ABOUT ASTROLOGY

Astrology is often defined as the study of the influences of the cosmos on life on earth.

The zodiac is the belt or band of constellations through which the Sun, Moon, and planets transit across the sky.

Astrology is a science related to the heavenly bodies. It is the study of the movements and positions of the sun, moon, planets and stars, and the skill of describing the expected effect that these are believed to have on the character and behavior of humans. Astrology is not at all a fortune telling. It is one of the successfully tested methods for man to learn about who he is, where he came from and where he is going. Astrology reveals CHARACTER and character makes your destiny.

The main uses of astrology are analysis of health and sickness, character psychoanalysis, professional guidance, analysis of children's horoscopes so as to give parents a better idea as to how best to raise their children, and analysis of the compatibilities between people.

Astrology does not show anything but tendencies. A man can dominate his stars by exerting his determination. If a man decides to flow with the wave of life, then the tendencies indicated in the birth chart could be observed in that man. Astrology forewarns and being put on alert, a man is thus in a better position to cope with the struggles of life.

There are three aspects which bring to us the mystic message of the stars - the houses, the signs and the planets. Each house represents a section of life; the signs are divisions of the heavens which by their placement relative to the houses indicate our basic temperament and attitude towards life and the relative motion of the planets through the houses are the messengers of the god which bring to us the opportunities.

About Sun signs

Your sun sign represents the sign of the zodiac that the Sun passed through at the time of your birth. The Sun rules your essential personality, your ego and your willpower. It represents the core of your potential and your distinctiveness as an individual; it is who you are and what you are about.

The beginning and end dates for each of the signs can vary from year to year. Cusp is the border line between two adjacent sun signs. If you were born on a cusp, you may have some qualities of one sign and some from the other sign.

ABOUT THIS BOOK

Destiny refers to a predetermined course of events.

Fate is a power or agency that predetermines and orders the course of events.

Free Will is the ability to select a course of action as a means of fulfilling some desire.

Congratulations on buying a copy of your 2008 horoscopes. These horoscopes are based on sun signs. Your sun sign is determined on the basis of your date of birth.

In astrology, nothing can replace the personal touch of the astrologer because astrology is much more beyond the planets and requires intuition and understanding of the subject.

Life is a journey and the forecasts are given to help you. Use them as a guideline. These horoscopes shall give you an idea of your future in year 2008. A day may be good for one thing and bad for another. Please read the trend in horoscopes carefully as they might indicate opportunities and pitfalls ahead.

There are no absolute guarantees in life. It depends on how you interpret the things. This is a small book and does not contain each and every minute details of the subjects. We've tried to be specific on topic and be general in trends. If we say you'll be busy with your partner, he could be your spouse/colleague/business partner/friend and your pet. Please relate interpret these horoscopes to your way of living.

This book can not be a substitute to a professional astrologer, and you should be seeing one in case you need specific answers to your queries.

All the best in 2008!!

PISCES

KNOW YOURSELF

You are not really meant for marriage, and often a Piscean may end up with the wrong partner.

You need a mate who can fulfill your craving for sympathy and understanding and still be tough with you in a very gentle and persuasive way.

Pisceans have a tendency to get pulled in two opposite directions. This inhibits their decision taking capability. They are quite open-minded towards their work and personal life, and demonstrate an immaculate insight and vision in material, technical and spiritual aspects.

You have a particular artistic sophistication, which means that you have creativity with a polished edge. Your special characteristic is your love for beautiful things in life, and also a particular day-dreaming and inconsistent trait. You are too soft hearted and willingly help anyone in distress; this might also lead to problems to you because of your inability to say 'no'.

Even with the introspective and intuitive edge, you are moody and restless at times. Some depressions and dissatisfactions might lead you to pity yourself and escape from the distresses in life through drug addiction or drinking.

You have a great inner strength, you only need to exhume it. You share your resources with others, even money, and think that others should do the same. The boundaries of possession are sometimes invisible or altogether meaningless to Pisceans, thus turning some into forgers and embezzlers.

Qualities that make you lucky are caring, progressive, benevolent, and imaginative. Qualities that hinder your success are undecided, casual, not practical, and easygoing.

2008 FOR PISCES

As a friend, you are a humane, understanding person with intuition, and helpful in a unassuming way. Your friendship may have an ethereal quality, but you are a good friend nevertheless and your advice is worth taking. You should not be too idealistic but accept people as they are – don't expect too much from them.

You will be following your dreams and aspirations with all the vigor, whether they relate to money, contracts and other office matters or issues relating to your spouse, children or parents. Education and learning have a strong possibility, and your ability will shine out for the world to see. There is a certain amount of wish fulfillment which generally means gains in dealings or promotions in the hierarchy of the organization you work for.

Creativity is on the high for you, as is the tendency to party and make new friendships. The latter also has an element of romance or a possible engagement or marriage.

You will come up with new ideas for dealing with your challenges. Dealings and transactions will work out smoothly and effortlessly for you, as you score one over your competitors. Income will come for you from more than one source.

Your friends and family will just make your personal life so much richer and more fulfilling; just guard yourself from offending them and being intolerant. Oddly enough, goody-goody deeds and charity are just as probable as capricious and wasteful spending. On a totally different note, connections and deals and other financial matters will take most of your energies as you put up with the stiff competition of your rivals. You obviously run the risk of overworking and spoiling your health.

The trend of involving yourself in welfare and religious or meditative activities is also strong. This might bring about a true spiritual experience or a radical change in your outlook or personality. So amusement and wish fulfillment come to you in equal measure this year. But there is also the unfortunate possibility of separation and associated legal hassles, almost just as much as that of intimacy – this is the unpredictability of life that no one can surpass.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

As a father, you are gentle and caring and likely to be moody rather than angry when your children give trouble. You are creative yourself, usually, and therefore, very encouraging to your children in their artistic activities. You will also tend to be indulgent and enforcing discipline will be a difficult matter in your home.

JANUARY

This is an important year, so start it well, as it will have an impact on your future. This year will have a spin-off into the next year and shape it. It is a year of changes and adjustments, both at your workplace and in the family and social scene. There is a certain determination building up within you to practically recast yourself in a new image. This image needs to conform to the way you want to see yourself, in terms of appearance, health, physique, attitude and mindset. You don't want it to be too unrealistically perfect — just to the best of your potential as you perceive it. There is a growing self-awareness, a kind of faith and confidence in your own abilities. It will also reflect in your social and personal life, very much so in fact. Your warmth and caring are always a part of you. Now they'll be based on greater self-belief.

I would recommend that you don't get carried away with over-confidence in the realm of finances. Bold moves will not work out: they could lead to debts or at least, a cash crunch. Additionally, Material gain will come to you through sudden accessing of your own efforts, not with shared projects. There is certainly greater closeness and bonding. Personal fulfillment comes to you in several ways.

FEBRUARY

A total change, an almost 180° turn now. Doubts, anxieties, tension and their companions of mood and feeling variations are the dominant theme. This phase is much more than a mere shift of mood. There is anxiety about health — your own or that of a loved one; maybe even dealing with hospitals, doctors, bills and such — and equal anxiety about money. The gains of last month are not really sustained.

Sudden windfalls don't happen even month, do they? (a) You will turn to spirituality, solitude, contemplation to calm your mind, reduce the experience of sorrow which is a kind of weltschmerz (world sorrow; rather than mere worn); (b) You also search within yourself for greater understanding of your own nature, impulses and inclinations. Where you were confident, forward-looking and making great strides, you now experience a kind of melancholy.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

As a mother, you might spoil your children. You are so sensitive and emotional that if your child cries, you'll probably start crying yourself. You will never force your own interests upon your children and, in fact, will try and fall in with what they want.

Astrologers often ascribe mood swings to the Pisces sun sign. I would beg to differ a little. What you experience now is much deeper and more fundamental to your very existence. And only you can understand and deal with it. You must realize the need for greater respect for both yourself and for those in authority over you. This is different to self-confidence — it is self-awareness. It hopefully leads to greater care in handling money matters like taxes, funds, joint-finances and also in handling the people around you who care for you and interact with you.

MARCH

Positive thinking always brings success or at least, closure and that is the theme now. I must digress a little and say here that Pisces is perhaps one of the most maligned signs, being difficult to understand. As is usual with all twelve signs, there is heightened activity in your own birth-month. As is usual with most Pisceans, the activity will be intensely personal, subjective, even ego-centered in terms of assessment and awareness of self; your good points, limitations, scope for improvement are held up to a mercilessly piercing scrutiny.

You're not being harsh on yourself, just realistic. The motivation, of course, is a true and genuine desire for improvement. A more positive approach will make all the difference — and it must come from you. Pisceans are sincere to a fault, often getting into trouble by being too trusting of others. You will realize also just what you want from life, and determine to get it. You want to look good, feel good and do the right things in terms of health, your welfare and your family's welfare.

You will face up to the responsibilities of career/business and also try to create a satisfactory income at least. Getting rich quick doesn't always happen. You're realistic enough to realize that and prepared to work for steady gains that can be sustained over time. Also, you realize that what matters equally strongly is the closeness of bonds and ties with those you love. Friends, too, are always important to you. Fresh acquaintances and friendships come to you, giving pleasure, inspiration and ideas. On the whole, you will have reason to be pleased with the directions your life and activities are headed in.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

Ideal Careers for you are caring for the sick, needy and animals, religious, social workers, hospitals and institutions, poets, writers, actors, psychics.

Suitable occupations are where compassionate and intuitive qualities are needed

APRIL

Last month's forecast was somewhat complicated and also rather long and detailed. I could sum up this month in just two words — love and luck.

First of all, a more positive and practical approach makes for success at work. It is said that Pisceans lack backbone or staying power, but the real fact is that your desire to please others and avoid confrontation often weakens you. Not so this month. You work positively towards better ties and bonds; realizing that accepting them makes daily life easier, more cheerful. Once you understand disagreements, you know how to make things better.

People want to be with you, because of your cheerful, enthusiastic persona and charm. You can win over opposition to your plans and perhaps even carry through some rather far fetched schemes. Money-matters like raising capital, trade, rentals, even taxes, investments and joint-funds are all favored. In fact, shared income (with your spouse/mate) will be the most satisfactory part. In both personal and business relationships, you are both more flexible and more restrained and the results will be more than pleasing.

MAY

Achievements, results, recognitions galore now. Your personality is coming out in all its splendor. In fact, change calls forth your creative aplomb. You are full of enthusiasm for tasks, and make some truly inspired moves and suggestions. At home, too, you are mentally very active, making interesting changes and turning the daily grind of domesticity into fun and pleasure. This eternally youthful quality is the trademark of Pisceans. The young, the need-burdened, the infirm are drawn to you. You can recreate youth and flow with the feelings of others like a fish in water! Please do appreciate the pun! It's genuinely good, because, you're truly in your natural element in your activities. From all this come richly rewarding pleasures, shared in mutual bliss and understanding.

In addition, there is the exchange of ideas, opinions, information with friends, colleagues, workmates, even superiors — like-minded people, whoever they may be. You really display brilliance, flair and innovation. You also realize that it's nice to flow-with feelings. In short, joy and delight in life sum it up.

JUNE

Where it was performance, now it is people that will be the focal point or theme. There's a marvelous closeness build up with parents, older people, in-laws who might not always approve of you — to them — eccentric and strongly different ways. A second home/retreat is also possible, or trips and travel for fun, togetherness or just getting away from it all.

Your fun-loving side comes to the forefront and people are drawn to you; sharing and caring are both reciprocated. Your need for security, for harmony and a pleasing flow are all fulfilled best for you in the comfort and solace of home. Now too, this is most definitely the case. In your less hyper and more gentle attitude, you're willing to mend fences, soothe anxieties and hurt feelings.

You're always gentle, actually, but even more so now. You're also willing to go out on a limb to help others — which they appreciate. A warning against overspending on holidays and extravagance in general, as you should be warned against both lending and borrowing. That's not the way, even if you're spending on adding beauty, comfort and luxury to your home and family. This can come from you — in terms of greater faith, spirituality, gentleness, tolerance and understanding. Your personal hang-ups will be resolved, leading to a great life for those around you. and you too. of course.

JULY

A very positive phase in your life has come. You are sure to come up with genuinely creative and brilliant ideas. If properly executed, they are sure to be winners! Once again, a guarantee from the god himself, not the astrologer! (All forms of entertainment, the media, the sports, the arts are your special field, your forte). That's how it'll be this month. Perhaps even holidays, short trips, a weekend fling, walking a little bit on the wild side, but fun, nevertheless.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

You dislike feeling vulnerable, alone or unloved, having no goals to move towards, feeling invalidated, being ignored, crude or harsh behavior, being criticized, noisy scenes and displays, having no sense of structure.

In money matters you are daring, gambling and speculating with rare insight which may, quite likely, click brilliantly. Remember I had mentioned far-fetched schemes as far back as the April forecast. Now it's almost the main theme. You may be full of wild schemes and impossible ideas, but you need to hold yourself in check, rein in your flights of imagination.

The difference between practical feasibility and vague possibilities will have to be studied and understood. In this mood of reconciling and resolving your personal views, even issues with your loved ones, you will be far more assertive, more definite and infinitely more focused and active. You realize that this is not and I repeat not the time for easygoing ways, indecision and letting things slide. In that way lies not harmony but ruin. What serves to balance, control and rein you in, is the growing faith, interest in occult phenomena and practices — my favorite phrase, tantra and mantra, spirituality, the study of religion.

AUGUST

Another long forecast was necessary for July. This month. I can afford to keep it short. I could sum it up with 'fun, frolic, greater spirituality, greater insights. That's about it. You'll try to create both fun, yet control and care in your love life and marital status. The entertainments and good times will continue, as will your genius at inspiration and innovation. Work will be willful, even rash determination to execute your own ideas. You should listen to others, too, no matter how brilliant your own performance.

This will apply equally to work and love — both could suffer as a consequence. The best of plans and ideas improve with discussion. This will apply very strongly to the realm of finances for both home and business, or your idea or expansion at work may bring you quick gains in funds but they'll be short-lived. You'll soon realize that extra money comes from extra work. Accept responsibility and also make subtle adjustments by the month-end. Your euphoria does not die down. It just gets channelized into true creativity and understanding. You are patient, now, in differences over tastes, ideas, aesthetics, even family affairs. The gentle side is taking over once again, bringing with it love, spirituality, charitable deeds, philanthropy and service of others.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

You are most compatible with Taurus, Cancer, Scorpio, and Capricorn.

SEPTEMBER

Your concern for others will make you think of different ways of moving ahead. Go ahead, making the future more secure. It is a time for change — in your work, relationships, lifestyle, even your image. You may once again be tempted to take shortcuts, even do the wrong thing if it gets the right result. The time warns you very strictly that here and now, in both family, domestic affairs and work, the end does not justify the means. You must share work, possessions, pleasures, and space. You can create beauty even from chaos. It will be a delight to share, to listen, to soothe with patience and sensitivity. These will be your major strengths.

OCTOBER

Just when you feel you've got things moving smoothly, there could be snags, delays or tension at work on your mind. There could be problems and challenges at work that you will have to address. So it's not likely to be all play. Even play and pleasure have to be worked and paid for. Your own health can let you down, competitors can throw a spoke in the wheel, even love could be confusing and demanding. When handling all these — work, love, health, competition — intuition, perception and sensitivity will once again (and always) be your best bet. Goodwill soothes away worries — your own as well as those of others.

All media-related, art-related fields thrive with renewed energy and ideas and when these are executed, there are gains in terms of both money and recognition, even applause. Love, luck and pleasure come to you once again. Entertainments, entertaining, vacations, hobbies, sports, parties — a seemingly endless list of delights. Wins at games of chance, too, and even perhaps in love. Don't get too earned away and ride roughshod over people's emotions. You aim for companionship, intimacy, understanding. Working together as a family is pleasing, too. Proud satisfaction comes as a result of greater efficiency, care and restraint. and the feeling of getting a job done well.

NOVEMBER

The past few weeks have brought you much in terms of growth, satisfaction and success. You naturally seek to sustain it. Your values are redefined, renewed, revamped as you strive for emotional balance, security and steadiness. You realize it wears you out to have strife and discord with yourself, as well as with others. It leads to stress, health problems, loss of vitality. This could happen when you are concluding or winding up some projects/ enterprises/even relationships. You will be setting new ones. Birth and death are both dealt with — thus joy and sorrow, both sides of the coin to be handled.

On the whole though, there is — movement and growth this month. A look at movement first. You move away, physically from one place to another city/town, or just shift your home. In addition, you move away from a relationship that you felt to be restrictive, even making you dependent instead of free — most likely with an older person, or someone in authority. You want a certain freedom, independence that goes beyond personal space and personal belief.

Money-wise, you certainly prosper and gain. Even wins, lotteries, legacies, gifts can come to you (may or may not be linked to your moving). It certainly makes for financial security. as well as your future goals getting redefined. You're now able to take chances with some more daring ideas and moves than before — and set up new projects that could yield future gain. I have also mentioned knowledge, evolution and wisdom.

I should also add that knowledge evolves into wisdom. That is the link, the progression, as surely as night follows day or vice versa. Knowledge without wisdom has only the glitter of tinsel, not the glow that the god bestows or true belief, faith and genuine spiritual leanings. That, ultimately is what I see you striving for, rather than mere excellence whether at work/play/ faith, or all three.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

DECEMBER

Let us conduct a year-end review this month, and quantify all that you have achieved, gained. Doubts, despair even some form of emotional bondage will be broken away from. A stronger, confident you can relate better to people, in-laws, older relatives, and the dessert to round it off — simply delightful bonding like some signs (Sagittarius, for example) who can thrive in splendid isolation. All I can say is — all your needs are fulfilled by god. People come to you with warmth, affection, sharing the good times and the bad, strengthening your spirit and your resolution. A high-powered month, which brings many gains and sets you firmly on the path to success in 2009 and beyond.

Spiritual gains head the list. Personally, I feel that the water signs (Pisces, Aquarius and Cancer) have greater spiritual inclination. All three have gained in that sphere in this year and to use today's parlance, it will be an ongoing exercise, certainly a constant delight. It will be watched, as the year ends with gains in finance, power, prestige, status. I said, work and play both, didn't I? Therefore leisure and pleasure, some entertainment, hospitality, fun times lie ahead too. Exceptional creativity, a great style of doing things, success in computers, research of any sort, excellent job prospects before the year closes, a wish-fulfillment, less tensions in the 2nd half of the year and most certainly a happier time in your life. Love will knock at your door to round off the year.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JANUARY

You are semi-compatible with Pisces
and Virgo.

January 1, 2008 to January 6, 2008

Your own personal advancement measured in terms of satisfaction at work and at home will be of primary concern to you. You will devote most of your time and energy to this, and that, coupled with your own creative talents may all yield a possible wish-fulfilment, or make a dream of yours come true. This may even be seeing your children doing exceptionally well. And that's always a dream for parents! Encouragement comes from parents, too, if you're on the younger side of the parent-child equation. You also seek new avenues. You have to concentrate mostly on personal matters, individual concerns, private issues. Taking your loved ones/spouse/partner into your confidence will help you greatly at this stage — even otherwise, being upfront in relationships is a good practice. Good ideas and choices flow to you as a result.

January 7, 2008 to January 13, 2008

You look at your home, family, and go in for a spate of reorganization — even of your love-life. You address your work and the demands it makes on you in the same spirit of trying to make it more congenial. Inspired activity in the workplace makes you give it your best efforts, making the right moves and right decisions. Is it any wonder then that there is good money coming to you. It is all part of the theme of creating a warm, loving atmosphere to functioning. Your desire to move on; move ahead, emotionally, mentally, and of course, professionally. Your own attitudes of positive, calm acceptance make it all come together. You will gain greatly in this new moon phase, too, in terms of hope, fresh new outlook and a better perspective to life.

January 14, 2008 to January 20, 2008

You now get the power, prestige, perks, and promotions. As if these were not enough, there's family bonding and fun. Your celebratory mood makes you entertain, socialize, generally have a wonderful time. It is a delight to share things, to find beauty together in personal, intimate relationships. And for you, this is not only the most precious gift, but also the one that inspires you to your best efforts, both work-wise and relationship-wise.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JANUARY

You are incompatible with Aries, Gemini, Leo, Libra, Sagittarius and Aquarius.

January 21, 2008 to January 27, 2008

A lot of chopping and changing and shifting and moving things around will happen, both at home and at work. At first, you may wonder how you're going to resolve the muddle involved in these changes and these disturbances in your scheduling. But you can cope, though you could even yourself be on the move, unexpectedly. You have realized that certain changes are necessary/vital for progress and that progress itself is necessary/vital for you to live life the way you'd like to. Thus, you are inspired by the time to create a game-playing environment so that it all seems to be a lark, full of fun and gaiety. This allows people around you to find their own space gradually. Greater efficiency and harmony are the results you get. Less worries, too, and less stress at home and at the work place.

January 28, 2008 to February 3, 2008

You could have felt that the changes you were experiencing were unsettling and problematic. But now your attitude changes. Shifts and changes are once again important this week too. What has changed is that now you are the one to bring them about, very eagerly, rather than just accepting them. You realize that change implies growth, advancement in mind and spirit, and gains. You make travel plans, you plan to go and chase a special person, if you're single, but above all, you make financial moves to change the money flow. Assets, cash, a flow of funds for your projects and enterprises have to be ensured. Paradoxically, you are equally keen to add to your heavenly rewards by lots of spirituality, thinking about karma, life after death and other equally elevated cosmic questions

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

FEBRUARY

You are emotional and sensitive and can easily be influenced by good and bad, practicality and realism often escapes you.

You are also secretive, hard to know, and hardly know themselves.

February 4, 2008 to February 10, 2008

A very busy phase gets in, and there is much productive work flowing from you. At the same time, you seem to stand alone from the very activities you are involved in. You rely on your own inspiration, ideas, meditation to achieve a sense of inner liberty. You turn your responsibilities to good account, by making the burdens of your work help you grow. You seek concealed meanings, deeper truths. Journeys are contemplated, but secret meetings (even a secret love entanglement) could make you hold back. In this mood of withdrawal, you are not inclined to take the plunge. A strange, mixed-up week but you can weather it, if you keep your focus straight and true. In fact, a time of peace of mind, of inner calm, restfulness comes to you now. You certainly need it, and it gives you the strength to carry on with the activities you have just initiated. You undertake difficult tasks, and you bring beauty and style into tasks where you are in authority.

February 11, 2008 to February 17, 2008

A time when you're relaxed, easy and great fun to be with and it's all your own doing. You have gained a feeling of self-worth, and your finances too match up. Increased assets lighten both your responsibilities and your relationships. You can be patient with friends, see what lies behind their anxieties and inhibitions. You and your mate/lover keep the bonds of affection and love intact, despite tests of endurance. In fact, the theme can be summed up as friends, enjoyment, new methods of work — all leading to lively interactions, as well as adjustments to the new realities you have become so aware of. You are always open to innovations, revolutionary ideas and so it is now too.

February 18, 2008 to February 24, 2008

Once again, you'll be hard at work and also searching for ideas. Both your workplace, home and family affairs make demands. And you meet them. You are mentally very active too, and your work goes very smoothly indeed. It's bound to be. When you involve yourself fully, in terms of feelings as well as skills, you're magnetic at the workplace and dazzling at home! Amidst all this splendor lies the inherent danger of stress and overwork. Don't tax yourself to the point of exhaustion, even though responsibilities actually seem enjoyable at this point of time. That sums up what you'll be doing in this phase. I said this at the very outset!

February 25, 2008 to March 2, 2008

A very work-oriented week, but with a whole new meaning given to this overworked phrase. You have subtle benefits coming to you in your job that you feel make it more than just worthwhile. The god blesses your efforts and attitude, and success too takes on a new connotation for you. Not just your attitude to work, but the work itself, with all its implications, will undergo a major, even radical change. There is no stopping you, in terms of the headway you make, and the co-operation you get. It is both technical and technological and very interesting indeed. E-commerce, on-line shopping in the share market, capital rising with flair and initiative, all has you behaving like the star performer. Needless to say, the money is more than good right now. This, however, is neither the motivation nor the reward that propels you ahead.

March 3, 2008 to March 9, 2008

In your own sign, you have a strong urge to achieve a kind of perfection in all you say, do, and are! You put in a lot of finesse and a touch of style, beauty, graciousness into public actions so as to project your organization, superiors, work-situation better. While all this makes for creative daring, even praise and appreciation, you might just get carried away into going too far. Sometimes, it is difficult for you to know when to call a halt on your thoughts and activities both. How others see you and your work and your work-place figure largely in the scheme of things for you now. Your personal image, right down to physique, facial features, and clothing is re-examined. You put a lot of effort and thought to how you project yourself. You might even make it an obsession. The time tells you to do things gradually and smoothly. After all, the phase is indicating a monthly trend, so you have time.

March 10, 2008 to March 16, 2008

A very fulfilling week, for you, personally. From the workplace and your own persona, your attention now turns to home and family, particularly older people you greatly cherish. They bring out your innate Piscean gentleness, even tenderness. Yours is a sign with a great capacity for love and caring and in this week, you will not only lavish this on loved ones but on your home as well. At the same time, a second home could also be quite seriously contemplated. You soothe worries, and share work, chores, space, even appliances and gadgets at home. I might sum up by just saying — you enjoy the comforts of home. There's nothing to be added to that!

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

March 17, 2008 to March 23, 2008

A phase that's not just active, but hectic, even frenetic comes to you now. There are the joys of living dangerously, gambling riskily in the fields of speculation, high finance. Equally exciting could be gambles with your heart. Your affections and emotions will be a bit volatile and you will need to think. You will realize that some risks can just be pulled off, if you handle them cleverly enough. Love will be intense, physical, and passionate and finances will be large scale too. Loans/funds/deals/mergers/even partnerships on the joint stock ventures are coming your way. It may be new and exciting, but it's also hard work. Make sure it doesn't yield only loss, sorrow, debts, disappointment. You may feel that there is so much to do. You'll want to go overboard in your enthusiasm for work, and also for new projects but it is still wise to be cautious and not give in to your Piscean rashness. Weigh your options before making irrevocable commitment — both in terms of money and honey. Don't gamble with your resources or your heart in this phase.

March 24, 2008 to March 30, 2008

Love, pleasure charm, fun and good times come to you. It may just be euphoria that you've pulled off something big, or something I talked of last week. Whatever it is, laughter and relaxation, more rest and someone special to make it even more beautiful. In any case, we all need phases like this in our lives. Pisceans need more relief from stress than most people. You certainly get that, and lots more. I'll keep this a short forecast, after the lengthy one last week!

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

APRIL

Your hobbies can range from painting, quizzing, astrology, and games involving team play.

Pisceans like compassionate activities.

March 31, 2008 to April 6, 2008

In honing your people skills, can the family be left out? You will have much to do with parents, in-laws, older relatives and will care for, and share a great deal with them. I must point out again that there is a certain gentleness in Pisceans which makes them very good with the old, sick, infirm, and with children and the disabled. You are also much more involved, committed in your profession and give a more than good account of yourself. You realize that despite pleasure-halls and palaces, there's really 'no place like home". So, the spotlight is once again on family, your home, or even a home-away-from-home.

April 7, 2008 to April 13, 2008

Success and achievements continue, but they're of a vastly different nature. Yours is a gentle sign, capable of much love, caring and understanding of human nature. You prefer to be the peacemaker; and this extends to the home and domestic/family scene as well. Intrusive or disruptive squabbles are dealt with as you and your mate/spouse attack the root of the problem, rather than just smoothing out the surface. It is both enjoyable and helpful to share problems with loved ones. They understand your feelings, and try to work with you. Great achievements as well as accomplishments are in store for you this quarter. But they're not the obvious, dazzling front-end ones. It's your tact/flair/skill — or all of these — at striking deals, making fruitful negotiations, and setting up collaborations that makes you perform brilliantly. It's more important than bull-runs on the stock market by corporate raiders — the gains are even more spectacular!

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

APRIL

The diseases to which Pisces people are subject are pains in the head, feet, and back, and weakness of the digestive organs. The male is often attacked by periods of despondency and self-censure, which lead to serious illness. The female is troubled by fits of melancholy and weeping, and frequently suffers from uterine difficulties.

April 14, 2008 to April 20, 2008

•A time of quiet splendour, of sumptuous pleasures, comes to you. If you give joy/comfort solace/affection to others, you're bound to get it back, sometimes in far greater measure. And that's just the way it is for you in this week. The time gives you all kinds of joy, delight and pleasure in this quarter, particularly in your interactive, happy relationships. They will encompass delightful times with children;

- a wonderful time, socially, with people you enjoy;
- creative pursuits for pleasure and leisure;
- new delights in love, or falling in love, if you haven't done so already. What more can you possibly ask for?

April 21, 2008 to April 27, 2008

You are really nice to know: full of gaiety, joy, and of course bright ideas. People enjoy being near you. Your work-skills too, are applied with equal ease and gusto. Ceremonies and journeys too, for both work and pleasure. Your feelings and skills are both making good, if not simply wonderful, things happen, and around you are the aura or glamor of success. You have a whale of a time, socializing and enjoying life in every possible way. Love and romance, dalliance and flirtation are enthusiastically indulged in by you. But so are meetings, gatherings, group interactions. So your skills in relating with people are displayed in all their splendor.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

MAY

You are easygoing, affectionate, submissive and offer no threat or challenge to stronger and more exuberant characters.

You are emotional rather than rational, instinctive more than intellectual, and have limited willpower.

April 28, 2008 to May 4, 2008

You realize that you are capable of much in the way of both creativity and in your handling of people, and think of how you can gain further from this. You will become aware of the possibility of earning from shared resources. By this, I do not mean using family funds, but working and lying up with collaborators, friends, and partners. This could definitely be for those in the creative fields like publishing, public relations and such. A new ad agency or website, or art gallery could quite easily emerge. Your achievement is thus obvious. You learn not to force the pace, force issues, even force confrontations and showdowns which are both counter-productive and unnecessary. This quarter thus brings you both awareness and achievements, but they're of a different sort, and lead you into being truly busy, once again. The awareness is about creating greater family resources and income, within the parameters you will impose on yourself.

May 5, 2008 to May 11, 2008

The last two weeks have been exciting, thrilling but also full of gains in terms of happiness. Now, if anything, it gets even better. This is a wonderful time for you, and it will earn on for the whole month. You are eager on performing well at the working place and in your relationships but could be a bit rash in some decisions. The time warns you not to turn careless of both the money and love which are yours in such large measure. You have to learn to appreciate a) what you have and b) what others expect from you. You have learnt to strike a fine balance between work, responsibilities, finances and duties on the one hand; and home, family, children, love and beauty on the other. None of these areas finds you lacking in attention. I wonder how you do it, but there's cozy intimacy in the personal sphere as well.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

MAY

Worry, anxiety, and diseased imagination are the most formidable faults of this sign. Some of these people beat their hearts out with imagining fears, and are constantly expecting accidents and unpleasant tidings.

May 12, 2008 to May 18, 2008

You swing back to a very strong and definite focus on your work, or rather, your profession as such. There'll be so much to do, so much to worry about, all of a sudden. Starting up new partnerships, projects, even doing the spade work, dealing in influential or even bureaucratic circles to get approval for plans. All this will certainly not be easy, but you do it willingly and well. That's the way you like it! You can question it because you have realized and learnt the true value of your personalities and bonds. You get the comfort, relaxation and respite you need from the continued warmth of your family circle, closeness and intimacy with loved ones, children, even pets and dependents. These connections are as strong as ever, and they make your slogging seem like child's play. Or at least, that's the way you will handle it — easily and joyously.

May 19, 2008 to May 25, 2008

You now decide to express your joy in visible ways. All the gains in terms of easy finances are spent in a glorious splurge on the home and family; you are not blowing it away, though. There are deeply introspective processes and shared mental stimulation that helps you focus your values and priorities very firmly and correctly. Decisions about long-desired changes are made. It is possible; too, that the financial benefits I spoke of as being likely could actually happen now. In several respects, this phase is similar to the phase of April 20 last month. You are sensitive not only to loved ones' needs, but also to children and the creative arts such as interior decoration, writing, even taking care of the home. Pisceans usually have the flair and the artistic temperament that make them excel at media-related and art-related activities and jobs, and that's what the time gives you now.

May 26, 2008 to June 1, 2008

You have a tremendous surge of energy, enthusiasm, inspiration and marvelous ideas. While the wonderful thing is that you're miles ahead of the others (in fact, they might never even catch up. leave alone rival you), it also entails a lot of hard, determined work. The charge of energy you have experienced has not only built up your health, stamina and spirits, but your brilliance and creativity as well. You have a lot of irons in the fire in terms of creativity and good work, methods and practices, in particular.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JUNE

Pisces strengths manifest as being dedicated, lovable, compassionate, devoted and unselfish.

June 2, 2008 to June 8, 2008

Your own charisma makes sure that you have a lot going for you. It will manifest itself very visibly in good monetary gains. A financial upswing; loans and finances, funds and yet, greater pleasure and creativity, all work for you. However, health problems can't be ruled out, nor can older relatives, in-laws, even distant family connections. Family matters and/ or household responsibilities have to be handled with care. Even more care is required for matters related to house and property. Here the theme will be overall improvement and enhancement. As indeed, will the theme trend for the whole month be not just of your home, assets, bank-balance, but of your entire way of life, your total ethos.

June 9, 2008 to June 15, 2008

You put your new ideas, innovations to the test by actually embarking on the fields of activity they can be implemented in. I'm talking now of communication — the entire range from technologies to one-to-one meetings, and dialogs. For the next two weeks at least, not only will this be your main thrust, but you will also face some health hazards. They can be caused simply due to too much work-related stress; stamina does not always accompany brilliance. Take necessary care and adequate rest. Burning yourself on will not get you anywhere. In fact, you could regress: instead of gaining.

June 16, 2008 to June 22, 2008

Not regression, but certainly a slowing down of pace will be experienced in this week and though your enterprises will prosper and flourish, so also will your expenses. There is also the risk of accidents or loss while traveling (see the preceding forecast for what you should do to avert these). Most important for you is that love/falling in love/romance/dalliance/cozy interludes (perhaps all of these) will also definitely flourish and bloom. It's certainly one of the good, if not the best things in life. Even for less romantic souls, and nobody can be more romantically inclined than Pisceans, as a rule. There will be a fair amount of travel (even if it's just commuting around the town). You need space to try out ideas, or maybe just a change of scene, a fresh new ambience.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JUNE/JULY

Pisces
Weaknesses are oversensitive,
indecisive,
self-pitying, lazy, and escapist.

June 23, 2008 to June 29, 2008

Closeness to the special person in your life (your spouse/mate/ partner/lover) will be your major concern and you will crave or at least want to share your innermost emotions, thoughts, even hope and dreams with the one specially loved person in your life. You want to explain not only your successes and failures (though these are hardly there now) but also your future plans and ambitions. In the process, not only do you manage to see them more clearly yourself, you also see a burgeoning of creativity and skills that will make it all come true. You will also learn how to capitalize on them. The true inner self-intimate recesses of your personality, is what you will be concerned with. But this does not make you want solitude. You want to share it, discuss it, and analyze it thoroughly.

June 30, 2008 to July 6, 2008

Both work and creativity will truly be at white heat for you now. You will be truly thankful to the gods for giving you so much in terms of brilliance and creativity (as I said just recently). Along with them, if you've been loaded with duties, obligations and responsibilities, you still feel able to cope, and not go under. You have gained mental strength and resolution, too. Faith, religion, and deep-rooted spiritualism too, are added strength, and that in itself is no small achievement.

July 7, 2008 to July 13, 2008

This week makes you more than aware of the need to pull out all the stops, at work and also in your relationships. Certainly, you will have to be conscious as never before of your public image, of how you project yourself and how others see you. Even if it's with friends/partners, united action makes everyone happy and mental stimulation brings out different talents. You'll have to put in some really dedicated work and keep your personal relationships strong. Ties of a different sort are important now — partners, business collaborations and tie-ups. Legal hassles might arise; certainly the competition is set to give you a run for your money! This, of course, might not be a bad thing, after all, if it helps to bring out the best in you.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JULY

Each sign has a part of the anatomy attached to it, making this the area of the body that is most sensitive to stimulation. The anatomical areas for Pisces are the feet and immune system.

July 14, 2008 to July 20, 2008

Last week's efforts, and those of the past, too, now start paying off spectacularly. All kinds of gains and benefits accrue to you. I won't even bother to enumerate them. It's the works — from money to intangibles like prestige. Perhaps the most spectacular of them all will be success, warmth excitement, pleasure in the angle of love and marriage. This applies equally, whether you're married or single! You have been daring in the risks and chances you've been taking in the past. You have also some stiff competition to reckon with. It may have created doubts/tensions/ anxieties that you could not even show to the world. Now you put on the show to end all shows — a phenomenal success in your endeavors, leading to all the possible benefits

July 21, 2008 to July 27, 2008

Your success hasn't made you easy-going or complacent. Their further actions that will make you spring back, animatedly. The directions you take could be research, study, higher qualifications/learning, wisdom coming from knowledge. You do all this with great zeal and the utmost dedication. Commitment or seriousness would have been too mild to describe your total attitude. Instead of "where there's life, there's hope"; for you it's where there's love, there's hope. And where more than in family ties, the cozy intimacy and comfort of home, your ties of blood with siblings, relatives parents, and children. They are vitally important to you always.

July 28, 2008 to August 3, 2008

Your euphoria will be wearing off and you'll just have to knuckle down to some really solid work. All that fun and frolic you've been indulging in has to be paid for, in more ways than one. You find that expenses are at an all-time high — and have to be dealt with ASAP. It could otherwise snow ball into problems. Your need for care is immense. I mean this — and so are your health problems. You may need to be hospitalized, or be admitted only for a check-up, but doctors' and medical bills will have to be paid. Burning your candle at both ends isn't such a good idea, you realize, and take corrective action — introspection and contemplation is what helps you choose wisely and well and then implement those choices.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

AUGUST

The perfect gift for you that touches the very depths of your kind and sympathetic heart are flowers. They quickly lift you out of a gloom and you can live on the thrill of receiving them for weeks at a time.

August 4, 2008 to August 10, 2008

You need to take adequate care, rest, health safeguards, if you want to stay the course. And I know you do — there's so much to gain. Once again you'll be working all the hours and loving it. All the past trends of the last two months suddenly flare into brilliant activity, in a major up thrust or surge. The first will be love, marriage, falling in love, romance, passionate encounters, almost enslavement to the one you love. The next thing will be equally passionate involvement with religion and spirituality. In fact, they're neck to neck in terms of importance. Finally, there's a lot of financial activity, and the hard work that goes with it. But the gains that you get — and are projected for the future make it more than worthwhile.

August 11, 2008 to August 17, 2008

You have really burnt the midnight oil in your efforts to get ahead and to live up to your potential. The universe now sends you joy, relief, relaxation, respite — as much as anyone could desire. I'm talking of hitting the social circuit, pleasure parties, even weddings or ceremonies that are filled with fun and laughter. In any case, you've proved yourself in the eyes of the world, of the family and of yourself. It creates warmth and caring that surrounds you, enthuse you further. The financial status and standing and the success you enjoy, make for greater security all-round. By this, I mean not only security for home, family and loved ones, but also for yourself as you realize your own potential, worth and your image in the eyes of other too.

August 18, 2008 to August 24, 2008

You have taken a lot in terms of work commitments, responsibilities and answerability. You will suddenly be served up a lot to worn — absolutely huge expenses, ill-health, exhaustion medical bills (for yourself or others) and will have to find ways and means to cope, but cope you will. The tiredness spoken of, could even be a kind of world-weariness though, hits us all from time to time. The only difference is the Pisceans are more susceptible, and also more gain mood swings. This is something you will need to guard against. You realize that you have to find your own strengths. You turn back to meditation, religion, spiritual practices for strength and sustenance, which you'll truly need.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER

In relationships the Piscean must be careful in their approach to emotional ties. They can be easily carried away and discover when it is too late, that the marvelous attributes that they saw in their partner do not really exist.

August 25, 2008 to August 31, 2008

A week in which you will identify your strengths and act upon them, to your own advantage. Your primary and almost total commitment is to your home, in terms of a family stronghold/refuge. Renovation, addition, redecoration, even actually building a home will be important activities and so also will the add-ons in terms of beauty and style with which you will seek to imbue it. The entire human race is what you seem to have loved for, and faith and trust in. It is your total involvement with almost the whole universe that is one of the strongest advantages that Pisceans have. In this phase, it certainly endows you with a huge amount of self-confidence and poise, the assurance that you can do the way you want, defend your beliefs and stance.

September 1, 2008 to September 7, 2008

New ideas, fresh thoughts, even daring plans are all attractive to you as a rule and so it will prove to be this week, too. You have much favorable activity in the context of new projects/ventures — either on the anvil, or already starting. Equally-good for parties, making new friends and acquaintances who share your ideals of beauty in life, love and faith. Socially, you're very much in demand. Your charm wins you much appreciation; perhaps, even from someone you've worshiped from afar. This is not necessarily a romantic involvement, but that, too, can't be ruled out entirely. All told, you are really having a whale of a time.

September 8, 2008 to September 14, 2008

Time of brilliance in terms of both performance, idea; innovations comes for you. You will make moves that are truly inspired, take on all kinds of duties and task and execute them to perfection. The perfection come from a true, sincere, deep-rooted desire to measure u to your own moral, emotional, ethical, even religion values. It sustains and inspires you, powers you on. Hard work doesn't even begin to describe what you're doing. Besides everything else, anyone can work hard, even mule if it's prodded hard enough.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

SEPTEMBER

Sex with Pisces is an emotional and physical experience, and if you allow it, it will be a spiritual experience as well. Pisces are very good at, and love role play.

September 15, 2008 to September 21, 2008

You're still functioning quite spectacularly. A truly wonderful phase with all the heightened activity that comes with the full moon in your own sign. You feel the tug of so many demands that you make on yourself. Your care/concern love (or all of these) will be for the family, for society, for the world, for the entire cosmos, almost. In the ultimate fallout, of course what wins is the ties of love, marriage and family, but there's no gain saying the fact that you're almost equally concerned about all the others.

September 22, 2008 to September 28, 2008

You have been more than busy, over quite a few weeks in the past. You will feel that you have neglected your family domestic interests and home in your absorption with the demands of work and getting ahead last quarter. You now try not only to make amends on the family scene, but go in for a careful survey of finances. Partnerships and collaborations may work out now — though not without needing to discuss and hammer out snags. Publicity and media-related activities will be your best bet. You will give a more than good account of yourself.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

OCTOBER

Most Pisces are aware of undercurrents in any situation and if this ability is used positively it can assist with the connection and growth of others, yet if used negatively they simply manipulate circumstance to suit them.

September 29, 2008 to October 5, 2008

You'll be doing a balancing act in this Libran quarter. But let me warn you, all the activities you seek to balance/cope with will not be pleasant, or even entirely peaceful. Tricky financial matters are worked out with much care. These could be lending/ borrowing, large scale buying/selling, trade-offs. Travel plans, if made, will prove difficult. So also, the chances of a slight mishap or illness. I wonder if it's best if you just stay home. Love too, is demanding, passionate, even challenging. I might add that it might be murky, or at least a bondage rather than a bond. How you reconcile these various pulls will be based on your own instincts along with support from people you like and trust. You listen to their well-meant suggestions and advice.

October 6, 2008 to October 12, 2008

You'll be socializing almost as much as you work — and there will be plenty of both! Your busy, even hectic phase continues into this week. Although social contacts are important, in order to earn on any activity/action/project/venture, remember to pay attention to the work itself and all the relevant details too, as you party along. You will feel that in terms of vigor, energy, go, you have got a new lease of life. That's a wonderful feeling and you mean to make the most of it vis-à-vis what you consider to be the good things of life! Here I foresee hobbies, creative and leisure pursuits, involvement in your children's activities; even learning a new skill/sport/research/new -techniques/ a new computer language come within this ambit. Oh! I forgot to add speculation, games of chance, too — success comes there, too, if you don't make rash or wild moves.

October 13, 2008 to October 19, 2008

You are not so irresponsible that you neglect genuine concerns; in spite of all your partying/socializing, you do put on your thinking hat, too. You're making good choices and the correct moves that will take you towards greater financial security and a smoother flow of money. And money truly oils the wheels for you right now. Personal relationships, social life and financial transactions and dealings are the three important activities, and I have listed them in the order in which they are vital to you. Family affairs demand your commitment, even while you're spending time with entertaining visitors, even house guests, and catching up on your existing social circle. You're a good listener, as always, and that makes people want to be with you.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

OCTOBER

You tend to withdraw into your own dream world as a retreat from the harsh reality of day - to - day living and the inability to cope with real life.

October 20, 2008 to October 26, 2008

All that is part of family life, in terms of joys, sorrows, bonds and ties, even squabbles and fights, are part and parcel of your involvement. They require delicate handling, and you must make allowances for people's worries. Your focus is strongly and very definitely on personal relationships, and the more personal the better. To expand on this, these relationships will be in ascending order of importance: (a) sincere efforts in domestic responsibilities to family, relatives, in-laws, parents (b) your children's demands, needs and activities (c) your own creative impulses, your feelings, and how best to use your talents. You make tremendous efforts to reconcile all of the above and maintain harmony in your life.

October 27, 2008 to November 2, 2008

You are filled with the consciousness of well-being; with the zest for intoxicating pleasures. Love finds its deepest satisfaction, too, in this phase. These are your personal successes — and they're truly great. There will be more concrete ones too — in profession/career/work, brilliance in fresh output, of course, much easier finances too. As I said, it improves the quality of life, adds to the quotient of both joy and contentment. All of the above can be deemed to be well-described rewards. It seems to me, though, that true Pisceans put the personal angle ahead of all others and it is here that your gains are truly heart-warming.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

NOVEMBER

Pisceans never quite know what they're going to be getting at meal time. It's their imaginative and creative nature, though, which allows them to make a feast out of fairly little.

November 3, 2008 to November 9, 2008

One aspect had been pushed into the background, but now it comes very much to the fore. You gain superb insight, which both sobers you and uplifts you intellectually, so that problems can be worked out. In this phase, you will be thinking of the world, the new century, the future and your own place in it. Your design for yourself, your own perspective of your future will give you the flair and inspiration you need. It directs you to the right moves, but also more importantly, the right choices. Personally, I feel it is the added value of your involvement with religion, society, ceremonies and rites that sets you thinking this way. Whatever be the reason, your gains are manifold.

November 10, 2008 to November 16, 2008

Positive thinking comes to you, making you realize that you do have a lot to be happy about, to be thankful to lord for. Most importantly, it helps you overcome the feelings of sorrow, futility, loneliness or angst that you experience. All people do, but Pisceans are a little more tilted to it. You are not materialistic enough to be content with mere financial or material gains and want some thing more. The enjoyment offered by young people and children, whether they are your own or not should be taken up enthusiastically, not to mention appreciatively. Playfulness and spontaneity- — like we see in children — expand the joy of life. And you need to do that now. You take pride in their activities, development and growth, not to mention their achievements. In seeing life through their eyes, you get back a sense of well-being, youthfulness.

November 17, 2008 to November 23, 2008

You enter a spate of activity that makes you take up other people's causes, worries and concerns as your own. Tricky matters are worked out with much care, and you seek a quiet, healing touch. You are gentle, caring, and kind. The good part of it is that all this is entirely selfless; you just want to hold out a helping hand. You want no gains for yourself and are eager to help with the purest of motives. You truly want to see others happy. In addition, all this applies equally to the care and time you require to spend on people who depend on you, older people, even pets and servants/employees/dependents. Financial affairs too, like funds, joint-funds, rentals, will need wisdom and maturity, not only time and money. You will weigh up the pros and cons seriously and sincerely, before coming to any decision.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER

You need to be very careful with the use of drugs and alcohol as your body is very sensitive to the effects of these and often you need less of the stuff to experience its full effects.

November 24, 2008 to November 30, 2008

Your growth and development as a human being has been truly phenomenal, and this phase sets in a trend with the new-moon, where it will be even more phenomenal. It is reflected very visibly in not just your success but also your attitude to it. All this comes in much more concrete terms like raises, promotions, credit lines, perks, benefits, even public awards and rewards, if you're in a position to avail of them. I mean by position — line of work or activity. Even if not, your cup is full to overflowing. Where it is also reflected is in your home, family, intimacy with loved ones. Personal satisfaction is there, to a large extent, but there is a satisfaction that comes from appreciation by those who matter, recognition of your worth, especially as a human being. This is what I started with, and it is now explained and exemplified gloriously.

December 1, 2008 to December 7, 2008

A truly spectacular growth has been happening to you, and in this phase, which is in your own sign, it all comes to glorious completion. Motivated by idealism, spiritual insights rather than more earthly considerations, you go all out to improve yourself, enhance your personality, implement the lofty ideas you have, your feelings for your fellow men. These, incidentally, benefit more or at least equally, as you exhibit emotional sincerity, caring, charm. You enter a phase of not just perfect control, but great competence in all you do/undertake. Peace, harmony, sheer delight as you coast along, lovingly supported by those around you. Marvelous is too mild a word to describe this phase. You're clever and intuitive enough to understand all its ramifications.

December 8, 2008 to December 14, 2008

Your growth is not a flash in the pan; it's there to stay! Success and glory in this wonderful phase, too, for anything you do. All this adds to the well-being you felt yourself experiencing last week, but now it's so great that it could blow your mind. It will, on a more practical level, manifest itself in a) professional/work/business — success, achievement, true recognition; b) Brightness and gaiety in the social circuit/scene; c) Marvelous domestic conditions — with everything going smoothly; d) Organizing your own space, dynamism in getting your plans together; e) New interests, possibilities ventures, even fresh avenues of work will be explored and found to be very promising.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

DECEMBER

Even in early childhood you do not like to be dependent upon others, and illustrate one of the chief weaknesses of the sign in the endeavor to give away all you possess.

December 15, 2008 to December 21, 2008

Mere material success and gains can never be entirely satisfying for you, and knowing this. All your relationships will blossom and prosper leading to a truly warm and loving home ambience. Your charm and vitality- have won the day — or month — or year. There's love and romance to gladden your heart, reciprocated satisfyingly and joyously. Emotionally as well as physically, you're surrounded by people, by their loving support. At business/professional interactions, too, the scale of operation is not just large, it's enormous. Even conferences, meetings and gatherings find you scintillating, both in performance and charm. You carry everyone with you in terms of ideas. There is an awe-inspiring expertise, bordering on perfection in your creativity and talents. All successes in this week are measured only in terms of you, the individual, and could anything be better, I ask you. Therefore, all that you manage to achieve wont come as any surprise, though there may be moments when things are not quite what they should be. But for now, achievements are a foregone conclusion, with so much going for you. A great week to have when the year is ending, and so much to look back on happily.

December 22, 2008 to December 31, 2008

This final week of the year gives you profit and pleasure but above all, fulfillment and good health, too, for added measure. The fulfillment comes from your own creativity, emotional sensitivity and creative fields like art, theatre, writing, media and films find you marvelously successful. Yet, you excel equally in the spheres of home and family, children, entertainment, entertaining and even (not the best for the last, though) speculation. You might just make inspired moves, investments and get some quick, easy gains. Also equally important will be shopping, buying things for yourself/family/home and acquisitions of personal items like clothes and jewels and accessories. Right now, you know you can afford to splurge. But on the whole, you're really more than busy, career-wise and home-wise. However let me tell you right away that this is not the trend for the phase/month. That is most definitely reserved for the strong focusing of ties — of all kinds. You can go through the entire range from personal ties/bonds: with your siblings, your parents/ children, relatives and km — and find them all satisfying, fulfilling and joyous. You can really look ahead at a happy new year!
