ABOUT ASTROLOGY

Astrology is often defined as the study of the influences of the cosmos on life on earth.

The zodiac is the belt or band of constellations through which the Sun, Moon, and planets transit across the sky.

Astrology is a science related to the heavenly bodies. It is the study of the movements and positions of the sun, moon, planets and stars, and the skill of describing the expected effect that these are believed to have on the character and behavior of humans. Astrology is not at all a fortune telling. It is one of the successfully tested methods for man to learn about who he is, where he came from and where he is going. Astrology reveals CHARACTER and character makes your destiny.

The main uses of astrology are analysis of health and sickness, character psychoanalysis, professional guidance, analysis of children's horoscopes so as to give parents a better idea as to how best to raise their children, and analysis of the compatibilities between people.

Astrology does not show anything but tendencies. A man can dominate his stars by exerting his determination. If a man decides to flow with the wave of life, then the tendencies indicated in the birth chart could be observed in that man. Astrology forewarns and being put on alert, a man is thus in a better position to cope with the struggles of life.

There are three aspects which bring to us the mystic message of the stars - the houses, the signs and the planets. Each house represents a section of life; the signs are divisions of the heavens which by their placement relative to the houses indicate our basic temperament and attitude towards life and the relative motion of the planets through the houses are the messengers of the god which bring to us the opportunities.

About Sun signs

Your sun sign represents the sign of the zodiac that the Sun passed through at the time of your birth. The Sun rules your essential personality, your ego and your willpower. It represents the core of your potential and your distinctiveness as an individual; it is who you are and what you are about.

The beginning and end dates for each of the signs can vary from year to year. Cusp is the border line between two adjacent sun signs. If you were born on a cusp, you may have some qualities of one sign and some from the other sign.

ABOUT THIS BOOK

Destiny refers to a predetermined course of events.

Fate is a power or agency that predetermines and orders the course of events.

Free Will is the ability to select a course of action as a means of fulfilling some desire.

Congratulations on buying a copy of your 2008 horoscopes. These horoscopes are based on sun signs. Your sun sign is determined on the basis of your date of birth.

In astrology, nothing can replace the personal touch of the astrologer because astrology is much more beyond the planets and requires intuition and understanding of the subject.

Life is a journey and the forecasts are given to help you. Use them as a guideline. These horoscopes shall give you an idea of your future in year 2008. A day may be good for one thing and bad for another. Please read the trend in horoscopes carefully as they might indicate opportunities and pitfalls ahead.

There are no absolute guarantees in life. It depends on how you interpret the things. This is a small book and does not contain each and every minute details of the subjects. We've tried to be specific on topic and be general in trends. If we say you'll be busy with your partner, he could be your spouse/colleague/business partner/friend and your pet. Please relate interpret these horoscopes to your way of living.

This book can not be a substitute to a professional astrologer, and you should be seeing one in case you need specific answers to your queries.

All the best in 2008!!

LIBRA

KNOW YOURSELF

Your attitude to sex is warm and positive, even willing to innovate and experiment. If carried too far, it can make you unreliable and unstable and your sincerity and intentions can be considered doubtful. Your partner may feel threatened and jealous.

You, being a Libran, have a characteristic balance in your personality, work and also strive for this equality and harmony in your personal and professional equations. You tend to compare and analyze to make the choice in almost every sort of situation. This also shows that you are apt for giving justice, whatever that might mean to you. These are the symbolic attributes; other than these, you have many other qualities that are not as highlighted.

You are intelligent and your strife and tussle is in the inner direction; you challenge yourself and try to achieve whatever you want, so any intellectual feat is expected more from you than from anyone else. But the balancing and comparing attitude of yours keeps you aloof from Quality Company; you might lose even the few friends you make in due course. You can be quite influential and tactful in your interactions with people but at the same time indecisive and yielding.

You don't possess the power to say 'no' and this may lead to some pretty unnerving and awkward situations for you. You are good too many things and find it difficult to stick to one and do it for a long time. You would prefer a job where you are in contact with people rather than a desk job, and even at that you are quite easygoing and don't want to sweat out. Qualities that make you lucky are charismatic, intellectual, awareness, and evenhanded. Qualities that hinder your success are easygoing, insecure, lazy, and self-centered.

Eminem, Avril Lavigne, Alicia Silverstone, Kate Winslet, Catherine Zeta-Jones; We know them as famous Librans.

2008 FOR LIBRA

As a friend, you are quite detached, though not cold. You are excellent company, can be a good friend but don't like to get too involved. Your advice is well-meaning, balanced and always useful. You have finesse and grace, smoothening all human relationships beautifully.

It is time for you to change the way things look. Your style of work, may be your very area of work, will change as you start looking for greener pastures. You will start taking interest in what happens around you, sometimes bordering on interference, but that is just something you will have to work on. On the domestic front, a move out or redecoration/renovation might be on the cards for you. This trend of changing the ambience is probably a continuation of the trends of previous year.

There will be a considerable addition to your possessions. This may or may not be attributed to the fact that you are starting to master the art of what you do. People look up to you and come to you for advice. Things will start getting sorted out to some extent. But the problem is the returns you get from work – they at times will disappoint you. Your creative interests might as well be satisfied, but the returns will not be very encouraging. But a cheery countenance such as yours will go a long way in fixing things.

The good part is that your skills will be sharpened and that is an excellent investment for the future. By the way, the third quarter of the year will be the best for you to start some new venture as around this time, you will have good health and the confidence required.

So new chances open out for you and a few things set themselves straight almost on their own.

But the beautiful thing is that what keeps your results from coming also improves you and makes you look into yourself in a spiritual way. You will learn the true importance of things that you've always wanted. If not a very good year, this one paves way for a very good life after that.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

As a father, you are generous, kind and easily won over. You are soft in your dealings with your children, who may try take advantage of your weakness.

JANUARY

The universe gives you a spectacular start to the year, which will be the launch-pad to your period of greatness, glory and grandeur. You will achieve miracles. This period will reach the apex or maximum power and effect. Get set to be a lover, a warrior and a winner or perhaps whatever you set your mind on. Therefore, it is your mind you seek to improve, enhancing your intellect through higher study and learning, career goals, and knowledge being pursued quite zealously, even enthusiastically. But the fulcrum around which all this operates and moves is your home — house, property, and family. You seek to improve, alter, redo it to be more suited to your personality, your need for beauty and efficiency.

Also, you take a keen interest in your pets and your children regarding their activities and requirements. Your own creativity, leisure activities see you meeting challenges and demands. Thus, the appeal is to the creative and emotional, both. These areas are where Librans almost always excel. You live up to this astro-tradition. Hence the spectacular start I opened the forecast with.

FEBRUARY

You will seek excitement with a vengeance this month. It's not just progress that is thrilling. You seek to sample life's intoxications, in as much as risks, thrills, perhaps even spills, all pull at you temptingly. Even danger sports like water-rafting, sky-diving may appeal, if you're so inclined. I'm not advising you to go in for them. Perhaps you'll just get your thrills as a spectator, but risks and thrills draw you so much that the time might agree that I could call it the theme. You may do it by changing your profession/job, starting a new venture/enterprise, playing the stock market with daring — that's the financial part.

Emotionally too, you focus on amusing companions, thrilling times together, fun and entertainment rather than deeper commitments. At any rate, you are striving for inner harmony — the basic need for all Librans. This again is a truly felt need and desire, not just fashionable lip-service to spirituality that one sees so frequently these days. You're ready to take on the world, darling Librans but it's still for the sake of your home/family, your own creativity in itself. You want it as concrete proof that you exist, that you live, that you matter to the world.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

As a mother, The Libran puts a premium on politeness in her children. She will go to any lengths of effort and self-denial to give them the best of everything but demands high standards of conduct from them, even occasionally using threats to enforce discipline. Almost always, her bark is worse than her bite.

MARCH

A time to exercise tact, patience, your famous Libran charm and balance. You will be very, very concerned about watching out for yourself, and your individual interests. That too both in your work/profession and in personal relationships. May be it just stems from a desire for inner harmony, but the time tells you to be more willing to attachments and caring, rather than being afraid of getting hurt. There is a lot of give and take ahead, even with enemies/rivals/competitors, so halfheartedness won't serve. Colleagues, dependents, employees/tenants have to be watched out for, cared for; contracts, travel will happen.

All in all, your awesome communication skills, charm, gregariousness need to be out in full force. Right now the name of the game is communication, most definitely a Libran forte. It will help you go out and win! Emotions, thrills and fun are all very well, but the core of seriousness and commitment within you suddenly asserts itself. The leanings towards faith, religion, spiritual practices are stronger, and it's almost an emotional involvement with the almighty. Equally involved are you in larger social issues and welfare, community projects, even global/ environmental concerns. This is not to say that you're totally other-worldly or "spaced out", in current terminology. It only means that you're living life's experiences on a much higher plane, elevating your own mind in the process.

APRIL

A good month, in the sense that work and finances will be smooth and easy (perhaps as a result). Your projects will certainly prosper, perhaps even quite spectacularly. You may well feel that you don't have the time to call your soul your own, in this busy month of April. Spiritual practices and leanings are very much there, in fact, even stronger and more pronounced than before. So I wouldn't be wrong in saying at the outset, like I did, that this will be a good month in more ways than one, obviously.

Let me give you a few more details. Once again, communication but of the intimate, personal kind. At which. I must add, Librans are at their best. Nothing/no one can beat them. You will make the adjustments necessary- to make everything work, whether in personal life, or professional.

Also, the money angle will be more than satisfactory. And this despite your having to reckon with animosity, envy, competition or even legal suits. You will most definitely need to travel, may be even overseas. It could be spiritual travel, too. You certainly have both the inclination and the aptitude. You're also equally aware of the benefits and gains that come from it.

MAY

A very exciting month indeed — in several ways, but predominantly in money and honey! There is love, romantic interactions, passion, sex, or certainly intimacy in personal relationships. It makes sense, after all. The excitement generated by greater cash amount at your disposal, the sadness over leaving friends/loved ones behind, if you're moving, all need a release, a form of solace. Play and leisure, cozy, warm entertaining certainly do that, so does passion.

In any case, you have a true zest for life — to laugh and love is a great thing! And of course, there is better health, without which none of this forecast would make any sense. In short, many wonderful things now come to you. I pre-empted this forecast a bit in the previous month but as I have always said, life is a continuum, and astrology reflects life, after all. Two primary concerns come now — change or shift of locale, even relocation abroad, if not migration, and finances. In the latter, it will be large-scale operations, like, raising capital, joint-finances, dealing with loans, funds. I would say that this is obviously more business oriented than personal since I have already mentioned that personal finances will at least be satisfactory, if not good.

JUNE

Your popularity and success graphs will be soaring. Everywhere you turn, you're greatly in demand. That goes to make anyone feel on top of the world. But at the top, there remains a strong urge to reach out, communicate, be part of it all. What makes this possible? Trade, ties, even more travel. Info-technology will be vital and form a strong factor in your life, even perhaps the main one. You can successfully complete old projects, pending issues. You are careful, considerate, caring about those who depend on you. The good times are still there — entertainment and partying are certain. Friends and new associates stimulate your feelings, arouse your ideas.

Finances are organized with smooth precision; you're both saving and investing. Home pleasures are shared with your mate/spouse, and are combined with the ordinary tasks of running a home; the daily chores become part of the fun! I must explain also that the word Trade, in this forecast will probably be export-import, perhaps in art-ware/handicrafts/artifacts. That's always close to the Libran heart — I mean art, beauty, even music and drama.

To sum up, a month of really marvelous gains. The reason is that you are truly alive to the thoughts, feelings and desires of other people in general, and the ones you love in particular.

JULY

Hard work, once more, is the forecast, but you enjoy it. Or it's perhaps that's what you're doing is enjoyable. This work could focus again on overseas connections and travel, on publicity, trade, and computer software or technology. The scale of operation is not just large, it might be global. Whatever you undertake, you are able to express yourself attractively through work activities. Not surprisingly, you also find time for parents, dependents, older relatives and friends and maintain the warm contact that means so much — to them and to you, too. A freer flow of understanding draws friends and loved ones closer.

In spiritual/religious matter, and in earthly ones, too, your voyage of search, discovery and fulfillment continues. You seek the meaning of religious practice, of faith, of subjecting oneself to the supreme being. At the same time, many earthly concerns have to be coped with, too. You'll have to get cracking in this month. You realize you have a lot to do, and right now you're a very high-profile person. Yet you are gracious and loved. You handle everything with charm, a power of persuasion, even when you're being assertive at work. The money scene remains good; and you are shrewd, active, wise. It ensures that not only do you make the right financial moves for gain, but also that future gains will be constant and steady. This is good thinking.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

You dislike drama, yelling, being ignored, judgmental people/being judged, saying no

AUGUST

Work maintains its momentum, but you cope effortlessly. Your affairs and deals will be seen to come to a satisfying fraction quite smoothly and painlessly. Authorities, bosses, superiors, supervisors see to your welfare and benefit. Perks, rewards, promotions, awards, prestige, recognition of your capabilities are all there. Good times, a touch of romance, all add up to make you feel you just can't go wrong. But you can; easy money, quick bucks may seem attractive but don't be fooled into making rash investments. In fact, avoid getting overexcited, just don't run too much after them. You don't even need to; good things, relationships, even adventure and mystery happen to you through pleasure, fun, the joy of companionship, good times with those you love.

I have frequently noticed that July and August are very good times for Librans even though it's not the birth period of your sign. Relationships are good, and are maintained in fresh surroundings. In fact, deep happiness is shared in moments/scenes of glory. You and friends interact, move together with affection. You fulfill your responsibilities at work and at home and this engenders a deep and abiding sense of satisfaction. This is what we humans strive for, anyway.

SEPTEMBER

Your becalmed mind, your easy ways, and your contented persona make you one happy person, indeed dear Libran reader. Deep, profound benefits accrue to you now. Friendship and fulfillment are both yours, and are replete with shared ideals, thoughts, values. Even new attachments can be made and they'll be made to last! You should still be feeling on top of the world, but while you are not depressed, you certainly crave solitude, even find some things painfully limiting; perhaps you feel restless, wanting to change even the world around.

Once again, healing, meditation, contemplation are more than attractive. You might feel that too main involvements exhaust you (perhaps emotionally, they do — for all of us). The time warns you however not to earn this tendency too far. Strike your famous Libran balance — learn to a) avoid negativity in your approach, b) to expect too much from others. Your need for self-expression is so great. Librans, that it has to be a part of your work and also of your relationships. People always help you towards deep insight. That's just the way you are. You have been thoroughly involved in travel, or are even now in broadened interests which take you far beyond your usual boundaries. Your world view is global, and you have true understanding of the meaning of life itself. It makes you so much fun to be.

OCTOBER

Relationships, ties, bonds. — these are all important for you always, but this month they are the main trend, and your primary concern. You will wear your heart on your sleeve, and also indulge in some mysterious secret, hidden activities. These last mentioned things could apply to your inward self-appraisal. You search for and find, beautiful places (perhaps solitary ones) where you are deeply-refreshed. You go far away, seeking dreamy visions which run parallel to the astute awareness of practicalities and money. In fact, by sharing feelings you help people understand more. All your relationships, activities (even work), play, contacts are extraordinarily intense.

Spirituality and search for life's true values/ meaning is your greatest gain and there is a depth to your feeling, your reactions and the way you interpret and react to all experiences. The joyfulness and zest are back in your life and how! This is not just a mood swing that you are undergoing, though you are introspecting, searching your innermost mind and soul, the super-ego of Freud. But your quest for joy demands it, for it is balance harmony in the mind that, as always, attracts you. It is your birth month, after all. This had to be and so it will continue!

NOVEMBER

Your image in the eyes of others and in your own — is extremely important to you now. You feel that it will have a huge influence on the quality of your life, and on your personal relationships. There is a depth of sensual and emotional sharing which is profoundly satisfying. What is equally satisfying, is the smooth, easy, flow of money. It certainly oils the wheels of life, but don't be caught into an over-spending binge, especially on entertaining and entertainments, both. This too may come out of your initial desire to project yourself better, in the eyes of others. Your charm, completely different new attitude, your caring nature, will more than suffice. It is far better to rely on one's intrinsic qualities of head and heart, you realize.

Now that you've viewed yourself at such close quarters, the desire to improve is strong within you. You want to ensure a smooth flow of things, so that affection, communication and peace develop. Good ideas about self-improvement, home-improvement come to you. Your partnerships (even marital) and family interaction go beautifully. All this adds greatly to the happiness quotient in your life, and to the harmony in it.

DECEMBER

Having realized that money isn't everything, you ironically realize at the same time just how important it is. The year ends, with you dealing with all kinds of money matters, but I've just said it as a kind of run-on from last month's forecast. Let's take a look at the rest of what this month will hold, earning over and beyond into the year ahead. Communication — ever your forte — will still work brilliantly for you.

Those in publicity and communication and related fields will all work spectacularly well. They rake in the benefits and rewards, too, very visibly indeed. Let's now just get back to the financial angle for a moment. Here, astute awareness of money issues/matters/bargains/ options for investment has you making profit yielding moves. Rentals, trade, production for export, joint-funds, even investments will yield very good results, so that the "living is easy" in every sense of the phrase! I know you'll do it with your customary style and panache. You live life with not just a touch of class, but also with a certain flair.

You have the creativity and inspiration to grow tremendously in professional and financial ways! Pleasure and romance also register a major upward swing! You combine family and individuality, profession and leisure, work, and higher callings very smoothly and effectively. It is a fine way to have organized yourself and your life. Therefore, you have every right to feel pleased with the way things are and go confidently into 2009.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JANUARY

You are semi-compatible with Scorpio, Sagittarius, Leo, Pisces, Taurus and Virgo.

January 1, 2008 to January 6, 2008

This beginning phase of 2008 finds you at full strength. The heights that you can achieve are dizzying but you truly have what it takes. As I said, till January-end, it makes you bold, creative, assertive and firm of purpose. You know where you're going and believe me, it's truly going to be a 'brave new world'.

January 7, 2008 to January 13, 2008

You assign yourself fresh goals, priorities, targets. Money will be an important factor. Funds and investments will be looked at seriously and there could be both borrowing and lending. Perhaps on the larger scale. You are able to relax, even rest, now that you feel your priorities are in place. You can even find yourself socializing, gracious and stylish in all you do. The reason behind this, strangely enough, is the spiritual awareness, the intellectual growth you have sought to achieve. However there is a chance that you could try avoiding trouble and confrontations to such an extent that you could be trodden over by others. You could be overdoing it there.

January 14, 2008 to January 20, 2008

You're back to focusing on your earnings and finances. It's the creative fields and hobbies (for others) that make your coffers full. You might also want to do a little gambling on the stock market, but don't go too far. A calculated risk is the thing and wild gambles are something else. There is no such thing as easy money over the long term, so don't attempt short cuts. You are determined to make a success of your life on your own terms, doing the things you like best, and with the style and flair so characteristic of Librans. To this end, you think and weigh up your actions and interactions for maximum impact and yet minimum conflict. In any case, what's paramount for you, as usual I might add, is your home along with the relationships you enjoy both as parent and child. It is for them that you want to earn, to give them a touch of class in their daily lives.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JANUARY

You are with Capricorn,

Aries, and Cancer.

January 21, 2008 to January 27, 2008

You'll have to keep your practical side at the forefront now. It will prove to be vital to rearrange your priorities and thinking, take time off from work-related ideas and inspirations. The reason is that you have to deal with matters related to property. There will be both hard work and the outflow of money. You will need to work hard, and spend long hours trying to work out a problem/dispute which is not of your own making, but which affects you and your family.

January 28, 2008 to February 3, 2008

Once again, you get something you love—interactions with people. Good friends come nearer, through the free flow of understanding and communication, guiding you to benefit from their counsel. Old contacts and associations provide healing. This leads to the peace and harmony within you that you crave, like all true Librans. Truly, it is a blessing that you more than appreciate right now.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

FEBRUARY

Despite being independent Librans want to make other people happy, because they value other people more than they value themselves.

February 4, 2008 to February 10, 2008

A trend which brings both mental relief and positive action starts now. The burdens that seemed almost too heavy for you will suddenly be lightened. And so will the atmosphere — in family and work-related matters, both. There will be good times with friends; social activities that help you revive your flagging morale. What contributes most is the whiff of romance and love, bringing with it gaiety and laughter, certain joyousness to living. You no longer feel so alone, and a positive mindset emerges. You will no longer concentrate so much on home, family, and friends. Finances are your primary focus now. You will need funds/ investment for your own ventures projects or those that you are closely involved with. You have to charm and persuade people who matter to think along the same lines as you do. That is never easy, but charm is your middle name, isn't it, Librans?

February 11, 2008 to February 17, 2008

You are still concentrating on financial issues. Of course, it is never to the exclusion of everything else. That is not the way you do it. Money matters are usually not very important in the overall scheme for Librans. But this quarter is different in that respect. Cash flow, liquid assets, even property' and joint-funds will have to be handled and handled well. That will be necessary to fund your own ventures — perhaps you're working from home, but you still need to invest a little. Communication brings you far clearer awareness of practical planning. You will learn to overcome restrictions with skill using the tools of charm and persuasion. You have always known and realized that this way/method gets better results than confrontations, face-offs, show- downs. These last you are temperamentally unsuited for, and avoid at all times.

February 18, 2008 to February 24, 2008

Financially, you're at greater ease and are more able to concentrate on your more creative side. Monetarily speaking, you will find that the flow is easier; at least you will be able to cope more comfortably. Loans and funds will materialize now. With this load off your mind, you can focus on two aspects that you consider much more important (1) Your own talents and creativity at work, which is not just a job for you; (2) Social concerns and issues and wider, even global, causes are very close to your heart. Your health could pose some problems, so adequate care will be essential if you want to be productive and creativity at what you do. You gain in terms of both inspiration and achievement.

You're networking and reaching out on a global scale, truly. This is an ideal time for establishing contacts, communicating, from tête-à-têtes, phone calls to faxes and e-mail-voice/mail from distant corners of the world. There is a global dimension there as well, to the activities that attract and interest you. Let me explain this a bit. Travel and business will necessitate organizing your space, time and energy. But you will derive pleasure from both. What gives you greater pleasure though, is that your personal voyage of search, discovery and fulfillment continues. Your concerns are the world order, a philosophy for the new century, a cosmic sense of man and the universe. Hence, the global dimensions.

March 3, 2008 to March 9, 2008

You learn to search for that spark of divinity that lies within us all. For you, this process will carry on like an undercurrent that is strong and deep, not visible on the surface of the river of life. It is this that gives you the strength to cope. Your worries had not gone away, there were just less burdensome last week. There're back now and have you not just working, but really slogging almost all the hours to cope. The areas will be homes, domestic affairs and even-rising finances. Beautiful partnership will energize you, help you toward deep insights. These, of course, stem from a growing spirituality within you.

March 10, 2008 to March 16, 2008

Another demanding week full of hectic activity comes to you. Stay with routines. On the one hand there will be hassles and worries, and on the other, fulfillment of wishes/ambitions and dreams coming true. On the other, will involve more social interaction coupled with tremendous work activity, and personally, dealing with love and hate in almost equal measure, in your relationships.

A high-powered and high intensity phase for love and money. Additionally, trade and travel, also may be exploring/buying/selling overseas. There could be legalities to look at, especially in the area of tie-ups, collaborations or joint-ventures. But the stress is definitely on the glow and glamor in money matters, and matter of love. There is scintillating excitement and intensity in the latter. It reflects on your life, your interactions, and your total persona. Heightened activity is usual with the full moon in your sun sign. All activities are, of course, suddenly charged with the energy and glamor but the two most important for you this week will be money and love.

March 24, 2008 to March 30, 2008

The demands on you will continue. There could be a mute anxiety about your parents or older relatives in terms of health or accident, but you will cope. You should be careful to avoid harshness in both attitude and language in relationships – personal, family or professional. This is payoff time for your, your concentrated efforts and sheer slogging hard work now yield the dividends you envisaged. Money flows much more easily, so that should relieve some of your stress.

March 31, 2008 to April 6, 2008

Professional and personal recognition, ease, success come to you now. Probably as a result of last week's soul searching. Work at being flexible and adaptable both at home and at work and you gain in credibility, popularity, authority. Creative pursuits — cinema, television, the performing arts, hobbies, even speculation — may all yield excellent results as you approach things in a more open frame of mind, leading to greater ingenuity as well as better, brighter ideas. It also brings a new focus on bonds and ties of love — be it for romantic alliances, with your friends or your children. You are more concerned now with what you are putting into the relationship than what it gives. Do avoid both shirking your own responsibilities and passing the buck to others, and also pursuing the wrong career aims, so that there is no room for hurt, acrimony, accusations.

April 7, 2008 to April 13, 2008

You'll have a huge amount to cope with the now. It is not a time to let others upset your personal equilibrium. A balanced approach will be vital, in your best bet right now. It is a strange trend from this phase, because although much is given to you, so also is a sense of inner turmoil which may develop. Not that this will be without reason. The reason is that your own progress is very favorable: in fact, nothing can stop that. You will have to remain calm and play your cards close to your chest, as there may be some betrayal, even creating enemies at work, or in relationships, who will not stop at anything to drag you down. If you found the last few weeks demanding, they'll seem like a cake-walk now.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

APRIL

Many Libra natives are prone to avoid physical activity, often coupled with an addiction to luxuries and creature comforts.

April 14, 2008 to April 20, 2008

Matters you've pushed to the back-burner will now need to be dealt with. The house/home, family and property will all need to be carefully handled. The range is from renovation/extension/construction and building, to family disputes. The major gain this week is that you realize you can help disperse the confusion by your intuition and insight. You are able to understand family disputes/disagreements and prevent them from getting worse. You will initiate, and see through to the end, the subtle adjustments that are necessary. The working together of the family will be a pleasing concept to you and those you care for you realize that it is the way to get the results you desire. Domestic matters have been somewhat burdensome, or demanding at the very least, for some time now. Once again, they are in strong focus all through the week. Dealing with them properly will definitely reduce your own stress-levels and make you happier.

April 21, 2008 to April 27, 2008

It's 'money and honey' time once again. Let's first have a look at matters pertaining to finance. Capital raising, loans, perhaps legacies/inheritance, insurance and documents, even acquisitions and investments. In short, I would say more money. It could even be that you change to a better job, with a healthier pay packet and perks. Love too, is back in a big way in your life and this phase favors the passion, the physical closeness and union that comes from what might be called almost a fatal attraction. It's as if love is pursuing you and does not cease.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

MAY

Librans will not allow themselves to become embroiled with things or people which are distasteful, because they have an enormous sense of elegance and morality.

April 28, 2008 to May 4, 2008

You have virtually perfected certain coping strategies. Now, you'll need to put them into practice. And how! There will be responsibility and burdens. These could well pertain to the anxiety you have regarding an elderly relative. But you get to work with determination and find the time to cope with the demands of family, health-concerns, job-requirements and your own intensely personal relationships. It's a lot to handle, but you do it with the poise and charm which is a Libran trademark! You have this great asset which you put to full use now. It certainly defuses potential conflict situations. Along with the happiness and pleasure you're been experiencing, and which will continue in this phase, too, there is much hard work and you don't want to let it all go waste.

May 5, 2008 to May 11, 2008

Your troubles and worries are definitely decreasing, if not disappearing altogether. The money situation eases much further and luckily, this trend will prevail through the lunar month. The glamor I have always mentioned in connection with your sun sign is back in your life — in the numerous occasions you get to display them! I mean a fair amount of socializing and entertaining. The money, to return to what I said, may come once again from buying/selling or from contracts and commissions, even dealerships. There could be documents signed, leases and MOUs to deal with. You're busy indeed, but you enjoy it — both the financial security and the social interactions.

May 12, 2008 to May 18, 2008

Both your professional life and social/family interactions become even smoother now. Further prospects are good, so there is much less worry, and also, much better health. It helps you to be much more relaxed, tolerant, and easy-going in your attitude. This is actually what goes largely to add to your interactions in the parent/child relationship, where there is great closeness, bonding and joy. Your professional life is also productive and there is smooth sailing regarding future projects. The arts are always attractive to Librans — art, theatre/ dramatics, music and the cinema are all favored. You are now definitely on the fast track to better times. You have the time and the means to not only pursue your special interests and hobbies, but also to be part of a glittering social circle — where you shine.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

MAY

Among the faults, which are typically Libran are easily confused and con-founded by the arguments of others, and who seem panic-stricken when lost in a crowd or compelled to cross busy streets. They are usually careless of their belongings, and are apt to drop and lose things.

May 19, 2008 to May 25, 2008

This is the second full moon phase in the same sign, but four weeks have elapsed. The theme remains the same as for the April 20 quarter, but there are differences. It's money and honey again, as well as the same passion and intensity in both. You do not, however, neglect your other concerns. You have a lot of energy to put into household matters, rescheduling and rearrangement will probably be necessitated by the healthcare required by older people such as parents, in-laws, relatives. You consciously undertake these, and do not sideline them. In handling them you will be gracious and restrained, avoiding potential conflict situations with charm and good humor. Satisfaction and stimulation are yours.

May 26, 2008 to June 1, 2008

A time of pleasure and fulfillment of a different sort. What is important are leisure-times shared with family and children, closeness with loved ones, and time for your own hobbies and interests. And Librans are known to be interested in many things: art, cinema, info-technology, also most frequently, communications and PR. While on the theme of relations, I MUST mention love which is deep-rooted, enduring and committed and happening now! That's not the only comfort factor for you, though. The money situation has been easing continuously, so you can afford to indulge a little more than before in things that give you pleasure. It could be just a shopping-spree or your own inclinations and interests, which you can pursue more whole heartedly!

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JUNE

Libra strengths are diplomatic, graceful, peaceful, idealistic, and hospitable.

June 2, 2008 to June 8, 2008

Librans are happy with people, as a rule. They know how to please and charm others, not flatter but are genuinely concerned/interested. All human beings and animals know when they're liked and respond in kind. So it's a happy circle that you're part of and this is a monthly trend. Now that other things are going more smoothly, you have the time and leisure to concentrate on relationships — all levels of communication, all degrees of love and affection. Your spouse/lover, your family, your children, your friends, even your colleagues and co-workers, all respond beautifully.

June 9, 2008 to June 15, 2008

Productivity and progress at work will characterize this week. Anything to do with the media (electronic, most certainly), communication, job-efficiency, even the starting up of a new venture which will be related to all this activity. Perhaps you may go in for a revamping/reorganizing of systems, procedures, techniques to make them more effective. You will be the person with the bright ideas now because you're able to concentrate better on work concerns. Now that relationships are smooth, you get back-to work with a vengeance. I'm not saying that this is a strategy you've planned. You just work better when there's harmony and accord around you. You can concentrate better on the many activities that are clamoring for your attention, as I've mentioned above.

June 16, 2008 to June 22, 2008

You generate and respond to new ideas, but are equally receptive to new innovations and ideas coming from others. New styles, new techniques, methods and inventions will draw you to closer study and research. They may also inspire and move you to greater inventiveness in your own field of specialization. If nothing else, they will give you a certain novelty in your approach. You may be a part of group activities, or be attending conferences, seminars, even committees where there is the free flow of new ideas, new thinking, and new research. Your perspective will be much wider, and so will your horizons. Progress, achievements, tremendously impressive results will be the result.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JUNE/JULY

Libra
weaknesses are Superficial,
Vain,
indecisive,
and unreliable.

June 23, 2008 to June 29, 2008

A totally different side of your personality manifests itself in this phase. You are building up for a total change in your outlook. While you are still in the world, you are not of it. Solitary places, quiet introspection, even a kind of restlessness, a desire to change things around in your personal life are all possible developments. However, your desire, though almost cosmic, will have its own manifestations in work and finances. You don't neglect either, despite your preoccupations. In the practical sphere, trade, export-import, even collaborations abroad will prove lucrative and profitable. Let's keep this short since you yourself already have more than adequate awareness. There are no fireworks, no dazzle, but just a warm glow that makes for more enduring ties. The time sums it all up in just one word — accord. Beautiful harmony prevails.

June 30, 2008 to July 6, 2008

From harmony, there develops a calm mind in search of wisdom, peace, knowledge. You have introspected and thought a lot of things through. The ties that you already have, i.e., home and family, gain in importance and strength. In addition, you seek the wisdom and counsel of older, more mature people, who have the insight to guide you from mere knowledge to true wisdom. It is this kind of wisdom, a sense of cosmic understanding that you will seek now, unobtrusively, through the lunar month at least, if not far beyond.

July 7, 2008 to July 13, 2008

Your desire for harmony and peace is fulfilled. In your own sun sign, what could the lord grant but a fine balance between work and pleasure, home and work. There could be a new development in terms of partnerships, collaborations, even a legal document pertaining to these. You will experience a sense of deep satisfaction in both the work and family spheres. There is pleasure, too, in your interactions often personal, even intimate nature. Someone close attracts you, stimulates you, and gives you the joy and security you wish for.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JULY

Each sign has a part of the anatomy attached to it, making this the area of the body that is most sensitive to stimulation. The anatomical areas for Libra are the kidneys and skin.

July 14, 2008 to July 20, 2008

There is joy and enjoyment in all that you do, be it ever so humble and lowly. Even the most ordinary tasks give you satisfaction. You have the growing realization within you of what you want from life. What goes for true achievement and success for you is clear in your mind. You have to go out to get it, just like the more material aspects of life. I am now speaking, as you have guessed, of the ties that bind you to your home, loved ones and family. They are the reason and the motivating factor for all your work. It is getting the most out of life, in terms of fun and laughter, shared time together, a certain intimacy with those you care for.

July 21, 2008 to July 27, 2008

Your persona, charm, style will prove to be very major aspects — and take you far. You are very much in the public eye; the spotlight is on you in many ways. You use your considerable charm, PR skills and honeyed words where others would have pushed, in order to get the desired results. Your PR skills and handling of potential conflict situations will be truly exemplary. There could be a certain amount of travel — more work-related than for pleasure. In spite of so many pulls in different directions, you give a good account of yourself. The reason is the co-operation you get, particularly from close friends and like-minded people who are not so close. The other reason is the grace of the lord without which nothing is really possible ever. Anyway, a fresh realization also comes to you. Home and family matters are still major concerns despite the brouhaha. So also are love and friendship, the joys of good companionship.

July 28, 2008 to August 3, 2008

You are more relaxed and responsive to others, and there is mutual gain to you. This phase teaches you, brings home in a fresh new way, the joys and methods of getting the most out of life, of using time and resources to your best advantage, and in turn, giving the best of yourself. In this week, you concentrate on people — family, loved ones, parents, children, colleagues — and try to interact sincerely and sympathetically with them, so that there is gain in both absolute money terms and emotionally.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

AUGUST

The best gift for a Libran is something artistic, tasteful, and of fine quality.

August 4, 2008 to August 10, 2008

Your capacity to earn is very closely linked to how you relate to people. It is even more pronounced in this new moon phase and will definitely be a trend for the month. Communicating in all possible ways, using and creating the media necessary, are a springboard to greater creativity in your work. Even your own web page/site — to reach out to people. The theme/main idea is the desire to do so. Whatever means you use, you will realize that you need the people you interact with to stimulate and energize you particularly where creative efforts are concerned. You also need them to support you, both emotionally and financially, in terms of advancement. Good ideas and productive schemes come to you as a result. And it's not all work-related. You also reach out to the special people in your life, those with whom you share love and intimacy.

August 11, 2008 to August 17, 2008

A joyful, happy week comes to you now. There is lightness in your mind and spirit, a shedding of cares and woes. You no longer seek solitude and quiet, but enjoy having people around you. Not just people, love and romance, happy times and laughter with one special person! Interpersonal relationships — ever the forte of the charming, friendly Libran — make for pleasant times, stimulating conversations, socializing, wining and dining. You are willing and happy to enter into the spirit of things.

August 18, 2008 to August 24, 2008

This is a phase when it is definitely you at whom the buck stops! If you have felt that were not getting the rewards/recognition you deserve at the workplace, you now take this as an opportunity to show your mettle. You have the right attitude and the right values you've slowly been arriving at. It can lead to both personal joy and a sense of professional achievement. You take up the challenge! And you certainly don't do it by halves. You go all out — and win spectacularly. There will be a sudden increase on the demands on you. Expenses will be mind-boggling and even as you wrestle to sort them out and meet them, there may be added responsibility and answerability.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER

Libras have mastered the art of relationships, not just romantic but business, personal, and family relationships just to name a few. No one is able to see another person's point of view better than a Libra.

August 25, 2008 to August 31, 2008

This week gives definite proof of how well you answer challenges, and demands. You prove yourself anew. The right to fresh skills, originality in thought and techniques and in new ventures will be strongly asserted, and taken by you. You will chase after that which is unknown, esoteric, and mysterious and try to know it. What time counsels is that you strive to achieve without clashes of personality, or showdowns, where hurt can be inflicted and received. Your children will seem to echo your own brilliance in this week as well. Inspiration, innovation, a new approach are all flowing. You are full of creativity and fresh new ideas. You are not only performing well, but also asserting yourself in terms of your due recognition.

September 1, 2008 to September 7, 2008

My pet phrase "Hard work, matching rewards" actually sums up everything I need to say in this forecast. However, here are the main features. The foundations you lay now (and work pretty hard at doing so, I might add) will lead to not only a huge improvement in your financial standing, but a rise in social status, fame and recognition (if that is what you want) and most importantly, a vast improvement in domestic harmony and bliss. The time will not hand it to you on a platter. You have to work for it, and you're more than willing to do so. I'm talking about the sudden charge of energy, faith and confidence that you will get in this phase, and lunar month. You will have the insight and talent to plan new ventures and financial projects with care and deep thought, weighing up the pros and cons.

September 8, 2008 to September 14, 2008

An almost complete somersault comes this week, which is so demanding and fraught that you may just not want to read this forecast. Where has the joy/gladness gone? You may well ask, as all at once tensions and worries beset you. Public interaction, conference, ceremonies add to your already heavy workload. In addition, there are demands on your time on the house/home front that you can't put off. Renovation/repairs and extension/even additions have to be undertaken. The days may just not seem to be long enough, but time will guide you through them.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

SEPTEMBER

You are romantic to the extent of indulging in promiscuity .

In marriage, however, you are successful because you look for a union of the minds.

September 15, 2008 to September 21, 2008

Another swing of the pendulum comes now. There is great gain in terms of spiritual inclinations, religion, meditation, prayer. This gives you such inner strength that you can create greater harmony both at the workplace and at home. You are naturally able to be more efficient as well as more effective, and achieve much. You also have the time, desire and willingness to help those who need it: those who are beset by sorrow, want, ill-health. And you do it all with grace.

September 22, 2008 to September 28, 2008

The almighty does not grant you instant success, but he gives you hope that it will soon come to pass. And while you work towards the goals you've set yourself, you are happy and smiling, enjoying the journey and not just getting to your destination. You've had your share of troubles, demands and worries. In handling them, you continue to show grace under pressure, as a result of your own spiritual growth and intellectual advancement. It has made you caring, tolerant, and even tender-hearted in your attitude to people in general and to your loved ones and immediate circle in particular. All this is reflected in your dealings with people, as well as in the sincerity and determination you show at work.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

OCTOBER

You are good at resolving conflicts by compromising, sometimes settling at your own disadvantage.

However, once you make up your mind you stick to your opinions.

September 29, 2008 to October 5, 2008

Ceremonies, parties, family gatherings are all occasions for happiness, shared laughter and enjoyment. Your own hopes and dreams will seem to be becoming realities. Family ties are strong and secure, love is warm and stimulating and you're wanted everywhere. Minor conflicts may arise, but your popularity is such that you don't lose your temper and iron out issues before there can be any bitterness. You're not going to let that happen. Finally, with the new moon in your own sun sign, you've reached your destination. And remember, the good thing is that this is a monthly trend.

October 6, 2008 to October 12, 2008

Nothing succeeds like success is your new mantra now. You make intense efforts to make it so. Your determination and confidence is unabated and so too is your energy. Work, play, and above all, love are handled with an intensity that makes you feel wonderful. You are a confident, ebullient person. You will meet deadlines; go beyond the targets set, complete assignments well in time. You feel good about it all, and so do the others around you. They are not stingy with their praise either and you bask in it!

October 13, 2008 to October 19, 2008

Success and achievements have come to you, through your confidence and creativity. This makes for a marvelous burst of optimism, renewed confidence and energy. Can achievements be far behind? But you are grateful, even humble in them. You are back at plans for the future once again, but with a difference. It is a time when you seek to evaluate yourself as objectively as you can. Your philosophy, your outlook, your total personality will be put under a microscope, so to speak. You realize that not only is your own self-image closer to what you'd like to be, but also the way others see you.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

OCTOBER

October 20, 2008 to October 26, 2008

Improvement in every sphere is what you'll target now. You will not only undertake a total overhaul of your income and finances, but also of your total lifestyle. This leads to acquisitions, gadgets, luxuries for the home, even good art and music to create the ambience you desire. You will thrive on the hard work you know is necessary to achieve the quality of life you desire. In fact, you grudge no effort, spare no pains to make this vision of yours a reality.

October 27, 2008 to November 2, 2008

A phase in which your higher self gets activated. The supernatural, the metaphysical, the mysteries of life, and of death, the deeper values that make everything worthwhile, will concern and possess you. In fact, you will be seized by them totally. You still have to live on this earth though, so you cannot ignore money matters. Joint-funds, capital, loans, trade and investments are equally important. So you realize that you need capital in this world in order to survive or even think of a spiritual life and make sincere efforts in that direction as well — and the efforts bear fruit. It makes you turn your eyes to the heavens, and not just in thankfulness to the time, though that has to be there, but for further guidance and inspiration.

Libras dislike hard work, they are lazy when it comes to getting their hands dirty and doing the work themselves. Fortunately, their intuitive instincts are good at telling them where money can come from.

Libras make good business partners but not good business people on their own.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

NOVEMBER

Librans like food, but there are more interesting things to do than eat the stuff, like checking who's coming in and going.

November 3, 2008 to November 9, 2008

You make sustained and successful efforts to maintain all your gains — material as well as those of the mind and heart. You carry on with love, tenderness, romantic interludes, strong family bonding and much better health. These are your strength, your armor against "the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune". You are comfortably in a position (mentally and financially, both) to deal with domestic matters, funds, finances. The 'high' phase continues and it is as if nothing could possibly go wrong. Your rational mind tells you that of course it will. That's what life is all about — ups and downs. But your mind is made up in that you don't let the downside affect you.

November 10, 2008 to November 16, 2008

How much of a success you are in this world is directly related to how well you handle a) people and b) finances — this realization/ inspires most of your actions now. You elicit cooperation and can deal with tact and persuasiveness with the petty conflicts that arise. Some conflicts are always there in life, but your charm make it seem to be very smooth sailing indeed. There is success and accomplishment, achievement and improvement in terms of finance now. Additional means, taxes, rentals, family funds need careful handling and wise investment. Your family will be supportive, as committed to future benefits as you are.

November 17, 2008 to November 23, 2008

Once again, it will be a people-centric phase. Relationships will be full of warmth, sharing, and mutual give-and-take. Isn't this what oils the wheels? A marriage ceremony could be about to happen, even your own if you're single, or of someone you're close to. Acquisitions will be important — perhaps in this connection. Sports, exercise, and greater bonding with your children, if you have them. There is pleasure in both physical and mental activities. That just about says it all, about this week.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER

There is a tendency to over-indulge in food and wine, resulting in kidney ailments and bladder problems.

Thus, Libra individuals should drink plenty of water to flush the toxins from their systems.

November 24, 2008 to November 30, 2008

The symbol of this phase is the archer, and thus you find that what it gives you is a focus, a definite sense of direction which will carry you through well into the year to come. You aim at your year to come. You aim at your goals, realistically and diligently, so the arrow has to hit its target. You have achieved most of what you planned for, in terms of family, society, financial status. You now realize the necessity of planning for the future. You wish to carry on, rather than slacken, though you are content, and justifiably so, with what you have achieved. It's just that you want to earn on with both striving and achieving.

December 1, 2008 to December 7, 2008

A somewhat mystically inclined yet confused phase comes as a direct contrast to last week. You want what you feel you cannot have and look for ways and means, even short cuts. Faith and belief in the Lord are the true miracle workers. Do read on to see why. Despite all your achievements and your prestige in the world you inhabit, there is a kind of searching, a restlessness within you. This is also in spite of your relationships at the personal and professional levels. But you are drawn to, in fact, fascinated by the occult, the powers of tantra, the hidden meaning of mantras and religious practices. You will have to watch your step there, or you may be sucked into a quicksand that there is no getting out of.

December 8, 2008 to December 14, 2008

You turn back to people rather than the occult for guidance, inspiration, even moral support, perhaps. Relationships are, therefore, important for you once again. Contacts will be built up, not for business/professional reasons, but because you enjoy them. People are important to you (and always) and specially your family and children, good friends, sympathetic companions. You need warm, human contact to bring out the best in you. You are by no means loners, though you can enjoy solitude. What it must have is creative pursuits to make it joyous and fulfilling. Therefore, the arts, the media, theater, publishing, even crafts, design and architecture are all favored, as well as favorite Libran pursuits. You enjoy them.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

DECEMBER

Libras have excellent instincts and intuition, most of the time they do not trust them enough.

Libras are likely to be underachievers due to the easygoing attitude.

December 15, 2008 to December 21, 2008

Renewed focus, vision and energy all come to you as 2009 is approaching — and gains too. You are full of the determination and energy that is necessary for hard work and matching rewards. You're full of ideas, achievements, and vigor. Earlier in the month, you were in a kind of withdrawal/denial and in the mood to ponder eternal questions. The conclusions you have derived are that it is the bonds of love, matrimony, family, kin, home and hearth which are paramount for your strength and your solace, both. In fact, it's a phenomenally successful time, work-wise. But the really wonderful thing is that you don't neglect your personal life.

December 22, 2008 to December 31, 2008

You've gained much, hopefully learned even more, and above all, the future seems poised to get better. For the details, travel may happen this week itself or in the near future; you may also have a sudden gain, a windfall, be lucky at games of chance. There will be plenty of activity in the fields of both professional and social life, but it will also raise your hopes for the year to come. Love finds a place in your life (and heart, of course), family ties are strong and enduring. You will be in the limelight or the public eye in the right way. All matters are important to you, and you handle them as such. You are concerned with money matters, too, both domestic funds and for work. You are worried and more inclined to play safe.
