better position to cope with the struggles of life.

There are three aspects which bring to us the mystic message of the stars - the houses, the signs and the planets. Each house represents a section of life; the signs are divisions of the heavens which by their placement relative to the houses indicate our basic temperament and attitude towards life and the relative motion of the planets through the houses are the messengers of the god which bring to us the opportunities.

About Sun signs

Your sun sign represents the sign of the zodiac that the Sun passed through at the time of your birth. The Sun rules your essential personality, your ego and your willpower. It represents the core of your potential and your distinctiveness as an individual; it is who you are and what you are about.

The beginning and end dates for each of the signs can vary from year to year. Cusp is the border line between two adjacent sun signs. If you were born on a cusp, you may have some qualities of one sign and some from the other sign.

ABOUT THIS BOOK

LEO

KNOW YOURSELF

Since Leo loves to do things in style, which is usually very attractive to the opposite sex, yours is the sign best suited for love and romance.

The Leo is considered the ruler of the jungle, so also you are the leader of your own world; you exhibit impeccable bravery, superiority and sovereignty. You are expected to achieve extraordinary feats. You have the strength of character to take command of any situation and your presence commands respect and attention. And just like a king, you have a big heart, you are generous and sensitive to others' feelings.

But again, you are quite egotistical and it's quite easy to flatter and take advantage of you. At the same time, you tend to be quite self-congratulatory and boastful and at the same time dominating, courting resentment from your peers. Leo is all about ambition and compassion; and at the same time headstrong and a little corrupted by power. But it equally characteristic of you to be contemplative and moody, especially when you are with yourself.

You can get into deep depressions, but the only answer to this problem is self-control, hard work and paying heed to others' counsel. You show your ambitious and sensitive character with your relationships with the opposite sex. And you are also in quite a bit of luck, but being a little imprudent, it would be ill-advised for you to try your hand at speculation.

Qualities that make you lucky are bighearted, forceful, aristocratic, and affectionate. Qualities that hinder your success are aggressiveness, boastful, haughty, and pride.

Ben Affleck, Sandra Bullock, Jennifer Lopez, Madonna, George Bernard Shaw; We know them as famous Leon.

2008 FOR LEO

As a friend, you are truly the friend par excellence, loyal, kind and generous. Your warmheartedness and sincerity will never make you let a friend down. You are a blend of idealism, pride and romanticism in your friendships.

This year is fabulous for you for many reasons. For starters, you are in the thick of the action. Then, you all the style and enthusiasm going because your spirits are so buoyed up. And what's more, you get the results that make it all worth the effort at the end of the day. Your ambience is just so great, that things just seem to be sorting themselves out. You might have the odd financial difficulty, or the health problem. So you will have to seriously think about a workout or so cardio once in a while.

All your household affairs are going around their respective orbits with perfect harmony. You can afford the odd holiday once in a while to let the steam off; and to be frank, you do need it - what with the amount of load you take. Loans and investments will be important, monetary issues in your household will need to be addressed, and there is a great chance that you will recover some personal treasure that you had to let go in the past. This is also a great time for a starting a partnership of some sort. Money governs most of the affairs you undertake, and it will be the sole decider of how this year turns out for you.

Your passion and zeal jet your performance and efficiency to an all time high. It won't be long before subordinates and colleagues take notice. But all this being said you can't help that slightest feeling of confusion. You do need to reflect upon your work and see if you are utilizing your vast energies in the best possible way. You will need to delve into your spiritual self, find the answers to some unasked questions. And it is only for the better, you will learn how to live life in a more complete manner.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

As a father, Leo really comes into his own. You enjoy parenthood, and are almost always in tune with your children and their activities. There is great warmth in your love for them and you love being with them, taking them out, attending cultural and sporting events.

JANUARY

Leo is a sign that almost always makes its presence felt, right from the word go. And that's the way the year starts for you. Your personal and family life first — it is a source of much pleasure and satisfaction. Its almost certainly a time of no romantic/sexual conflicts. If they do arise, you see to it that you resolve them peacefully, affectionately, and positively. Family life is therefore peaceful, though you do have to deal with conflicts/hassles. These will pertain more to those who depend on you like children, dependents, pets, employees so I would say that both professionally and personally much depends on your own attitude.

'Start with a bang' is a phrase that seems to be have been coined only for you Leos. A tremendous boost, a kick-start for money and honey, romance and finance, any which way you call them. Finances first — here it's your career/profession that you handle with inspiration and insight. Coupled with your customary valor and daring, it leads most definitely to new openings, perks, benefits, new projects with a high degree of productivity in terms of gains. But here's where you need to tread warily and carefully guarding against unnecessary risks. The area to guard most carefully, though, is your own health, and/or energy levels. You have decided to go far. and you need the stamina. The Oracle assures you. if you co-operate in this. He'll give you the necessary- staying-power. You will not just last the course, but even flay the opposition!

FEBRUARY

Where it was your personal concerns and your immediate environment last month, now there's a wider field/spectrum. I know I tend to use catch-phrases of my own coinage, but they're not overworked. They sum up a whole host of activities. I'm talking of my phrase — "reaching out to people and places". Without this, no relationship can even exist, leave alone survive. And you need to do it now. in fact, yesterday. You do spend a lot of time interacting with enemies, or at least the competition. You seem to enjoy the cut-and-thrust of business/professional rivalry, but once again, don't underestimate the competition. Many a good person has perished through over-confidence.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

As a mother, Leo is good, affectionate, caring and very involved, sometimes even too much so. She will arrange and organize activities and treats. She is an enthusiastic and very loving mother. Sometimes, however, she may expect her children to be the projections of her own hopes and dreams, unfulfilled or otherwise.

In matters of the heart, too, don't take anyone for granted — even your spouse and family. Make that little effort, at least. Contrarily, you feel both energized and filled with lassitude. You will soon see the results — not only of your efforts but of your gentleness and forbearance. I know this is not easy, but it works! Therefore, as the main theme for the month, I would say that it is bonds and relationships that matter most. Love, hate, marriage, divorce, contradictory influences, the make-or-break time for bonds, ties, partnerships. I am sure that it is only the first option that interests you now.

MARCH

You want something more, something beyond the normal sphere of your life, and turn to faith, spirituality, even occult practices, more tantra than mantra. You search for relief in love, too. Your need of the hour is mental poise and balance. Don't give in too much to either hope or despair. Such phases often lead to health problems, definitely lower vitality and energy. Don't try to rouse yourself out of a kind of inertia by picking up fights, or roaring at people you would normally be happy with. Do not try to stir up controversies and trouble unnecessarily. Your time will come.

The spiritual pursuits that interest you will give you greater patience, understanding, kindness and yield marvelous gains. Shifting home/office, even to a new town or city, could be possible now. Also a shift in your own focus, moral values, objectives. Finance and love could both be problematic, even fraught with stress. You need to be calm in the face of what seems like a crisis. Like most of us in such situations, you may want to blow your top, lose your temper, but it won't help. Try to stay calm, objective and focused.

APRIL

I hope you read the preceding forecast carefully and took it to heart. You need to. You may get drawn into conflict situations. I feel you've got enough to deal with. This is not the time for thrills and adventure, no matter how exciting the friends who suggest it. It is good to be consistent and determined in your efforts to achieve — both in your work/vocation and in your family life. Friends who are well-meaning will energize you, even keep you entertained.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

Ideal Careers for you are Politicians, Welfare workers, Chef, Lawyer, Law and Government Enforcement, Photographer, Entertainer, Real Estate Agent, Artists, Model, and Fashion Designer.

As I pointed out to you last month, this month too let me emphasize again that "Your time will come." Cultivate patience, and don't think negatively. Your greatest strength the spiritual, religious and intellectual awakening that has been building up since last month. Nurture it and it will in turn, help you grow, and probably even outshine everyone. Don't be drawn into discussions regarding some of other people's problems; it rubs off on yourself too and you don't want to jeopardize the personal gains and the marvelous life you've achieved. Loving harmony develops in the home. You may even learn much, experience and express wisdom. The unsettling new trends may yield fulfillment in work and play. You need to rest, and also rise above bad feelings. They won't last long.

MAY

Biding your time will now start paying spectacularly. You're ready to take off into the atmosphere, in terms of status, power, glory, prestige and achievement. At least, you'll recognize your own true worth. and rely on your own resources, maybe even set up an individual unit, work from home, whatever. All this should not encourage you to take risks financially. Your income will increase more from wise investing than -ambling, speculating. Don't expect to win at lotteries and other games of chance. There's no get-rich-quick possibility. Keep working steadily — the rewards will come.

Intuitively. I feel that same will apply equally to some very personal, intimate problems or issues. Calmness of mind and meditation will be your trump cards, to use the gambling metaphor seems to be apt. You will need them. Truly speaking, as you will be feeling the weight of tremendous pressures, in several ways this month. These will almost certainly be work-related, but it's you building up speed, or 'bunching up the growl' as motor-cycle racing enthusiasts say. It means building up the power to make a huge spectacular start — and to maintain it.

JUNE

Work finds you giving it not only your best shot but more than that little bit extra. No compromises in your attitude now. A time when you're ready to stand up and be counted. You exhibit qualities of leadership and innovation along with your usual daring. But lead pleasantly and glitch not by barking or roaring out orders. So be patient with those who are not as endowed as you with the charisma, creativity, institution you expect. You also need to work on relationships — all kinds, all levels, even with your environment and neighborhood. You renew old friendships/acquaintances in this mood. Perhaps there could be a tie or bond like getting engaged or married, if not now then in the near future. Perhaps even an affair to remember!

Even your business/ professional interactions will become personalized around this time. You want to acquire learning, new skills and information. All this because of a strong desire to act. to achieve, to advance. I said this at the outset. What I must say now is that don't progress at the cost of personal relationships and/or family life. The temptation to make easy money fast can be given in to now. You just might hit the jackpot, even though you might then not be lucky in love. It's your call — either way. But there are pleasant events, far-reaching friendship, special satisfaction in your work, a feeling of coming fulfillment and glory. These are far greater gains. I think.

JULY

A kind of withdrawal comes to you now and draws you away from "the madding crowd". You yourself are drawn to assisting the infirm, the challenged, disabled and disadvantaged. Perhaps you might visit asylums, homes for special people, detention centers, certainly lonely isolated places. You could also find yourself— or someone very close — in need of medical care, even hospitalization. All this, naturally enough, will mean truly horrendous expenses, but you meet them generously and willingly. There can be trips, contacts established to negotiate what could be secret deals, probably linked to what I've described earlier.

You cope with all these rather trying, or at least, burdensome demands and you do it well. That is why you were searching within for inner strength. You have come to realize that this is more important than physical courage and daring. You pursue, with the determination of a predator stalking his prey, the real inner strengths, and the recesses of your mind and personality. There is a good and valid reason you have to be aware of your own strengths as you need the powers to handle the several angles of activity that happen this month.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

You dislike doing things safely, ignorant and small-minded people, penny-pinching, being compared to others, loneliness, pointlessness.

Some of them are secret, rather mysterious, held behind closed doors, phone calls with scramblers attached — and all of these could be against you. You'll need both focus and determination in order to cope — and these you're never lacking in.

AUGUST

The withdrawn phase will be a thing of the past now. It's a whole new ball, game now. Partnership, pleasure, play and there's a lot of entertainment. You are appreciative of the good things that are coining to you, and express yourself spontaneously. Work and play seem to fuse in glorious activity. There is a slight downside, though. Control overspending, especially on others, in your generosity. You'll live to regret it, as your own debts will mount. In any case, you can't create lasting relationships by what you can offer materially. There has to be more. This is what powers you on. The inner search continues, but you are motivated now by the desire to improve your image in the eyes of others, your own self-image, so that you can shine and be successful.

Good luck comes to you leading to success in your ventures, tremendous creativity at white heat, marvelous interaction with children, their activities and affairs. Social activity, and relationships with not just family and loved ones but a wider circle of friends flourish because you display far more flexibility and open-mindedness. Always fair-minded, you are willing to listen. And that does make interactions with people improve vastly, leading to much more joyous, contented, happy times.

SEPTEMBER

The focus shifts strongly on to money issues, property, and related matters, and keeps you mighty busy. Taxes, rental, funds, capital-raising, even gold, valuable, property, assets come to you. But they do not drop into your lap from the heavens. Clashes/conflicts would have to be dealt with, especially if it's either family, money or an inheritance. or even a raise, promotion, new post. See this indicates the extra flow of cash, of course, but also perks, privileges, bonuses, rewards. And these benefits will be more than well-deserved, so also praise, kudos, credit, popularity. It's a lucky time, in terms of all these, but a risky one. too. You just might get side-tracked to wrong objectives in your career, focus on the wrong "get-rich-quick" schemes which might boomerang on you, if you don't read the fine print carefully hedge your bets too.

You are focusing on all things financial in this month, in a spillover after your birth-month, as I've described in fairly exhaustive detail. But that is not and never can/should be the total picture. You realize the need to rethink the values in family life, under some anxiety over household conditions or an explosive family situation. Health could be a casualty; or, certainly stress and exhaustion could wear you down. Friendship and family love will be far-reaching, vitalizing and uplifting you. They are your greatest assets, and you are more than aware of the need to nurture and protect them. Money and family sum up this month

OCTOBER

A time when you are truly creative. Your imaginative brilliance will be outstanding. Those who are in computers, inventions and research development will work miracles. At work, you have to be thorough, precise, and use your own judgment in transactions about money as well as setting up new contacts and contracts. Despite having to reckon with conflict and competition or other road blocks to your success, you do attain success at forming a strong partnership which will lead to mutual gain — in all ways, not just monetarily. You reach towards fulfillment with someone who is ideal, helps you in subtle ways, inspires you to work brilliantly. Likewise the free flow of your own personality stimulates a partner to greater warmth. mutual affection and caring as well as the exchange of ideas.

It is ties, links, bonds, communicating in all possible ways, from rubbing noses with your children to signing a memorandum of understanding or agreements. Family-wise, it's both the joy in marriage, romance on the one hand and the ties of family and kinship. extended family and society, on the other. Special satisfaction in your work makes you seem to be heading to the top of a group, working for larger causes, even community building. Glory can be yours, in the selflessness of your thinking, and in your humane and tender care. You are involved with any. but probably all. of—siblings, cousins, relatives, even neighbors, close friends. You're drawing everyone around you even closer.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

NOVEMBER

A different kind of glory in the sheer joy of living. Beautiful possessions come to you, as do pleasures and movement. You are much loved, as you render assistance and respond to friends. You are feeling a desire, compulsion even, to trace your roots, strengthen your sense of family and even spirituality, ethics and morality to enlarge your horizons. However, in this closeness and family bonding, you are advised that it is still wise to keep your own counsel about certain matters, even assets. Don't put all your cards on the table in negotiations, even if they're just family conferences. Your success may either go to your head or invite envy or both.

Where there were long-distance connections, even foreign trade research last month, now you gather your loved ones close, turn to home/house/property, your territory, your turf. Perhaps there's slight ill-health to motivate you. You're certainly thinking in terms of old-age benefits, retirement schemes, provisions for the future, for you and your family. It is in this vein that renovation/improvement/construction/acquisitions for the home are undertaken. This will also necessitate generation of extra cash for all your requirements. At any rate, a lot of financial matters like taxes, estate duty, expenses, have to be accounted for. Achievements are almost a certainty though, of course, there are no guarantees in life and in astrology.

DECEMBER

Several things that spell glory — (a) Phenomenal creativity, innovation, ingenuity, imagination — all leading you to great success in the work angle; (b) Equally inspired activity in finance, investments, speculation that lead to equally phenomenal gains; (c) An originality, freshness in your approach to family life, social interaction, entertainment — leading to a bonanza of fun and pleasure, even joy in trips, holidays, outings; (d) You get a bonus — flair/style/class that's truly impressive, a heartwarming in love, romance which is passionate, intense, and there is happy fulfillment, greater bonding; (e) A second, even more valuable bonus — spiritual learnings, social and moral concern and values, caring for the community and wider world, in a spirit of true faith and caring. Maintain your inner strength, don't do inconsiderate/thoughtless things.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JANUARY

You are semi-compatible with Virgo, Libra, Gemini, Cancer, Capricorn, Pisces, and Leo.

January 1, 2008 to January 6, 2008

You will handle financial matters skilfully and above all, luckily. In fact, a great deal of charisma and luck will be added to all that you do, which is great! Your work frontier and your travel slot will vibrate wonderfully, and that means, excellent results. Love and luxury should make you happy, but so also will your interactions — at work and at play. In your involvement with money matters there is also an involvement with lotteries, trying your arm at something implying the luck of the draw. Meets and conferences are important but team spirit is an equally vital aspect of your interactions with people. I would say that money and people make a marvelous combination.

January 7, 2008 to January 13, 2008

Major expenses come as the theme for the month, right from the beginning of the year. Funds, joint funds, assets, shared accounts will be important, and a fair amount of travel, too. You need to make a lot of demands on yourself — not just financially but emotionally, too. You reach out to help those less fortunate, to heal and succor where necessary. The expenses I mentioned are not entirely unexpected too, so you cope rather well.

January 14, 2008 to January 20, 2008

The demands on you continue and so do the expenses. You are generous to the extent of not only denying yourself, and taking on expensive commitments (time, effort, money — most important) but stand in imminent danger of falling into a debt-trap. Don't give into the rashness of your sign, only the bigheartedness. You must temper your generosity a bit; use your judgment and discretion in these early weeks of the year. It's a start that you may find a trifle unexpected, even perhaps out of character for you Leos, but not entirely so. In this phase, you put others before yourself; make efforts/adjustments/concessions that are not easy to carry out. But you will do all this not only willingly but generously, as I've been at pains to point out.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JANUARY

You are incompatible with Scorpio, Aquarius, and Taurus.

January 21, 2008 to January 27, 2008

Your mood is one of rashness, or certainly a keenness to take calculated risks, in an attempt to brighten future prospects. This will apply almost equally to matters that affect your pocket and your heart. However, you do weigh up the risks, and realize that the way to improve these prospects is to concentrate on your work, no matter how dull and simple it is. The day-to-day chores and tasks, the nitty-gritty details of domesticity right through to the work scene, to larger social and even global concerns and issues. Nothing is too big or too minute for you to attend to with meticulous notice of the finer points. Particularly pets and children, dependents, or even the elderly, are closest to your heart. Also, chronic diseases flare up as do some tensions that have to be resolved, or perhaps defused. The coolness advised earlier will serve you here, too.

January 28, 2008 to February 3, 2008

A time when you will need to focus on the larger picture. Leos can roar and rage, but they are never petty or carping in their attitude, or rarely so. You can rise above the mean, the small-minded, much more and that's what you do around this time — both at home and professionally/business-wise. And that's good! It's also necessary if you're to earn — on caring and providing, as you may realize. You feel as if you're being exploited, taken advantage of, or all cast taken for granted. There could be resentment at wrongs that are done to you. You may even tend to magnify these and want to retaliate. If not, there is the likelihood of conflicts and showdowns flaring up at work. But you do resolve them, in the hope of building enduring ties.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

FEBRUARY

You are truly Lion in your splendor and personality, ambitious, courageous, self-confident, strong-willed, independent without any self-doubt.

February 4, 2008 to February 10, 2008

Bonding, with old friends and new, is not just important but very fulfilling. In fact, fulfillment is what this new moon ushers in, certainly in the sphere of your job, recognition, rewards, popularity, and perhaps most keenly, of your own self-image. Right now you feel it almost matches up to the way you want others to see you. There is an inbuilt danger in all this glory, though. Leos are not lacking in ego at the best of times and this might puff you up with self-conceit. You could alienate friends and foes alike. If this happens you might even find your world coming crashing down upon you. I'm not taking this extreme view just like that. Take it seriously, and take time out to pursue spiritual leanings. They'll keep your feet on the ground in terms of humility, even as your spirit soars.

February 11, 2008 to February 17, 2008

It's family assets and concerns that you deal with now You seek to find satisfaction and fulfillment in dealing with family and property matters, trying to make them as secure as you want them to be. From family assets, can home and family ever be left out? The personal angle is the focal point of all your activities. You're where you wanted to be on the work front, anyway! Most important will be your individual or personal property which you may buy, renovate, lease out, redecorate, or all of the above. This also includes gaps and shortcomings that you perceive in your family, your life with them and your hopes for them.

February 18, 2008 to February 24, 2008

One week it was profession/job and the following one, it was home/family, marital concerns. Both the themes not only come together now, but gain momentum and intensity. You are willing, even eager; to take risks, chance your arm and your heart. You are willing to lay down your heart for your sweetheart to trample over, if it gets you what you want, but it just may not. A lot of hurt comes from such situations, hence the risk. The art of genuine caring and gentle persuasion may serve you better — draw someone to you like a magnet. Love grows into a game of mystery, but financial matters are clearer, more definite; family matters too.

February 25, 2008 to March 2, 2008

The daring and bold and active side of you will dominate. Hectic, even frenetic activity is your lot this week. The reasons are (a) sky-high expenses and outflow of money (b) extra assignments, perhaps even a stint of moonlighting to cope with expenses; in short extra work, (c) putting yourself out on a limb in your efforts to help someone else whom you have sympathy for. You're willing to face dangers/conflicts/work hazards that could arise in your attempt to do all of the above. Risks and chances need to be weighed carefully or they can boomerang, leading you into a worse mess than you imagine yourself or your friend to be in. In any case, in today's world, helping others often proves thankless — and that might happen to you.

March 3, 2008 to March 9, 2008

A week of intense activity and involvement comes now. In the order of importance that they have I would place them as finance, family and entertaining. Finances are paramount but more as a means to an end — of better family life and interaction with friends, loved ones. You entertain, extend hospitality, have house guests and are kept more than busy.

March 10, 2008 to March 16, 2008

All that I enumerated or discussed in the last paragraphs takes on an upward spiral. The scale of operation is much larger now. Faith leads on to higher, evolved spiritual pursuits/beliefs and finances, too, move beyond the domestic level. They now include wise investments, clever use of options, inspired trading. Closeness with family, particularly children too. It's all coming into a dazzling Catherine's wheel of being happy, being wise, being fulfilled. And fulfillment is what we're all aiming for, isn't it?

I must tell it like it is. You will be a prey (rather than predator) — to all kinds of conflicts and doubts. This is a phase of opposite poles, not attracting, as the law of physics states, but pulling away at you for all they're worth. While there's love that is scintillating in all its glory and thrills and could led to serious, if not life-time involvement, there arc also the chances of a separation, parting of ways. This could even take a legal shape. Work is vital for you but so, too, are people. The domestic set-up requires a lot of inputs from you in terms of time, attention, management, money. That's it for now.

March 24, 2008 to March 30, 2008

You are a problem-solver by nature and it is this quality that helps you cope and make the best of your troubles. In fact, you gain from them. A successful, inspired time for you, particularly in the field of communication, and all the activities related to it. My Cs of contacts, correspondence, communication, plus the T's of travel, ties, trips, and even touching base. You realize that they hold the key to both your success and your happiness. Huge expenses are dealt with as a necessary fall-out. You try to take them in your stride, which is no small achievement in itself. But the main focus, I must repeat, is, most definitely and strongly on the 3 Cs. Right from one-to-one meetings, secret deals, private correspondence and papers to a website of your own.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

APRIL

Leo is the most dominant, creative and extrovert of all the zodiac signs.

March 31, 2008 to April 6, 2008

The upward swing is maintained and you feel both relaxed and confident, but there is a shift in orientation, too. The favourable, productive trend continues, with the emphasis on research, discoveries and inventions, sports and hobbies, and also speculation and breaking new fields. Children send out signals of love and warmth, and tantra and mantra as true spiritual gains open up new vistas of glory. It certainly all contributes to quality time with loved ones, extended family and kin, and good times with friends as well as colleagues.

April 7, 2008 to April 13, 2008

An almost global reaching-out will be experienced. Collaborations, links with distant or overseas places, some travel, are all indicated, perhaps a trip or move of your own. On the one hand, there are huge expenses in the home and family scene, and on the other, there is a growing desire for enjoying your personal space, following your own inclinations. You try to balance both.

April 14, 2008 to April 20, 2008

A week of visible success. Finances look up tremendously and you gain power and prestige also. Your intelligent ideas are leading you towards the top of a group dealing with community building, mutual needs, service to humankind. Whatever, you have a sense of mission and a special satisfaction in your work. In fact, long-cherished dreams and hopes could now be coming true. You shrug off your tiredness and ennui in a surge of energy and fresh enthusiasm.

April 21, 2008 to April 27, 2008

You're impressive in your success which is more than visible — especially to those around you. You bask in the approval of those you respect. There could be financial benefits flowing from this. You are a dynamo in your work, because right now it gives you so much — satisfaction and a sense of accomplishment. That is what the universe blesses us with, your efforts are sincere and genuine. You attain success in the eyes of others, but also in your own self-image. Not that it has taken a beating. But the rewards, in terms of appreciation, recognition of true worth as well as effort, not to mention money (which is there) make everything you've done to acquire an aura of success, a dazzle and glamor that others can more than appreciate.

April 28, 2008 to May 4, 2008

You're a great person to know right now, one with a sense of mission, welfare (for people and even animals), charity and giving, endowments, trusts, philanthropic and social organizations will involve you deeply but you do not distance yourself from those who depend on you for love and care — elderly relatives, children, parents, spouse. They are, in fact, part of and the reason for you seeking success and advancement. Expenses are high, as you will (a) take on new, larger projects, and (b) travel quite a bit, if your work requires it. You will care for the community, society and even all humankind, if possible.

May 5, 2008 to May 11, 2008

You concentrate on the intimate circle now. You need to be with and to enjoy the family, loved ones, your mate as well as close friends, associates, parents/children. Your spouse is more than a mate — an equal and a companion who walks beside you, sharing your thoughts and feelings and understanding them. That's wonderful, so enjoy it. Good companions are a rarity and need to be cherished and appreciated, as you do now. A sudden slowing down of tempo will be experienced this quarter and through this lunar month. It may not be a bad thing, necessarily, if you don't fall prey to anxiety, worn; stress. Remember, you're symbolized by the ultimate predatory animal that is never the prey. So keep faith with yourself, your temperament and above all, your loved ones.

May 12, 2008 to May 18, 2008

You feel revived, revitalized after the easy-going slower spell of last week, and get back into the stream of things with renewed zest. Partners fulfill you in business, in marriage and in any relationship. Partners and human beings are definitely the theme here. In your own sun sign, the moon's phase sharpens, heightens, and intensifies your own emotions, ideas and feelings of the strictly human and personal level. Loving conversation leads to deeper sharing. You enjoy the company of those who stimulate you, and the free flow of your own personality in turn stimulates friends, perhaps even one person in particular.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

MAY

Among the faults, which are typically Leon are displaying extreme arrogance, autocratic pride, haughtiness, and excessive hastiness of temper.

May 19, 2008 to May 25, 2008

In this second phase in the same sign, your success is a foregone conclusion and very visible indeed. Efforts of the past bear fruit; rewards and recognition come and are apparent both to you and to practically everyone around. Business travel and partnerships are stressed and so also is religion. I am trying to describe the spiritual, psychic, meditative side to you which has started growing within you.

May 26, 2008 to June 1, 2008

You will have to focus on the practicalities of life now. As if you haven't been served up a generous meal of work, involvement, things to do in life, there's still more to come. Your earning capacities will be scrutinized and revamped. Also your expenses. You may find that cut-backs are necessary. Extra earnings tempt you but you will study your options and may even decide to play safe instead. The money will not be bad, so it's probably a wise decision to cut your coat according to the cloth. In this spirit, you approach your work with determination and zeal. You are full of vitality and charisma (even to the opposite sex) and also in better shape, physically. I mean health-wise — no hidden meanings, please. You offer assistance. You are also consistent, and as I said, determined to achieve greatly in your vocation.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

June 2, 2008 to June 8, 2008

Vacations, leisure pursuits and hobbies will have you spending a lot of energy and thought. Since you enjoy what you're doing, the going is easy. You're relaxed, and you can let yourself go and express your feelings any way you like, from art to music to intimate conversation. The gentler, easier side of life will bring enjoyment and much-needed relaxation. You have been more than busy for the past few weeks. This monthly trend is initiated to give you rest, comfort, as well as zest for life, happy times, even shopping if that's what thrills you, pleases you and yours.

June 9, 2008 to June 15, 2008

A higher order of existence comes once again in this quarter. People you like and those who are important in your work, are guiding and enriching you in subtle ways. On the personal level, a deep sense of sharing emerges on both sides because of loving interaction, communication, movement (together, I mean). Friends delight you, both in terms of charm as well as information, and good things; I mean not the good things of life, but the higher level of goodness. It helps you immensely in your day-to-day pursuits. You are revitalized and ready to address major issues — career objectives, domestic responsibilities and social issues (not just social life). That is not all. This calm frame of mind helps you cope with details that could have been unpleasant at first but lead to beautiful success.

June 16, 2008 to June 22, 2008

People will once more be vital in the overall scenario. You have to sharpen communication techniques and skills so that pleasantly, sincerely and caringly relating to others is possible. This will be absolutely vital. A lot of meetings, conferences, even conference-calls and presentations could be happening at work. The other equally important thing you need to do is assess your responsibilities (both work and family) very realistically and face them, fair and square. You could be lucky in money matters, but don't take unnecessary-risks or gambles. Concentrate on steady earnings rather than spectacular ones, and above all, read the fine print. You are able to pinpoint the things you need to do in order to get the maximum mileage, the best deal for yourself, in terms of living and loving. That is what, you strongly feel, ultimately matters the most.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JUNE/JULY

Leo
Weaknesses are Pretentious,
Domineering,
Melodramatic
, Stubborn,
and Vain.

June 23, 2008 to June 29, 2008

Life is lived on a plane of exaltation now. Heightened spiritual and religious awareness is what I'm taking about here. Your own pride and ego are reduced in the face of a cosmic awareness. The other things that need to be mentioned are a continuation from the last 2 phases — family, finances and dealing with property matters, maybe even settling a dispute related to it. Your spiritual leanings help you make wise decisions that sense the minimum upsets and yield maximum satisfaction. Society and the community involve you in many and differing ways. Community projects, an over-view that is global in expanse will find you strongly convinced that you need to put in something of yourself, even if it's just contributing monetarily to a cause that moves you. Higher values are motivating you, as I said at the beginning.

June 30, 2008 to July 6, 2008

Home, house and almost all property-related matters come within the ambit of the theme of property that will start now and run through the coming lunar month. Acquisition, negotiation, legal transfer, renovation, improvement of property — all or any. There could be, in addition, some changes in the family or home situation. Initially you may find them upsetting, or even disconcerting. Your standing and popularity (in both spheres) should register an increase — provided you don't roar, and stay calm, warns the time. No easy task, but you do have strong motivation, and willingly make the effort, in the interests of family harmony.

July 7, 2008 to July 13, 2008

You find yourself interacting very visibly in the social circuit. The shift in family scene is proving to be for the better. You may face plenty of action, certainly parties, social and society events, and family gatherings. You feel happy and are gratified to be so much in demand! What makes for greater happiness, though, is wish-fulfillment, a dream coming true so naturally and spontaneously that it's unbelievable. What's more, everyone is as thrilled as you. Stimulating and exciting new people come your way.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JULY

Each sign has a part of the anatomy attached to it, making this the area of the body that is most sensitive to stimulation. The anatomical areas for Leo are the heart, upper area of the spine and the back in general.

July 14, 2008 to July 20, 2008

Family and friends are caring, creating a warm glow within that you reciprocate. In addition, you yourself feel a sense of completion, satisfaction and achievement. Fun and leisure are wonderful, so too are interactions with children. Friends, family and the home itself are all great to be with. Even some risky investments that you might have made might yield profit or add to your regular income. You handle all money matters with a view to family welfare. I would say that in all that's been happening to you, and your own activities, this week is a run-on, a carry-over that completes the trend. You focus on your own immediate family as your inspiration.

July 21, 2008 to July 27, 2008

In your desire to target a better life, you want to change your immediate environment for the better, too. Therefore, renovation/ decoration/addition/extension of the home — from a whole new look, to just changing around the furniture placing. In a similar vein, a new wardrobe for self, spouse and offspring could be splurged on. Likewise, your physical appearance will get attention ranging from workout at the gym, to a new hairstyle, to make-up, i.e., whatever it takes. You also try to shift your attitudes if you feel it necessary. When you embarked on a bout of self-assessment, you must have come to certain conclusions about yourself and where you need to improve. This theme of improvement will be embarked upon with much gusto — characteristically. I might add. You are not one for half-measures and the small scale.

July 28, 2008 to August 3, 2008

You're going to have to deal with conflict situations and a fair amount of envy, rivalry from your competitors as you forge ahead in your chosen enterprises. It is your Leo qualities (courage, determination, a healthy amount of aggression) that will win the day for you. Be valiant and storm the fortress of your enemies, say I. 'Only the valiant deserve the fair' holds good always. You'll shine at relationships closer to your heart, therefore. While you should avoid making the world's problems your own, or arousing unnecessary animosity or badmouthing, your confidence and magnetism might just help you resolve difficulties and differences of opinion.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

AUGUST

For Leo theatricality of the gift presenting ceremony is more important than the fact of him or her getting the gift. The gift has to be presented and not merely handed over.

August 4, 2008 to August 10, 2008

Several things will both attract and excite you. They hold out the promise of achievement. It could range from a serious romantic attachment, a love affair, and better times with spouse and family, to a whole new venture that could take off as if it had wings. Obviously, all of this will not happen all at once, or to one single person, but some of these are certainly likely; I sum it up in just two words — new beginnings. There is a simple explanation for it all. This lunar month in your own sun sign is promising in terms of degree of activity, as with all the twelve signs of the zodiac. New people, new projects, new contacts, perhaps even new acquisitions, the latest gadgets, new business deals — any or all of them stimulate you to both effort and achievement, a very good monthly trend, indeed.

August 11, 2008 to August 17, 2008

You put in a kind of endeavor now. You try to overcome hidden fears and complexes, try to rid yourself of what are called 'hang-ups' but are actually stumbling blocks for most people, in the way of relating to people. New projects may soon be on the anvil and you want to exploit their full potential. This will require communication skills, even as you play power games. Try to be objective in your assessment of yourself. Work at ironing out the peccadilloes and kinks that may come in your way and strive for a better understanding — of yourself and with others.

August 18, 2008 to August 24, 2008

Once again, you go for the bold and daring approach. You tackle problems and delays head on, not rashly but certainly very boldly. It's a time when you may be facing animosity or jealousy from other people: you fight back but need to be careful. Treading on too many toes can create ill-will, and that's very difficult to live with. Try the "softly-softly" way. This doesn't mean that you are less brave, only changing tactics. You want to achieve a target you've set yourself, and if this way works, why not? For courage, daring, even sheer effrontery, very few sun-signs can hope to rival Leos. Often, it is a pronounced attribute and it is this quality that will come into play, this quarter. You're not afraid to take chances and/or bold decisions. All of this entire forecast for the week will apply to business and love, home and workplace, in equal measure.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER

In his or her relations with others the Leo type is open, sincere, genuine and trusting.

Outgoing, spontaneously warm hearted and plain spoken, though never lacking in kindness, Leos are more disillusioned than the average if let down by those they trust.

August 25, 2008 to August 31, 2008

The time has come to extend your reach and influence any which way you can! The form it takes will be journeys and communication. And its not just in this quarter, but for the last quarter of the entire year that these will be important, even vital, from this point on to the end of the year. Right now this travel/contract could take concrete shape in the following ways: (a) Information, ideas, opinions will be exchanged: (b) A passionate love affair if you're single, or passion and intensity in marriage if you're already in a state of wedded bliss (c) An equally passionate quest for the occult, the metaphysical, tantra, mantra arcane ceremonies that are based on hidden knowledge. The reaching out is, therefore, both to this world and the next.

September 1, 2008 to September 7, 2008

The practical aspects of the theme of reaching out will a) become apparent and b) form the trend for the month ahead. Here the new moon brings much comfort, pleasure and even luxurious living; in short, living it up. But the context of these last three words is not just socializing or being part of the Jet Set, now called the glitterati. It's concerned with what I call money and honey. Money oils the wheels of life and honey (read love, affection, passion) makes life worth living. That's what you are busy with — one of the two, perhaps even both. In the travel theme, there could be relocation in terms of moving to a new house, city, and country. Right now the money is good and you can afford it — even traveling for just the fun of it, or living life a different way.

September 8, 2008 to September 14, 2008

A week of exciting happenings, pleasurable pastimes and events is what you get now. Thrills, entertainment, pleasure — those things that give you these, but without the spills — are there for you. You might just be having a whale of a time, doing exactly what you've always wanted to do — from sky-diving and bungee-jumping to passionate encounters with the opposite sex. Even day-to-day gains, the glow of excitement and simple outings are pleasurable, thrilling; even evenings at home — though these are not too main.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

SEPTEMBER

September 15, 2008 to September 21, 2008

Suddenly, you're hard at work once again. Sincere efforts are called for, anyhow, to deal with all kinds of business/professional matters. They will demand all your skills as well as concentration. Even legal suits (your own or for work) might need to be handled — but with care. In all this, I am compelled to state the obvious. Don't overdo it to the point of health problems, and above all don't neglect the home and family. You have to assign priorities and they almost head the list, even though all at once, the real world doesn't just pull you — it well and truly yanks you back. The time seems to be saying. "You've had your fun, now get cracking. Work till you drop and then work some more." Don't be dismayed. That way lies a glorious future (may be just in terms of satisfaction levels). And true success.

September 22, 2008 to September 28, 2008

You realize the necessity of enhancing your earning and potential — in the interests of a better life. You might be tempted to go in for the quick buck, but once again, you have to weigh up your risk factors against perceived gains. In fact this "better life" also includes enhancement of knowledge, learning, and your entire world view. Broadening the vistas of your mind and the horizons of your life is what you want. You are now painting a picture of life on a very large canvas. Higher study, learning, acquiring new skills and travels with the same objective are what will keep you busy this week. But you enjoy it all so thoroughly that it's well worth it, just for the pleasure you get out of it. Your children could also be part of all this.

Leo like sex to be familiar, not necessarily routine, but they like to know what's going on.

This is because Leo always has to be the best and if there is a suggestion or something offered that they have never done before, they would rather pass on the chance than attempt it and be only satisfactory.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

OCTOBER

Leos are extremely sensitive but they hide that very well. Leos love praise and flattery, their egos demand respect and adoration. Leo is all about pride.

September 29, 2008 to October 5, 2008

Earning and learning with a new twist will be the thrust. The theme of last month becomes a very definite trend with this new moon. Plans and prospects, projects and deals are all undertaken with a view to future gain and that too in very concrete terms. They are no longer nebulous; you have the details clearly worked out in your mind, and just can't wait to put your plans into motion. Travel, tie-ups, meetings, conferences and collaborations will therefore be quite possible, if not definite. What you wish to achieve in terms of income and lifestyle will motivate you strongly, and fill you with self-confidence that you can achieve the targets you set yourself.

October 6, 2008 to October 12, 2008

You look inwards at the same time as you look at the entire world almost as your own backyard. You are in a different, in fact, somewhat unique frame of mind. On the one hand, travel is almost a certainty. The probability of it being to isolated places, where healing, medicine, even alternative therapies and practice of meditation are taught there. On the other hand, you will be secretive regarding your business, profession and particularly prospects for the future. You don't want anyone at all to have a whiff of the nature, scope and direction of your actions. In fact, secret meetings behind closed doors could also be linked to your search for the solitude and yet gains. A somewhat paradoxical week, in short.

October 13, 2008 to October 19, 2008

Your inward search yields quick results in terms of action. New ventures and avenues of earning, even a totally new life of work may click. The good thing is that in this full moon phase, you learn to strike a balance between work and pleasure. Therefore, you lean in neither direction. Your desire to achieve and face fresh challenges could lead to interaction with foreigners, technocrats, intellectuals. So it seems that your hectic socializing could be a combination of business and pleasure this week. You're ready to enjoy both almost equally. Perhaps those secret deals you were busy with last week will materialize in this phase.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

OCTOBER/NOVEMBER

Leo loves the new and extraordinary, they despise dull, regular routines and if this is what they are faced with, they will simply create their own drama and excitement.

This makes Leo prone to stir up a situation out of nowhere just for something to keep their vivacious temperament satisfied.

October 20, 2008 to October 26, 2008

Just two words are required to sum up this week – better prospects. Within the ambit of these come two things; firstly a soaring career path or graph, which will remain upwardly inclined for the rest of the year, and secondly, overall improvement/renovation/addition to the house and home. Thus work and family are now equally highlighted. You will be deeply involved in home and family commitments and responsibilities, particularly with regard to older people.

October 27, 2008 to November 2, 2008

A smooth and satisfying week. You are contented with life and hope that the good times will continue. You tackle work, romance and family bonds with enthusiasm, energy and, I hope, gratitude. There is no room for doubts of any kind in your mind space. You work and interact with loved ones with single minded devotion.

November 3, 2008 to November 9, 2008

You assign yourself some definite goals. A personal and family life that is productive as well as meaningful and satisfying, and good family bonding are your own priorities. Achievement and gain are foretold, so perhaps you're managing will in both spheres. What makes you cope is that you are in better health and have far more energy. Personal relationships flower and blossom, and you're prepared to give a lot of yourself to them. With this self-confidence, you're ready to take on all-comers.

November 10, 2008 to November 16, 2008

It is a time when the larger design, the cosmic pattern of life, dawns clearly on you — in terms of career, family, love and spirituality. You're content that you know where you're headed in all of these. Doubts and questions melt away and both work and home life blossom as a result. Your own priorities are now apparent to you. It makes you satisfied, content, loving and warm.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER

To remain healthy, it is vital that the diet of those who fall within the jurisdiction of Leo be uniform, wholesome, sustaining and carefully watched.

Above all, they should guard against over-exertion and excitement.

November 17, 2008 to November 23, 2008

This is definitely your time in the sun. A delicious week in which you enjoy yourself at play, at work, at love. There's really nothing to add to it, but the icing on the cake is that it's good time financially, also for buying/selling and acquisitions for the home. In the quarter of your own birth sign, you are relaxed, carefree and joyous. This leads to not only closer family ties, but a certain kind of bonding. Add to this already-wonderful mixture, a large amount of romance and gaiety and you'll know why I called this week delicious!

November 24, 2008 to November 30, 2008

Plenitude as well as plenty is what you're getting. It has truly been a dream run over the past few weeks, and this one, too, it brings you lots of entertainment and hospitality. Close bonding or romance, as well as group activity keep you busy. You could get sucked into the middle of a conflict or controversy; perhaps you yourself will be the target of some acrimony or harsh words. Avoid confrontations and taking sides you don't need to get involved, at all. A dream wish could be fulfilled from now till the end of the year. Definitely, it is a strong indication. It may even happen in January.

December 1, 2008 to December 7, 2008

The realization of hopes and dreams — a wish-fulfillment of no small dimensions — seems likely. Please note: the work is likely. Anyhow now, here the catch is that there is the very real danger of throwing it all away; if you don't keep your relationships good, avoid inciting those you love, or be too wrapped up in your own self and your vision of the future to think about others. Sudden gains are foretold, even in terms of additions to the family — but equally possible is the sudden loss of a loved one (who might move away) or of money. All the things you have been striving to achieve suddenly seem to be within easier reach.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

DECEMBER

If the Leo child shows a particular interest in any hobby or pastime, it is almost assured that this will be an interest to last for many years, if not an entire lifetime.

December 8, 2008 to December 14, 2008

In this phase once again you are at work with almost the same degree of determination, and pushing with all you've got. When the work will be related to, however, is vastly different. Perhaps you have heeded my warning of last week. Perhaps you have worked it out for yourself. Leos are not lacking in ingenuity and positive thinking. Now you reap the benefits — greater job satisfaction, good financial gains, and greater closeness and warmth with those you love. Perhaps the greatest gain of all is the respect popularity that you get from others. And don't you love it!

December 15, 2008 to December 21, 2008

You realize as the year concludes that you have much to thank god for. And you decide to show your appreciation and gratitude in suitable ways. The ways you choose could be buying/selling, financial deals that bring security to the family scene, greater inputs at work. You don't stint on effort and commitment, but expect the same from others, too. If they don't come up to your expectations, be gentle and tolerant rather than critical or demanding. The time assures you that more will be achieved that way. You're loved and liked, as I've said just above. In addition, you are aware of your own shortcomings. It's wonderful to be loved despite them, so you're approaching 2009 with truly much to be happy about!

December 22, 2008 to December 31, 2008

You're intensely involved — in terms of property and family matters, your position and standing in the family, with relatives and even perhaps friends (as they come within the family circle sometimes). What's new is: (a) Your work which may now include matters like taxes, rentals, leases, even hypothecation and collateral; (b) The inner self that I spoke about just above doesn't get pushed into the background though you're busy (with some socializing and perhaps business entertaining also). The self-awareness is firmly rooted and makes you try for perfection in all fields. It's almost an ideal way to be. Family, home, your own sense of worth, all build up. You are ready not only to take life itself head-on, but both willing and eager to do it for others, too. I must add that these others are those whose cause you've made your own. Their welfare, protection, and business concern you strongly. Even expense and other demands that can be made on you are dealt with very generously. In fact, if need be, you're willing to risk your own neck.
