ABOUT ASTROLOGY

Astrology is often defined as the study of the influences of the cosmos on life on earth.

The zodiac is the belt or band of constellations through which the Sun, Moon, and planets transit across the sky.

Astrology is a science related to the heavenly bodies. It is the study of the movements and positions of the sun, moon, planets and stars, and the skill of describing the expected effect that these are believed to have on the character and behavior of humans. Astrology is not at all a fortune telling. It is one of the successfully tested methods for man to learn about who he is, where he came from and where he is going. Astrology reveals CHARACTER and character makes your destiny.

The main uses of astrology are analysis of health and sickness, character psychoanalysis, professional guidance, analysis of children's horoscopes so as to give parents a better idea as to how best to raise their children, and analysis of the compatibilities between people.

Astrology does not show anything but tendencies. A man can dominate his stars by exerting his determination. If a man decides to flow with the wave of life, then the tendencies indicated in the birth chart could be observed in that man. Astrology forewarns and being put on alert, a man is thus in a better position to cope with the struggles of life.

There are three aspects which bring to us the mystic message of the stars - the houses, the signs and the planets. Each house represents a section of life; the signs are divisions of the heavens which by their placement relative to the houses indicate our basic temperament and attitude towards life and the relative motion of the planets through the houses are the messengers of the god which bring to us the opportunities.

About Sun signs

Your sun sign represents the sign of the zodiac that the Sun passed through at the time of your birth. The Sun rules your essential personality, your ego and your willpower. It represents the core of your potential and your distinctiveness as an individual; it is who you are and what you are about.

The beginning and end dates for each of the signs can vary from year to year. Cusp is the border line between two adjacent sun signs. If you were born on a cusp, you may have some qualities of one sign and some from the other sign.

ABOUT THIS BOOK

Destiny refers to a predetermined course of events.

Fate is a power or agency that predetermines and orders the course of events.

Free Will is the ability to select a course of action as a means of fulfilling some desire.

Congratulations on buying a copy of your 2008 horoscopes. These horoscopes are based on sun signs. Your sun sign is determined on the basis of your date of birth.

In astrology, nothing can replace the personal touch of the astrologer because astrology is much more beyond the planets and requires intuition and understanding of the subject.

Life is a journey and the forecasts are given to help you. Use them as a guideline. These horoscopes shall give you an idea of your future in year 2008. A day may be good for one thing and bad for another. Please read the trend in horoscopes carefully as they might indicate opportunities and pitfalls ahead.

There are no absolute guarantees in life. It depends on how you interpret the things. This is a small book and does not contain each and every minute details of the subjects. We've tried to be specific on topic and be general in trends. If we say you'll be busy with your partner, he could be your spouse/colleague/business partner/friend and your pet. Please relate interpret these horoscopes to your way of living.

This book can not be a substitute to a professional astrologer, and you should be seeing one in case you need specific answers to your queries.

All the best in 2008!!

KNOW YOURSELF

Mere sex is not sufficient to cement your involvements, there must also be an intellectual bond.

Often, sexual problems may create marital discord.

You are thought of as quite shy and introvert, and even quite naïve. Your personality and composure is virginal in the sense that you are passive and still don't let your personality and approach get affected by others. The positives are that you are very organized, meticulous and systematic and don't like cluttering and irregularity.

You perform your tasks with a machine like planning and accuracy and this might get on others' nerves. You are very down to earth and are acknowledged for your ability of making people feel comfortable and at home in your company. This is in close association with the fact that you possess an ant-like sincerity and solemnity, and at the same time don't bother about who gets the credit or the spotlight.

You might also possess that nervousness and apprehension that is quite characteristic to people who work hard and want their results too bad. You are not that reserved against sex but take it in a very pure sense. You fancy yourself for being too wise in terms of managing money and making friends, that is the reason why you tend to be a little stingy and at the same time, a bit too analytical and judgmental of the people around you, even your close friends and family.

Qualities that make you lucky are systematic, rational, communicative, and discriminating. Qualities that hinder your success are unbending, indifference and argumentative.

2008 FOR VIRGO

As a friend, Virgo is at his best, very reliable and steady, always helpful and full of practical suggestions.

“Once a friend, always a friend” might well be your motto for life.

The trends for you this year are most strange and amusing – you will learn to do things just for the love of it, and be paid back in equal measure, in both spheres of your life. You will love what you do, and others will just catch up the vibes. You will feel a kind of freedom – I don’t know how this is going to turn out for you in material terms, but I can be sure of one thing – you will surely cherish this period of your life for a long time to come. Could you ask for more?

Luck will be on your side in case you are thinking about a rolling your dice on some project or speculation, but if I were you, I would not overdo it. Other than that, there is a lot of traveling, and the good part is that most of it involves your companion or group of friends or coworkers. But yes, this period calls for introspection. Sure you were trying to make things perfect and improving upon you personal relations and all, but may be you are just lost from within. May be you don’t know who you are and what you want any more! This personal reconstruction will take years, but now is the time to start.

Things will change and it will get more and more difficult to fit in. Those very personal relations that you worked on, won’t work out well, and cause disturbance in your household and office. That’s why what I advised above is so important. Take care of your health and try to refine you image. You will get through this year with a lot many positives, as a totally different person.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

As a father, you tend to be over-critical and little intolerant. You ration out praise and encouragement only in very small quantities. You may seem to be a little cold and distant to your children, and not very affectionate.

JANUARY

You seem to be one of the favored ones and start the year with a bang, which includes love, romance, the luck of the draw, creativity and children, family and fun and fortune. In this spell of rare good fortune, happiness and ecstasy, far be it from me to strike a discordant note. But I should tell you that there may be some pitfalls, problems, posers. These could be (a) some opposition/hindrances from relatives, colleagues, co-workers, even siblings, to your plans/ projects; (b) hassles/delays/snags while traveling, though luckily, no dangers. Be grateful! (c) You are still sometimes too rigid, too demanding, too unbending in your own attitude/stance/personal interactions. Love and marital harmony could suffer. You have to be more flexible, open, pro-active both in the personal/intuitive sphere and in the larger social one too.

FEBRUARY

You may feel that you have taken on too much and have no time to call your own between the demands of work, family and social commitments. Added inflow of cash, possibilities of solid further gains are both definite in any case. I feel you could do with a break, a short trip to unwind relax. That along with the added cash and a better attitude, all lead to greater harmony and free-flowing happiness in the domestic angle and love blesses you graciously. Friends are abundant.

The greatest part of it all is that it is all your own doing — your own efforts have made it happen. And there is a recognition too. Virgos love to work to their own perfect standards. And that's just what you'll be doing this month. In this, your role both as an employee and employer will be in strong focus. You deal with bosses, superiors and colleagues, handle payments in the office. Also handle salaries, benefits and payments to servants, subordinates, dependents and even to your own children. In the last mention, some tensions could arise. What unfortunately could arise are health problems and confrontations. In these conflicts, you may be strongly tempted to be selfish, uncaring, watching out for your own interests and pursuing them with disregard for others.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

As a mother, Virgo is absolutely meticulous about looking after her babies, keeping them spotlessly clean and well-turned out. As her children grow older, she will find motherhood too much of a burden with the never-ending housework.

MARCH

Please read back to the last few lines of the February forecast. This trend intensifies now. You may feel constrained to stir up trouble as you seek to protect your turf, your rights. Rivals present challenges and stiff competition. You could give in to wrong perceptions in family matters. Above all, you may feel worn out, dull and slow with the perception that you're not getting anywhere, surprisingly.

You seek pleasure in love, romance, partying, togetherness, personal relationships. More lasting pleasures come to you from study, learning, writing, lecturing, the give and take of knowledge and intellect. These are your greatest fulfillment. In fact, richness flows to you through cozy, creative work activities, in which you accomplish a lot. Work will be the panacea, the magic mantra that will lead to enhanced prestige and success and also make you feel much better. It is a month for enjoyment as well. Pleasure and work are beautifully combined, even though sometimes for Virgos, work is pleasure! You are used gloriously so that you perform brilliantly, friends are good to you, plans are consummated, benefits bestowed. All this adds up not just to success, and satisfaction, but a high "feel-good" quotient, too.

APRIL

Your mental faculties are honed, sharpened, and then directed to new channels. You are going through a transformation that will have a huge impact on your consciousness and work, even the rest of your life. Let's keep it at that — let the next month unfold its secrets when the time comes, suffice it to say that you are stretching your powers — both mental and physical — to the utmost to lift yourself to new heights of both thought and achievement. A month when finances are really important, though several other things are there, too. But money matters first — funds, fund-raising, investments, even buying-selling. This could pertain to a shift, move, relocation or even migration, though that will develop more fully in the next month.

There is another kind of movement happening to you right now. You are experiencing major changes both emotionally and materially. They set up a chain reaction as you ponder on questions of separation, death, regeneration, spirituality and philosophy, perhaps dealing with debts, family commitments, too. Serious contemplation comes to you, and also insights about the future. You are able both (a) to see clearly the direction you wish to take and (b) ensure that you're able to head to it with focus and enthusiasm.

Ideal Careers for you are doctor, teacher, psychologist, nursing and health and hygiene sectors, scientist, accountant, secretary, and inspector.

MAY

You gain spectacularly in both energy and determination. Strong and determined, you respond to these rare mental and emotional reinforcements. Career, profession, future prospects shoot sky-high. Fresh innovations, new ideas, visionary planning — you could hardly go wrong. You act creatively to get splendid things. You are a human dynamo in your work, and also, in love/ marriage/romance. Love is tempestuous, sudden, brilliant, advancing on you in delicious mystery. And you love it all! Inspiration and travel and good luck are there in plenty, but all leading you to a totally different type of gain. Your wisdom, higher mind, intellect, a certain universality of vision, an awareness of your place in the cosmos. Under this, all despair, worries, questions, angst are dispelled like mist when the sun comes out. Please understand why I wanted to keep this as a lovely surprise, when I hinted at it last month.

JUNE

A great time is setting in for you, and you are more than ready to do it justice. You make the most of your opportunities and your finances are therefore more than good! You not only have enhanced inflow of cash right now, but also prospects for equally marvelous gains in the future — both career/profession and good old hard cash — greenbacks! In addition, despite the jolly times you are awake to, and aware of, your responsibilities and obligations vis-a-vis your domestic set-up and family. You plan, invest, and generally move wisely to create a home that is secure, warm, comfortable, perhaps even luxurious. It is a long-term vision of the future (for self and family) that you will pursue.

Like the dazzle and success of the first two months of the year, once again this month, too a time of 'Splendor in the Sun'. Let me spell out some more of the gains of this wondrous midsummer phase. There are successful relationships, holiday trips, travel and romance, adventure and merry times with companions. It is a time of good times and above all, good moves too, simultaneously.

JULY

A month of both great progress and matching satisfaction. You are making progress in your work and in your relationships. In fact, I would say, to sum up, that you are at the peak of your form, and generously to be rewarded, in terms of both tangible and less tangible, emotive gains. Material benefits, greatly loving friendships, honor, achievements, recognition, an awe-inspiring repute are all yours. You are truly generous, to the point of extravagance. It's good, of course, but not too much. Especially with friends or colleagues, financial involvements like loans/ handouts may lead to falling out, rather than drawing closer. It's in the strictly personal sphere like love and marriage that you and your mate/spouse/partner, truly draw close, sharing hopes, ideals, ideologies.

These lead you to enjoy the activities in the domain of family, community, the world, which make them better; even your home is made more beautiful and more efficient. It is a true reflection not only of your taste, but your total persona. And right now, your persona is something to behold!

AUGUST

A 180-degree shift comes now. You may feel its come like a bolt out of the blue but the build-up has been in your subconscious for a while now — it just got buried under your success and its dazzle. Doubts, questions, reservations about work; other, metaphysical and cosmic questions about death, rebirth, even about doom and disaster on a cosmic (not personal) scale. Naturally enough, an inward-looking, introspective mood and attitude; you do not give in to despair, but become more detached from the material world.

Perhaps to shake off these strange fancies, the month ends with you once again embarking on a round of enjoyment, pleasure-seeking, even looking at fresh new luxuries, dynamic action as well as work and business decisions which have far-reaching consequences and impact. Right now, your moves will have mixed results. Nobody can expect constant, perpetual smooth sailing. There may be injury, illness, health-care to contend with — your own or in the family. Naturally, huge expenses; some economies will have to be made. Not necessarily a bad thing, since you've been on one heck of a spending binge both for yourself and for others. It is a manifestation of your genuine desire to make others happy.

MONTHLY HOROSCOPES

You dislike hazards to health, sloppy, and narrow-minded people, squalor, being uncertain, and uncleanliness

SEPTEMBER

Where there was withdrawal, reserve, isolation, now you're very visible indeed in the public eye. Publicity, research information, communications will all be highly lucrative. Also high are your own credit, popularity, productivity. Wish-fulfillment, too, could be yours in a wonderful way. All ties — love, professional, friendly, neighborly — are strengthened and reinforced. The truly wonderful part is that your gains are those of the mind. Your creativity and ingenuity, genuine inspiration, all make you scintillate both at work and at play in the two months of August and September taken as a single unit. Here, I'd like to elaborate on the differences and the changes that time has wrought. You've certainly grown, both emotionally and intellectually.

You may, I hope, have learnt to let go of anger, harsh words, an over-critical attitude that hurts where no hurt is intended by you. All good, all great. In your birth month, these are wonderful gains, but there is always heightened activity, leading to even greater gains — both tangible and otherwise. Inspiration, creativity, savvy, style, inventiveness — how: can these be measured? They are certainly there in plenty, and give results that one could kill for. Not least, they lead to romance, success with the opposite sex — ranging from light flirtations, to serious involvement. I did talk earlier about how you're scintillating right now.

OCTOBER

Where there was intellectual, mental even academic growth, you're now ready to explore other arenas. Mental gains are all very well, one might be tempted to say, but where do they lead? In this month, you get all the glorious results, the achievements and laurels that are the mark of success in this material world. The best part is that you continue to perform at your peak — and that's saying something! You find there is nothing for which you don't have answers. A rich harvest of fun. entertaining, entertainment is perhaps the least of it.

More visible will be the financial gains which are not only more money in the bank, but greater mobility of cash, leading to wise investments, trade, buying/selling, even of shares and stocks. Good going for arts — and media-related professionals, too. Finally, your greater flexibility and willingness to bend, to put yourself out, get rid of wrong motives, wrong attitudes will lead to truly marvelous rapport and pleasure with those you interact with and love — bonds of family, marriage, kinship, friendship, neighborliness. A tremendous sense of harmony prevails in your life.

You are most compatible with Capricorn, Taurus, and Virgo.

NOVEMBER

The bonds and ties that gave so much pleasure last month continue, and are greatly strengthened and reinforced now. You experience sharing in magnificent ways, Shared finances and their handling too come into the picture as the year is ending. Money matters are discussed with mutual consideration. You may well realize that it's time for steady moves rather than risk-taking. You're prepared, and willing to work quietly, even secretly. A mellow, happy, but subdued attitude seems better suited to good, solid progress. And that's the way you handle it.

No flashy displays, no grand-standing. Just caring, sharing and moving ahead. From your own self-orientation, you discover just how important people can be, and are, to you. You'll do all that's possible to reach out to people and places. I have to take recourse in this phrase, since it covers the entire gamut or reach! Here I'm not playing with words, I must add this reaching out is more in the mind; subtly enriching and guiding the people who matter to you as much as it inspires and enthuses you. A truly marvelous phase to have, as the year draws to a close.

DECEMBER

Your mellow, caring mood persists. It might be said to have part of your persona! And the reaching out is not just global, perhaps even cosmic in its impact. You mend fences, if necessary, with parents, in-laws, bosses, superiors, older relatives. I would say the theme is building very strong bridges of understanding and accord with those you relate to. You could make/acquire some luxuries, objects of beauty, or even invest in works of art. Along with your prestige come added income, maybe perks, bonus, ex-gratia payments. Your work prospers along with your relationships. Fine achievements at the end of the years thanks to God's continued blessings.

You will truly usher out the year in style. It's celebration time indeed. But you do take rapid strides on the work as well as the home front from June 30, 2008 to June 4, 2011. You will have the sincere satisfaction of getting your due and just rewards. Let me also tell you a secret. Even after the period mentioned the going will be great and grand. I am sure you can read between the lines! Let me just give you the lowdown on what it will entail. Home-life, retirement, your roots, all lead you to feel a sense of peace. Travel, partnerships, even future plans are viewed conservatively. Good sources of prosperity have opened to you and you are content. This has, in fact, been building up gradually and will carry over into 2009 as well. You improve, re-do, redecorate, glamorize (even) your home. You will review your social and professional interactions too in the same manner, and revamp quite a bit in terms of both associations and lifestyle.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JANUARY

You are semi-compatible with Libra, Scorpio, Cancer, Leo, Aquarius, and Aries.

January 1, 2008 to January 6, 2008

You see the emergence of a strong and definite theme from now on — and it's a very pleasing one. This theme will include power and position and also wealth, and advancement as wonderful add-ons. You're raking in benefits with a shovel! And that's the perfect mindset to have right now. It reflects on family and personal life in 2008.

January 7, 2008 to January 13, 2008

A mood of nostalgia, and of looking back, and yet paradoxically of eagerly anticipating the future will characterize you now. Similarly, on the one hand, you seek out people, socialize quite hectically and on the other hand, you have a sense of withdrawal, a wish to move away from it all, sensing how hollow it is, strange but true. It could be the combined effect of your life and the new moon. Whatever reason you may ascribe, suddenly you need to move away from the world you seem to have so recently conquered. Solitude and lonely places are attractive, but so also is your ability to earn well, to shine in the world you inhabit.

January 14, 2008 to January 20, 2008

The realization that we all have to be part of the world gradually comes to you, now. Wise counsel from friends must be heeded. They will see things that might not be so apparent to you in terms of dangers and pitfalls in your present activities. You were full of optimism in the closing weeks of December, and this is what you must revert to. You feel that the coming year held out much promise. Let me spell it out for you this week. All- round gains — in money, power, prestige, entertaining, social life — will be very likely. Also, a gain in self-esteem which is very natural but could be dangerous if it heads you towards pride and ego, or refusal to listen to others, who may be well-meaning and sincere.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JANUARY

You are incompatible with Sagittarius,
Pisces, and
Gemini

January 21, 2008 to January 27, 2008

The miracles of achievement and wonderful success are bound to come. The flow of favors and gifts from the almighty never seems to stop. That just about sums it up this week. The factors that total up to this are — a rise in power, prestige and position; continued good health and romance, even falling in love in relationships. What more could anyone ask for? You've been both busy and happy since the beginning of the year, and possibly even earlier. And now there's even more!

January 28, 2008 to February 3, 2008

A change of mind-set comes once again and you revert to the mood of the start of the year, with certain changes. The withdrawal or craving for solitude that you experienced in the new moon phase crystallizes and takes a spiritual direction/dimension. Prayers and worship, tantra and mantra, the occult, the parapsychological and the metaphysical facets of life draw and interest you very greatly. Money matters are still good. Deals/partnerships/ negotiations/collaborations will click smoothly and effectively. There could be a shift, change of place or house move, if not now then sometime in the future.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

FEBRUARY

Virgos are fanatic about cleanliness, perceived or real, and may develop phobias about hygiene and sanitation. Conventionalism and a strict adherence to society's rules and regulations are what to expect from a Virgo mate if they have not progressed along life's learning path.

February 4, 2008 to February 10, 2008

The theme of the first week of the year crystallizes and shows a new, yet similar progression. On the one hand, you are the social being, even the party-animal, entertaining and being entertained. You are invited to, and seen at, all the right, even the 'in' places. You know what's hot, and what's not! On the other hand, you are far more withdrawn and solitary than you have been for quite some time. Lonely places, isolated spots, quiet and solitude draw you. Travel and negotiations, even secret meetings, deals that no one knows about, will be important. This is therefore a phase with two equally strong themes, which will last through the entire lunar month.

February 11, 2008 to February 17, 2008

Steady progress and satisfaction are yours now. At work, there may be expansion, growth, development. It may be that your quiet negotiations and deals are already paying you dividends. It can also be the rewards of your own efforts made much earlier. Whatever the reason, the money is good and you are in better shape physically, too. The cash flow will be pleasing, reassuring since it will be a steady stream, though not a torrent. Relationships, too, grow or blossom. There is warmth, harmony, caring in marital and domestic ties, as well as the ties of friendship. Another fine week from which you gain much in terms of confidence and contentment.

February 18, 2008 to February 24, 2008

From steady gains to spectacular ones is the way it goes, this week. And that's the way you want it. You are not prepared to give yourself any quarter — both personally and professionally. It could lead to stress, exhaustion, even total burn-out. As you might know, Virgos are often total workaholics and there is always the danger that you will try to do too much. In your own sign, what could the full moon phase bring you except wishes and dreams coming true, and ambitions being realized? While all this does or may happen, there is a slight risk built in. In your efforts to realize your dream/ambition, you may be pushing yourself too far, taking on more than you can cope with.

February 25, 2008 to March 2, 2008

The focus is more on work than on home/family/socializing — in fact, totally so. It is uncanny, sometimes, how the phases tally with the sun sign they're in. Sagittarius is the sign of the archer. You are focusing and targeting, with single-minded determination and almost total concentration on your career, your work, the goals you have set yourself. That is definitely the theme for this week. It is a time of advancement/promotion/change of job/a deputation to a higher post. You will not only rise to the challenge of the new situation but actually enjoy it. I must add the new situations could also include a shift/house-move or transfer to a new place/city.

March 3, 2008 to March 9, 2008

You have met challenges head on. Thus, while there is joy and harmony in family, life, love and relationships, it is your professional side that is truly awe-inspiring in splendor. You are dynamic, successful and committed. In fact, I might say that success could be your middle name; it makes for the right moves, the right persona. A time of glory both in personal life and the professional sphere. There seems to be no end to god's bounty for you, dear Virgos. And remember, the new moon phase ushers in a trend that usually lasts a month. In this case, it will spread over several months. While on the subject let me also add that it takes you from strength to strength.

March 10, 2008 to March 16, 2008

You turn your attention back to your family and loved ones, now that your professional life is ticking over so smoothly and satisfactorily. It is your family, your parents, your ancestors, your roots, even tracing your family-tree's off-shoots that are important. I might say that your home and family are your main concern, and you lavish care, attention, time and love on them; particularly on older members of the family. You might be seriously contemplating, or getting, a second home for family holidays, like in the hills, at resorts or by the sea. There could therefore be a fair amount of time spent in travel. It does not take you away from your commitment and caring for your family.

March 17, 2008 to March 23, 2008

You carry on splendidly, making a go of almost anything you undertake. It's a glorious time for you c on the work front. It is not that the home/family has reached into the background of your consciousness. It is a quiet and routine time in domestic matters. What will engage your attention, demand much time and effort will be all matters pertaining to money ranging from high finance to domestic budgets. Loans, securities, joint-finance, bonds, pension and even retirement packages will all be important. For you, the money is good. You are getting the rewards you deserve — in the financial sense, particularly and it's a good feeling, any way you look at it.

March 24, 2008 to March 30, 2008

It seems that nothing is being left out for you! I must list the goodies, once again, that god gives you: joy in love; bliss in marriage (if no longer single); recreation; entertaining and being entertained to degree beyond coping with, almost; fun and romance if you're footloose and fancy-free; friends, companionship that's warm and pleasing; stimulating new "friends/acquaintances. 'Man is a social animal' — never was a truer word said than this for you Virgos in this reek! This is the time when the balance you were juggling with last week has tilted, but in the most joyous way.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

APRIL

Your hobbies are quizzing, writing, painting, and anything else that requires analytical and practical, methodical qualities.

March 31, 2008 to April 6, 2008

In today's world of consumerism, success has to be visible — to you and to others, too — to have any meaning. This is perhaps the reason for your hectic schedule of activities. They will center around all/some of: travel, loans, sex, passion, funds, buying/ selling/shopping, (these three most certainly) and reaching out to people. This last becomes an extension of your personality. You need to do it! Journeys and relationships and acquisitions all conspire to come together, this week.

April 7, 2008 to April 13, 2008

Your pursuit of success and glory has yielded more than the desired results, but there was a small downside, which you now deal. Family matters, though, could be a totally different story. You light have spent less time than was required on them, in your pursuit of career objectives. Now, you may need to sort out problems, disentangle conflicts and relationships, before it's too late. Property matters and domestic disputes (not necessarily your own) will need care, attention, tact. Both the family and finance are equally focal and important, for you this week, and by extension, this lunar month. In financial and professional matters you are bold, determined, daring and may even make some radical new changes or moves. I'm talking of a bold approach to the handling of financial matters.

APRIL

Virgo subjects are most susceptible to ailments of the throat and eyes. In addition, there may be problems associated with irregularities of the digestive systems and blood impurities.

April 14, 2008 to April 20, 2008

The demands of ties, bond of family, relationships (from strictly personal friends) not only fight for your attention, but get it totally! There will be quality time with loved ones, family and mate/partner/spouse. The last mentioned, your true soul mate/love will be a source of joy and delight. Once again, at the more material level, a propitious time for creativity, hobbies, good investments, entertainment, and most definitely, children. All of these give you a feeling of fulfillment and joy. You feel you are rich indeed, in every sense and feel a rush of thankfulness, joy.

April 21, 2008 to April 27, 2008

You will excel at any activity that involves interpersonal relationships. The entire range from love and marriage to conferences, meets, collaborations, one-to-one dialogs — you name it! A rare blend of humaneness, warmth and brilliance are yours. You are thriving in the glory or what you are able to achieve, and all you do is slow down and take a deep breath of thankfulness. A little addition here, your public image shines even brighter than before — much like the full moon of this glorious phase.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

MAY

You are sensible and discreet and great at giving advice to others that you actually need yourself.

April 28, 2008 to May 4, 2008

A time for responsible, caring activities. You've worked hard for all that you're getting. More importantly, you're never shy of work, and it's your willingness to work that will yield results. I am referring to relationships with co-workers/colleagues/employees/subordinates. You join in to help them, with your typically careful attention to minute details. The results, of course, are phenomenal: on the work front, your public-relations skill and humane qualities will win the day. I should have said win the entire month! And it's justly deserved. It's not as if you've just waved a magic wand around and got all that you've had, right from the beginning of the year. You have been both responsible and responsive in all kinds of situations/conflicts/work-demands.

May 5, 2008 to May 11, 2008

You now have to focus very strongly on money, finances, earnings and extras. Expenses will obviously be high. Just read back to the forecast for the last few weeks. You've been behaving like the last of the big spenders. Maybe all those little plastic credit cards have to be paid for now! You will not be lacking in the resources to pay for them — and more. Money matters are the trend from this new moon. You may even find yourself spending on luxuries, comforts, new gadgets, artifacts — but all for the home. So its money well spent if it improves the quality of life.

May 12, 2008 to May 18, 2008

With your finances in order, and money-inflow under control, there is the time and leisure to deal with other activities, family life, a bit of social interaction. The pace flows down a trifle. You have the god there to help you score in activities dealing with any or all of: media, the political arena, distinguished gatherings, publicity and high society. You will most definitely be involved in the care of dependents, pets, parents and elderly people. It seems quite a list, but nothing is too much for you to achieve, right now. You will be achieving on all the fronts with panache, comfort and style.

MAY

Virgo faults, as is usual with all zodiacal types, are the extremes of their virtues. Fastidious reticence and modesty become old-maidishness and persnickiness; balanced criticism becomes carping and nagging; and concern for detail becomes overspecialization.

May 19, 2008 to May 25, 2008

This is the second full moon phase in the same sign. The theme is largely the same — interpersonal, relationships — but there have to be certain variations. There are parties, social gatherings, even official/business get-togethers. You will be in a position of responsibility, trust, and power. Also, needless to say, prestige. You will rise to the occasion(s) in style. At the same time you are strongly aware of the rights that come with responsibility. This has been a recurring theme right through several weeks and once again, you respond to it beautifully, and accept larger commitments — to society, the world, to humankind.

May 26, 2008 to June 1, 2008

You withdraw from your public persona this week. After your impressive display of people skills, you do a sudden about-turn. It is now a time for hidden meetings, not underhand but certainly secret activities, arcane interests and knowledge, even an undisclosed love-affair, liaison or involvement. I am not implying that it will be things you are ashamed of that you're doing. You just don't want them publicized or talked about. It's also time for very major expenses. Perhaps your activities demand it. Since they're secret, even I don't know. But they are strongly indicated, and could have very widespread impact and ramifications. That's for sure.

JUNE

Virgo
Strengths are Analytical,
Observant,
Helpful,
Reliable,
and Precise.

June 2, 2008 to June 8, 2008

You turn back to home and hearth, to the joys of family and domestic bliss, and you turn back to them for a welcome respite from the cut-and-thrust of the world. The quieter life beckons. Even though you derive both your motivation and strength from them, you have not been able to savor and enjoy them fully. In matters financial, though, you will still be whizzing along. Risks and gambles will pay off. You may once again be out shopping — things of luxury and beauty for the home, even works of art, music systems or gadgets that take the good life even better. But it's all done quietly, not with pomp and show, since it stems from care and contentment.

June 9, 2008 to June 15, 2008

This phase in your own sun-sign brings home a fact that you have ways known. So, do well. The realization of our hopes and dreams lies in our own hands. What you now feel and internalize is that fact that you go at it realistically — the only way to success is hard work. Even I have to work hard, to study and research, before I can predict successfully/accurately. Travel and ties will be important, particularly the latter. For ties, please read: joint-ventures, collaborations, partnerships, personal relationships — the entire gamut. They will prove lucrative in ways beyond money, but you have to work at them sincerely. You have to be less critical, less demanding, more willing to give quarter, give leeway, and give others a lance to do things their way. It may not be your way, necessarily, but you will get benefits from it.

June 16, 2008 to June 22, 2008

You will be saying and doing all the right things, handling every job or chore with intensity and skill. This will actually stretch to elude your socializing, play and pleasure activities as well. In fact, the two — work and pleasure — come together into a single, harmonious whole. And you're truly impressive, though work has a light edge over pleasure. I've said it often enough, and I say it now, I could be wrong, but that's the way I see it shaping up for you this week. You enjoy giving a more than good count of yourself— especially professionally. Virgos are people who are never happier than when at work.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JUNE/JULY

Virgo
Weaknesses are Skeptical,
Fussy,
Inflexible,
Cold and Interfering.

June 23, 2008 to June 29, 2008

The universe gives you, in this phase, a time when you are doing some serious introspection, regarding your value-systems, your life as you perceive it in the future — the way you want to go personally is also important. Perhaps an extremely private issue will need to be addressed and resolved to your mutual satisfaction. Your pace of work continues, despite so many things wing for your attention. However, there is further good news for you. Once again, there is the distinct possibility that a long-held ambition, hope/dream may come true. It may not be in quite the way you imagine. (It never is, there are always 'ifs' and 'buts'). But maybe the hopes are for your children who, along with your immediate family circle, give you great joy.

June 30, 2008 to July 6, 2008

A truly fine phase comes to you as a monthly trend with this new moon. You have the academic/intellectual brilliance for true creativity. You also gain in tact, charm and persuasive skills to make a wonderful job of dealing with people and relationships. You, in fact, acquire a certain glamor, or chutzpah as the Americans say, that makes love and personal interactions of all kinds stimulating and joyous. Isn't that really great? Almost all sectors — love, finance, family, work are buzzing.

July 7, 2008 to July 13, 2008

The focal point shifts suddenly and almost dramatically to involvement in domestic matters; affairs at home may need a lot of time and attention and in several ways. You will have to find the time to do all this, and also meet the demands of your own career/profession. The god helps you to manage! It is a time when his help and guidance will be sorely needed. Not to mention patience, tact, skill and restraint. There may be negotiations related to property, joint holdings, family funds or disputes. There would even be some settlements to work out (even a divorce settlement, not necessarily your own). All of these prove to be demanding to the point of being stressful!

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

JULY

Each sign has a part of the anatomy attached to it, making this the area of the body that is most sensitive to stimulation. The anatomical areas for Virgo are the intestines and digestion.

July 14, 2008 to July 20, 2008

You must have been blessed by god for in your profession/career, you're really the all-time great in terms of achievement, promotion/advancement. It will show itself most prominently, of course, in terms of money, where you'll almost have won the Derby stakes. Money is not the only yardstick, however, even though its importance can never be undervalued. More than wealth or you is the recognition and rewards that success brings on. In non-cash terms, these are: tremendous job-satisfaction, far greater self-esteem and confidence; and also success in the eyes of others and a prestige blessed on personal worth (and again. I don't mean money, though it's more than good).

July 21, 2008 to July 27, 2008

The family sense takes precedence over the social one. You experience, and give much care and love from your siblings, relatives and kin. You also may need to travel a bit, but it may provide the opportunity to renew old contacts, ties, relationships that may have been neglected. You also wish to and do, broaden the vistas of your mind in terms of acquiring new skills, learning the latest in your field of specialization, information technology, even wisdom.

July 28, 2008 to August 3, 2008

A phase comes to you when you consciously come to a sudden and almost total standstill. You will want to redefine goals and priorities, think and plan for the future as you reassess the way your life is going. There may be some event/happening which is the immediate trigger, but the subconscious buildup has been there for some time now. Expenses galore keep you on your toes. There is a strong indication of visits to hospitals. It may even be yourself; certainly someone very close to you. It may just be only the need for a thorough check-up, or the necessity of a rest-cure. It will make you stop in your tracks, though, metaphorically speaking, as I said at the beginning of this forecast.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

AUGUST

The best gift for a Virgo is something that is useful things and makes their everyday labor easier.

August 4, 2008 to August 10, 2008

A totally changed scenario — and focus — is what this new moon brings. It is a trend which will last not just through the lunar month, but several weeks past it, though the details will vary, of course. Anyway, it has three different spheres that are activated, and are vibrantly demanding. You achieve success in — (a) lots of hard work, slogging and making money: (b) love and romance — no elaboration needed here; (c) prayer, religion and worship, meditation and faith. It is this last, in fact, which makes you succeed in the other two.

August 11, 2008 to August 17, 2008

You're active, interactive and very visible at whatever you do. A certain style and glamor are on display as you hit the social scene, entertain with panache, and accept hospitality with grace and charm. In short, a scintillating week socially. You also make good money while the going is good, too but I foresee a little over stretching of yourself in terms of overdoing things, or trying to cope with too much. That way lies stress and ill-health. You walk through business meets, collaborations and such with flair and brilliance. Style and panache apply here too, not just on the social scene.

August 18, 2008 to August 24, 2008

It may be that you had started believing your own publicity, and thought that nothing adverse could hit you. There are huge expenses, and also coping with illness for someone close indeed, or for yourself. I would be justified in saying. 'I told you so', but I won't. You are more than able and also willing to totally reassess your life, activities, and lifestyle and make the necessary adjustments and changes. This will definitely be part of the soul-searching you will embark on now. It's time to slow down, in several ways. You are able to see the direction to give your life and your activities in the future through a really spectacular phase for a long time now. This moon phase will almost make you stop dead in your tracks.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER

When it comes to relationships, Virgo is as devoted as a sign can possibly be. These sincere souls are willing to do whatever it takes, whenever it's needed, to let their beloveds know just how dear they are.

August 25, 2008 to August 31, 2008

A certain magic enters your interactions, at all levels. There will be an originality, sheer inventiveness, ingenuity on display in your handling of people and of contentious issues. This will be not on a large scale of politics and global issues it where people, family, loved ones are involved. There will be both wisdom and insight as you can be fair to both sides; and charm and tact to make them realize that you e playing fair, with their best interests at heart. This will so apply to interactions at the office/workplace. You are wizard in the fields of communication and negotiation. You are not at all demanding or critical but kind, just and considerate. That makes for marvelous communication, and gets you the results you want!

September 1, 2008 to September 7, 2008

All spheres activity become activated, rejuvenated, galvanized. Skill, achievements, wish-fulfillments are all foretold. For money-matters, we advise care, even research and study, before making new investments. There is the bad side also being activated, please remember. You could be a victim of fraud, or at least of envy and animosity. You have had a spell that could excite envy in the heart of a saint. Not that you've not had enviable success even earlier in the year. But right now, something tells me you need to be watchful and vigilant and specifically so in guarding your interests and your loved ones.

September 8, 2008 to September 14, 2008

What comes now is the logical follow through from the sparkle of last week! You were not lacking in knowledge of the right attitude to life, but now it becomes almost a part of your being, your self, your soul. You will feel the necessity of being able to cope with whatever life has to offer, joys and sorrows, success, trials and tribulations. And now you realize where the road to true success lies. Most importantly, you are now able to define success, as you wish to see it happen. You will now come to a true realization of how you need to live in terms of values, motivation and focus.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

SEPTEMBER

Virgo is not a highly sexed zodiac sign and does not place much importance on it, if anything they consider sex to be gross and dirty.

September 15, 2008 to September 21, 2008

This phase is a totally natural corollary to the last two weeks and very special in your birth month phase. Peace and a feeling of total harmony with your surroundings, in fact, the world, are the gifts this week. Closely examined, this spells out joy and warmth from family, spouse, and children. Love and romance acquire a similar aura and your attitude to work, too, takes on special inspiration. Do I need to add that this makes for excellence, caring and sharing, a global view of life, even perhaps a cosmic one, and definitely, emotions and spirituality in a bonding as rare as it is beautiful?

September 22, 2008 to September 28, 2008

In this second quarter in the sign of the twins, while your brilliance relationships remains the theme, there are the differences at come with your having moved on, quite a bit. Let's flirt with personal life, love/romance/marriage — there are good times and there is laughter. What have you got professionally? The answer is spectacular success (in terms of profit and gains), new partnerships, and future gain from collaborations. That's not all. True achievements — nativity and those in the creative fields like art, music, literature, the media, and info-technology, web-signing — will truly excel at whatever they take on. You will give of your best, and it will come back to you in equal measure.

OCTOBER

To the world, Virgo presents a calm and collected exterior but on the inside, nervous uncontrolled intensity in the mind, trying to figure things out, how to improve everything, analyzing and thinking.

September 29, 2008 to October 5, 2008

You strive to balance your various activities/interests/commitments/desire — this last, please note. It will be like a juggler's act. You will struggle to see that none of the balls come crashing down. I'm talking about — family, money-matters, sex and passion, religion and worship, and of course, the issues of your work. Whatever, stress could be a natural outcome. A time to end carelessness, especially while traveling/commuting, accidents and health hazards are indicated and you already have more than enough to deal with the week. And that too, mostly positive though not quite glorious as the first half of the year.

October 6, 2008 to October 12, 2008

You could have been a prey of tensions, nameless dread of the unknown, worries about more definite things. You will experience an ease and repose of mind now. You feel you can afford to relax, take life easy, and be more carefree. Socializing, happy times with friends entertaining and hospitality and family will come from this more relaxed frame of mind. You need people around you — and are more than prepared to meet them halfway. You will also have not just absence of worry, but considerable success as well in your work/business/career/profession, with this new more accommodating attitude.

October 13, 2008 to October 19, 2008

You're again managing several activities at once. What I mean is that (a) all three need to be taken in the larger sense and (b) all of them require time, effort and outlay. Expenses are a foregone conclusion. The food industry itself could be your stamping ground, family could mean in-laws, kin and relatives from both sides: and finance could imply deals and mergers, collaborations, joint-funds, even global tenders and transactions.

OCTOBER

Before a
Virgo
plunges into anything, from a problem to a vacation idea, they need to analyze all the facts and know all the details before they plunge in and make a decision.
This makes them seem indecisive and slow.

October 20, 2008 to October 26, 2008

I said in the forecast of 2nd week of October that you need people around you. This will be the focus this quarter. It is your relationships around which your activities, in fact, your life will revolve. You will redefine yourself with even, personal relationship — with your parents, it's your filial duty, with your spouse caring and sharing, with your children there's joy, pride in their achievements, and nurturing and providing. Not only do you enjoy it all, you do it with devotion and commitment. It's no half-measure for you! You will pull out all the stops as you make the greatest possible effort to live up to the demands of your role in their lives. I must clarify that they will not be making the demands, but it would be your own exacting, meticulous nature that wants to achieve what you consider is your perfect role. Therefore, a complicated week.

October 27, 2008 to November 2, 2008

Both ceremonies (religious or otherwise) and a fair amount of travel are coming your way. Also spiritual travel to greater heights of perception, insight and some wisdom too. It's a renewal of faith, and brings a similar renewal of spirit, enthusiasm. You will experience a phenomenal burst of energy and power; you can win at anything you put your mind to, particularly love and money. Some kind of wish-fulfillment or realization of ambitions is almost definite. It may also be that you determine to make yourself over in terms of health and physique, fitness and religion, not to mention clothes, appearance, accessories: the works, in fact.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

NOVEMBER

Normally, Virgo is health conscious and makes an effort to stay physically fit, becoming a picky eater, if not a food-faddist.

November 3, 2008 to November 9, 2008

A theme has been developing over the last few weeks. In case you haven't been able to see it, let me know. The astro-indication from the stars is quite clear. You need to overcome the dangers of isolating yourself by reaching out to people and places. This phrase covers a lot of ground. New friends stimulate and excite you, inspire new ideas and creativity, so do new places — as each place has a distinct feel, flavour and atmosphere. In fact, another theme — of realizing certain fundamental truths about yourself and how you need to lead your life — has also strengthened. There is a difference between solitude (which we all need/enjoy from time to time) and being alone (when you are a prey to loneliness, even melancholy and sadness). In order to achieve the former, you tend to detach yourself from the world around you, yet a lot of travel is foretold.

November 10, 2008 to November 16, 2008

Your energy mounts now, and you get back to the world quite forcefully. Personally, you will not just do well but shine at people-related activities like tests of skill, interviews, meetings, even public performances, lectures, debates. Therefore, the feeling of being alone is a thing of the past. You are much more sharing and communicative with spouse/lover/ mate and other family members. Your children's activities and travel are both sources of joy and pleasure. They also serve to drive away the blues and depression you could have fallen prey to. We all do — and learn to overcome them.

November 17, 2008 to November 23, 2008

Realizing the way you need to go makes you scale down your activities to include (a) your immediate little world, and (b) the larger world of the society, community, even the neighborhood or town you live in. Social welfare, or activism as it is now called, takes you into the arenas of action. So also do financial matters like loans, capital formation, trusts and investments. Care of pets, dependents, parents and in-laws, even the elderly and your employees, is part of the grand plan of life right now. And you feel it is a much better one than what you were doing earlier.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

NOVEMBER/DECEMBER

Virgos often have a tendency to indulge in drugs or drink. Alcohol deems to be more a poison to them than to any other zodiac.

November 24, 2008 to November 30, 2008

Suddenly, the glory and brilliance are back. There will be perks, prestige, and power. And also, the rewards and recognition that are due. But this week also brings a new focus, and different rewards that you will consider far more valuable. What I consider to have been your gain this year, though, is a certain mellowing, greater tolerance, much more kindness than you ever showed/experienced before, lord has gifted you with the intuition to understand his, and wear your laurels with grace and dignity. Not or you the pomp and show of external success alone, four soul has started to want more. And you will seek it sincerely.

December 1, 2008 to December 7, 2008

The higher? If or super ego that dwells in all of us has gradually seen activated within you. A large proportion of your thoughts and inner life have dealt with the values you hold dear. A different and very much more elevated mind-set is the result. Self-help and hard work will seem to be even more desirable than ever; your soul itself will make you rive to excel — personally, emotionally, spiritually; and f course, professionally. I mentioned it last as it is your west priority in this lofty state of mind. Self-advancement a totally different kind is what you will strive to achieve, you will now display and experience the idealism of a visionary. And the beauty of it all is that you seek to make a part of not just your life and your daily activities but hat one could call your ethos, your reason for existing.

December 8, 2008 to December 14, 2008

We still have to live in this world. Therefore, the inner changes alone, while vitally important, will not totally satisfy you — or possess you —for that matter. You will attempt to project yourself well in the eyes of others. It may be the motivating factor for many of your actions this quarter. It may even motivate you to take up a new type or line of work, something you had earlier thought of and abandoned. The reason then was that you had a brilliant performance record in your work. Now you're willing to take on new challenges and see if you can handle them equally well for your own satisfaction! The growth of your inner, idealistic self is something you will keep safely hidden within you. like a miser hoards his gold. Your public image, will also, paradoxically enough, be of equal importance, as I've already mentioned in some detail.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPES

DECEMBER

Courtesy of an abundance of nervous energy, the little Virgo is a child in constant motion. It is vital that such energy has something constructive to do, otherwise restlessness and boredom will soon set in.

December 15, 2008 to December 21, 2008

This phase, almost at the end of the year, in your own sun-sign, is like an extra-special bonus. It will set you up for the year ahead, and beyond too, possibly. The very positive mind-set that has been developing over the last phase now takes on new dimensions. You will make up and be friends with rivals and competitors, even enemies. Also, you look for, and get in touch with friends and relatives you haven't seen in a long time. Finally your lover/mate and your family find and receive warmth, closeness and love which is gentle rather than passionate. Social life, functions and ceremonies are fun, and keep you busy. Right now, to sum up, people are paramount for you.

December 22, 2008 to December 31, 2008

The year concludes with a similar moon phase to what it started with. The circle is complete in one respect, and yet it is only a new beginning. There has been a force, a motivating factor behind all your success and dazzle. You now turn to it for strength, sustenance, and inspiration. Your home and family, your meditative and contemplative side, as well as your performance have all to be balanced. The sphere of finance will also be important, especially in view of the upward trend started in the new moon phase. Increased income, benefits, stock options will have to be wisely handled and carefully invested. In fact, this week is a natural progression from the last week. You will learn how to handle success well, and with grace. There is a tremendous sense of fulfillment and contentment, positive thinking and greater idealism to take ahead with you into the new year. You will experience in this week love and joy from and with children, fun and frolic, the thrills of making a little money out of speculation and time with loved ones. A marvelous end to a marvellous year!
